LOCAL NEWS.

No City Court yesterday.
News was very scarce yesterday.
Please hand in your advertisements early to-day.

A good reliable boy can find employment at this office.
Melton displays a fine lot of beef this morning.

This weather makes us long for a trip down the river.
It is thought that the Tussock will get out on Tuesday.

Ger. barque Michael, Marx, hence, arrived at Steffin, May 1st.
Bro. McDuffie, of the Laurinburg Enterprise, was in the city yesterday.

Br. schr. Mabel Darling, Ranger hence, arrived at Nassau, N. P., April 10th.

Duplin Court opens on Monday, the 22nd inst., with Judge Gilmer on the Bench.

Now sleepers are being put under the bridge which spans the Cape Fear river at Hilton.

Steamship Regulator, Doane, cleared at New York May 3rd., for this port, and sailed the same day.

Capt. Harper, of the Italian, reports seeing a whale about six miles to sea on yesterday. It is said to have been a large fellow.

Mr. C. W. Yates has some large sized photos of the various churches and quite a number of private residences in this city.

Those handy packages of Budweiser Beer at Carl Mugges's are just the thing for picnics, excursions, etc. Something new; look at them.

The German barque Erwin is in below. She crossed the bar yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock. We did not ascertain where she was from.

Col. F. W. Kerchner, of this city, was in Raleigh on Wednesday, as was also Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Pender county, and Col. A. Pope, of Richmond.

Mr. H. A. London, of the Chatham Record, whose family are now on a visit to this city, arrived here yesterday morning and will remain until Tuesday next.

Dave Mallet was "run in" yesterday. He made a mistake of a day—usually taking his weekly quota on Saturday—the day for which he has letters patent.

We understand that the ladies and gentlemen of St. John's Church have decided to have a lawn party at an early day, probably at the City Hall Park—if it can be obtained.

A small boy broke a street lamp on the corner of Fifth and Nun streets yesterday afternoon with a brick which he had thrown at another boy. The little fellow traveled for home when he heard the jingle of the glass.

The excursion down the river which was to have been given complimentary to the visiting Odd Fellows next week has been abandoned. The visitors will be taken to the Sound on Tuesday and regaled at Capt. Manning's.

The steamer Lisbon came in Thursday from Herringville, Sampson county, with 400 barrels naval stores, consigned to various parties, and left yesterday on the return trip. She reports good boating water for her capacity.

The frame of the Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville, has been erected and the carpenters are hard at work weatherboarding it. Every effort is being made to have the building ready for the reception of guests by the first of June.

The kitchen garden attached to the residence of Miss Jane Prew, on Fifth, between Walnut and Red Cross streets, was robbed on Thursday night of all the vegetables of an eatable size. The loss is a severe one to Miss Prew and we hope that the thief may be caught and punished.

The colored man who was supposed to be crazy and who was locked up in the station house on Thursday night, was sent out to the insane department of the County Poor House. If his statement is to be taken he is a man of family. He claims to have 1,000 children.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 6, 1882. NO. 111.

Exports Foreign.

Nor, barque Saga, Capt. Johnsen, cleared, yesterday for Riga, Russia, with 4,066 barrels rosin, valued at $10,248.52, shipped by Messrs E. G. Barker & Co.

To Remove.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Jas. A. Willard, who has for so many years been identified with the interests of our city, will remove hence. He goes to Baltimore where we understand he will engage in the fruit business, as an importer. He expects to remove with his family in July.

Original English Chatterbox.

We have received the January number of the Original English Chatterbox from the American publishers, Messrs. Estes & Lauriat, Boston, Mass. This is one of the best children's magazines in the world; containing 32 pages, and 16 full-page illustrations each month. It has a world-wide reputation, and more than a million children in England and America read its charming stories. Published at $1 a year, with a beautiful engraving to every new subscriber.

New Church at Farmer's.

A neat little Roman Catholic Church is to be erected at Farmer's Turnout, a small station on the line of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., in Columbus county, 14 miles west of the city. The new building, which is to be of wood, will be 25x50 feet, 14 feet clear in the interior and will seat about two hundred persons. The frame, which was made by Messrs. Colville & Co., of this city, was begun last Tuesday and was completed and put on the cars yesterday. It will be a plain building, as the congregation is small as yet, the principal ornament on the exterior being a cupola surmounted by a cross. Mr. C. D. Morrill, of this city, has the contract for erecting the building, work on which is to be begun at once. The building is to be dedicated on the first Sunday in June, just four weeks from next Sunday.

A Dangerous Neighbor.

Yesterday forenoon Mr. Dennis, who has charge of the Hilton bridge, crossed the Northeast river and went into the rice fields which adjoin the railroad, where he came very near being bitten by a rattlesnake. He was within a yard of the snake before it was discovered, and it may safely be presumed that it took but a moment to increase the distance by a hasty retreat. Securing a piece of fence rail he advanced and killed the snake, which had 13 rattles and a button, was 5 feet long and 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

A Magnifying Glass.

The Honorable Jesse Harper, of Illinois (by the way, is he an Honorable?), who spoke here to a very much mixed crowd on Tuesday night, was in Raleigh Wednesday, when he told a News and Observer reporter that he spoke in Wilmington to a crowd numbering at least 3,000. This is a —, well, a mistake, and that, too, by a very large majority. There were about 300 persons in attendance that night, and the addition of an ought to these figures is simply a magnification. The glass which Mr. H. last held to his lips here must have been of at least ten diameters!

Bread vs. Water.

We don't want to be understood from what we said yesterday in a little piece headed "Bread vs. Show," that we are in any manner opposed to the putting up of a fountain in the City Hall Park. On the contrary, we most heartily favor the proposition, and hope that it may be carried out; but at the same time we must urge upon the city authorities the fact that the miserable pittance of 10 cents per day, although a very small amount to men with large means at their command, is yet of great importance to individual members of the force. It is for the Democratic members of the Board of Aldermen to look at this thing through their own spectacles, and not through the glasses of others, especially if those others should happen to be of the opposition. This can be done without detriment to the prospects of the proposed fountain. The city of Wilmington owns but this one little lot of enclosed green-sward, and it should be ornamented. The cost would be very light, and the gain in attractiveness will be very great.

Small annoyances in life are vanishing through scientific discovery. In his Skin Cure, Dr. C. W. Benson of Baltimore, Md., has created a perfect remedy for tetter, eruptions and scurf on the face or scalp. Every person using it will have a clear countenance.

There will be a meeting of the members of the bar held in the Court House this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of completing the organization of the Bar Association of this city.

U. S. District Court.

The only case tried yesterday was that of the U. S. vs. Samuel Kornegay, indicted for violation of section 5,469, abstracting money from U. S. mail. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The Court having finished its labors it adjourned for the term.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

To Resume.

The repairs to the steamer Passport having been completed she will resume her regular trips on Monday. The handsome little craft looks as pretty as ever and Capt. Harper is stepping as high as a peacock or Roscoe Conkling. It is the opinion of some of his friends that he is in need of a mate but they are undecided whether it is a male or female mate he is going to take.

Sentenced to Albany.

Geo. W. Blaney, colored, who was convicted in the U. S. District Court on Thursday of robbing the mail, was yesterday sentenced to 2 years' imprisonment in the penitentiary at Albany, N. Y. It will be remembered that Blaney was employed as a porter in Col. Pope's office in this city about 12 months ago, and that he was caught in the act of embezzling money from the mail. Since his arrest he has been in the county jail in this city.

Deserving Articles are always Appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

What We are Told to Do.

A news reporter should be a man of immense size and of herculean power. He is expected to "pitch in" to everybody and everything, and if he does not he's "frightened," "owned by a ring," etc., etc. The first thing yesterday morning after we started down town a worthy citizen button-holed us, took us to the edge of the sidewalk and told us: "The newspapers should pitch in to these baby carriages. Suppose," said he, "one of them should be rolled on my favorite corn, what could I do?" "Holler," said we. "Ah, you are afraid to say anything about them," he said as he walked off. Yes, we are afraid to say anything agin baby carriages and their occupants. We own one ourselves, a carriage we mean; besides, we don't want to bring down the wrathful indignation of every mother in town on our innocent head, because a worthy citizen is afraid of having his pet corn hurt! We are frequently told that we ought to pitch into the city authorities, butchers, hucksters, railroads, steamboats, drays, turnpikes, and fire department. If we pitched into everything, we would soon be "pitched into the river!" and that would end our career. No, sir; we don't care to be made food of for little fishes.

Skinny Men.

"Wells Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1. Depot Jas. C. Munds.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

The June number abounds with brilliant and highly interesting contributions by the editor (Rev. Dr. Talmage) and other talented writers. The opening article, "Henry Wadsworth Longfellow," is by the editor, also an admirable article, "Brightening Prospects" and the "Home Pulpit" contains one of his characteristic sermons, "Shall we Know Each Other in Heaven?" "Milan and its Cathedral," "The Philosophy of Starving," by Dr. W. C. Gray; "The Pilgrimage of Gottlieb and Irrgeist," are among the prominent illustrated articles and deeply interesting. "The Regicides in America," by the Rev. J. V. Lewis, with its five illustrations, will not fail to attract great attention, as will likewise "Grub Street, London," by Frances Hays. The sketches, essays, etc., are by well-known authors; the serials "Weighed and Wanting" and "Margaret's Enemy" are continued, and the poems are numerous and of great merit—many of them are beautifully illustrated. Besides an abundant miscellany, there are the following interesting features: "The Collection Basket," "Information for the Curious," "Religious Facts and Fancies," etc., etc. A single copy costs 25 cents only, and the annual subscription is $3, postpaid. Address, FRANK LESLIE, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

The New Officers.

The impression made by His Honor Judge Seymour and the new District Attorney, Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson, during their first term of Court in this city, are very flattering. His Honor took a firm stand against professional jurors and has succeeded in breaking up the association of partisan jurors. Mr. Robinson handled his cases with much ability and despatched the business of the Court. Floral trophies were presented to His Honor and his able District Attorney as tokens of appreciation of their uniform courtesies to those attendant upon Court.

Young Men's Christian Association.

A number of prominent business gentlemen met by invitation of Mr. Geo. Chadbourn, at his residence, last evening, to meet Mr. T. K. Cree, and Mr. L. D. Wishard, of New York, Secretaries of the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Association.

Mr. Jas. Farie, Jr., of this city, was first introduced by Mr. Chadbourn, and briefly explained the purpose of the meeting, viz.: To confer in regard to the advisability of organizing an Association in this city. He heartily testified to the value the Association had been to humanity—both in this country and England, and then introduced Mr. Wishard, the College Secretary of the International Committee, who said:

It was my privilege last July, while in London, where I went to attend the World's Conference of Associations, to meet and converse with the founder of this movement. I went one day to a large business house opposite St. Paul's, and, ascending to the third story, sat down to dinner with Mr. George Williams. In the midst of our conversation, he remarked: "Mr. Wishard, this room is very dear to me because of some early associations. Thirty seven years ago I was a clerk in this business house. This was my bedroom. One evening in June, 1844, some of us young men assembled here to discuss what could be done to lead our fellow-clerks to Christ. In order that our work might be done systematically we organized a society, and called it the Young Men's Christian Association. That was the beginning of this work."

There are now not less than 2,500 throughout the world—1,300 in the old world, 1,200 in America. The last World's Conference was presided over by such men as the Earl of Shaftesbury and Samuel Morley and the Earl of Aberdeen and Sir John Kennaway, who left their seats in Parliament during one of the most exciting discussions which has agitated that body for years, viz: the consideration of the Land Bill because of their deep desire to participate in the discussions of this important assembly of young men. One of the most enjoyable seasons of the Conference consisted in a reception given the delegates by the Lord Mayor of London, who when greeting them, stated that in all the periods of his Mayorship he had never welcomed to the Mansion House so important a body as that which represented the young men of the world.

One of the most interesting and important branches of the work in this country is the college work. College associations began to be organized twenty-four years ago in the University of Virginia and Michigan. One specially followed in the University of North Carolina. Through the earnest efforts of the late General Lee, during his Presidency in Washington College now Washington Lee University, a vigorous association was organized in that institution, which was followed by their formation in other institutions until there are now associations in nearly fifty colleges of the South. The object of a college association is to do in a systematic manner the Christian work of the college.

These 166 college associations, contain a membership of 8,000 students. During the past five years over 3,500 students have professed faith in Christ as a result mainly of the work of these associations. North Carolina is prominent in this college work, there being six College Associations in this State. This College Young Men's Christian Association movement has been endorsed and materially aided by such men as Dr. Carlisle, of South Carolina, Dr. Curry, late of Richmond College, Bishop McTear and Dr. Somers, of Nashville, Dr. John A. Broadus and the late Stuart Robinson, of Louisville, Ky., also by ex-President Hopkins, of William's College, Presidents Porter, of Yale, McCosh, of Princeton, Porter, of Union, and Anderson, of Rochester Union and many prominent ministers and professors in Theological Seminaries.

The development of the work of the association in the United States and Canada is entrusted to an International Committee, the headquarters of which is New York. The Committee is composed of such gentlemen as Hon. Cephus Brainerd, Chairman, a well known lawyer, Cornelius Vanderbilt, of the New York Central & Hudson River R. R., Morris A. Jessup, a prominent banker, R. R. McBarney, who has for many years been identified with the work, and Wm. E. Dodge, Jr., a leading merchant. In addition to these about sixteen other gentlemen, representing all parts of the country, are connected with the committee. Among these are Col. Munford, of Richmond, Mr. Smyth, of Charleston and Mr. Hardie, of New Orleans. The committee has organized work among railroad men, German speaking young men, college students, commercial travellers and have secretaries who devote all their time to these classes.

There are now over 1,000 Associations with a membership of 100,000. They own 60 buildings, valued at $3,000,000, and employ 25 secretaries who give their entire time to the work. As to the need for a local association Mr. Cree said there are many stranger young men in your city who need the assistance such an organization would give. There are very many young men outside of the church whom the association would try to reach, and with a free reading room and library, open to all the young men of the city, with an active religious work for young men and moral and social work, much good could be done. A work for boys is part of what an association could do. This would provide employment and recommend boarding houses for young men. That the previous associations failed is but the history of every association in a city that tried to carry on a Young Men's Christian Association work without an efficient secretary, trained to the work. They are proving a success in Richmond, Petersburg, Charleston, Atlanta and the other leading cities of the South.
