THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1882. NO. 117.

PLEASE NOTICE
 We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but
 The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
 Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
 B. H. J. ABRENS—Ice.
 MUNDY BROS.—Soda water.
 S. JEWETT—Think of this.
 J. W. HARTLEY—Dramatic readings.
 HEINSBERGER—Parson's business laws.

No City Court yesterday.
 Nothing doing in magisterial circles yesterday.
 Are we to have any yacht racing this summer?
 The truck gardens hereabouts look "as pretty as a pink".
 Good reports of the fruit crop continue to come in.
 Capt. Bishce will leave for his new boat on Monday evening.
 Most of the visiting Odd Fellows left for their homes yesterday.
 The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 40 bales.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.
 Our quondam fellow citizens Captain J. W. Hinson and Maj. J. H. Hill, were in the city yesterday.
 Cotton sold here to-day on a basis of 12 cents per pound for middling, the highest point attained this season.

A true assistant to nature in restoring the system to perfect health, thus enabling it to resist disease, is Brown's Iron Bitters.
 The weather permitting the Passport will make a trip to the blackfish grounds on Thursday next.
 Brig Cora Green, Philbrook, hence, for Mayaguez, was spoken May 3d in lat. 30, long. 75.
 Freshwater Perch, Trout and Blackfish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S. †
 Thirteen carloads of vegetables and strawberries passed here yesterday going North.

Fanny Gore was "run in" by the police last night for trying to curse an officer off his beat.
 Capt. C. B. Denson left here yesterday afternoon on his return to Pittsboro. Mrs. Denson is still in the city.
 Ger. barque Enigkeit, Schmidt, hence, arrived at London May 10th, with loss of sails, bulwarks and deck load.

The new wharf in front of the Custom House has been completed and that at the foot of Chestnut street is under way.
 The River and Harbor bill, as it will be reported to the House, contains an item of $140,000 for the Cape Fear river from the ocean to Wilmington.

For aged men, women, weak and sickly children, without a rival. Will not cause headache. Brown's Iron Bitters.
 We understand that the authorities of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., will at an early day establish a telegraph office at Warsaw and will erect a handsome brick warehouse at that place.

Quite a large number of our friends from Smithville were in the city yesterday on an excursion which was given for the benefit of the Smithville Library Association.
 A colored boy stole some money from a till in a butcher's shop on Second street yesterday and succeeded in getting off with his booty, notwithstanding the fact that hot pursuit was given him.

We are sorry to hear of the extreme illness of Gen. Basil C. Manly, of Raleigh. A dispatch received here yesterday by Gen. Taylor stated that he could not live throughout the day.
 Yesterday afternoon during the exhibition in the river, two men plunged in the "turbid waters of the raging Cape Fear" and swam with the tide for two or three blocks. One of them came near losing his life.
 The steamer Elizabeth is still at Smithville. She has been waiting for the sea to go down. We understand that it has, for the past two or three days, been blowing fresh from the Southwest and that the seas have been running high.

We see by the New York Herald that a syndicate composed of Scotch firms has been formed to buy out the business of A. T. Stewart & Co., now run by Judge Hilton. Messrs. Brown & Koddick, of this city, are mentioned as a part of the syndicate.

A New Establishment.

We drifted yesterday into the new saddlery and harness house of Messrs. H. M. Bowden & Co., on Market street, and found there a complete stock of everything in their line. Mr. B. J. Jacobs presides and cheerfully showed us the novelties in their business. The stock in all of the departments of the establishment is full and complete and seems to have been selected especially to please the eye and tickle the purse. We wish the gentlemen every success in their enterprise.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Lost His Money.

A verdant sabbie youth from up the river, arrived in the city on Thursday night on a river steamer, and soon fell in with the "Doves" from the Whitefield and the Long House, who went through him with neatness and dispatch. He lost what money he had, but perhaps it taught him a lesson which he will not soon forget.

Prize Numbers.

For the benefit of the many anxious seekers in this city, we publish the numbers of the tickets which drew the big prizes in the last drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Co: No. 19,102, $30,000; 94,638, $10,000; 47,969, $5,000; 10,822, $2,500; 84,726, $2,500. The following numbers drew $1,000 each: 21,627, 22,605, 52,048, 59,300, 92,874.

The Last Opportunity.

The whale will be on exhibition to-day until 12 o'clock. Capt. Boyton assures us that he will be personally in attendance in the whale pavilion, and will, for the first time in this city, have his cases of medals and jewels, guns and other implements of warfare on exhibition in the tent, and will be pleased to show them, and give their history, etc. We were shown the medals and a silver wreath last night, and unhesitatingly say that they alone are well worth seeing. Ladies and children will be given the preference of position on the platform. Mr. Jones, the lecturer, will be pleased to tell the little ones all he knows of whales, and particularly the one on exhibition, which is claimed to be the greatest natural curiosity in the country. Capt. Boyton and his party will take up their "line of march" at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and will go to "Richmond on the James."

The Carolina Central Suit.

The case of Mrs. Virginia B. Matthews, of New York, vs. D. R. Murchison, of the Carolina Central R. R., et al., was carried before Judge Gilmore, in Chambers at Goldsboro, yesterday, but the hearing was continued, for the want of time, until Tuesday, July 11th, before Judge McKoy, in Chambers, at Clinton or such other place as he may select. The papers are said to be very voluminous. Messrs. McRae & Strange and Russell & Ricard are for the plaintiffs, and Hon. Geo. Davis, Maj. D. J. Devane and Messrs. Stedman & Latimer for the defendants.

Dramatic Readings.

As our readers will notice in our advertising columns, Mr. J. W. Hartley is again engaged by the Library Association. This is the seventh time he has appeared in this city, and the pleasure of his entertainments is well remembered. This is Mr. Hartley's last visit here, at least for a long time, as he is about starting on a very extended tour abroad, and we hope he may have as large an audience as on previous occasions.

Transit of Venus.

Venus is now receiving a good deal of attention from Jupiter, so they say, and they have an appointment to meet some time this month. Venus will be, in the summer, a beautiful telescopic object, exhibiting the phase of a crescent moon and shining with extraordinary splendor. She is now swinging around on this side of the sun, preparatory to her transit across his disc in December, which is one of the most important of all astronomical events, and for the observation of which various governments have already begun to prepare expeditions. The astronomers here have been preparing for it for twenty years, as it will be the last transit of Venus before the year 2004.

Kidney Disease.

Pain, Irritation, Retention, Incontinence, Deposits, Gravel, &c., cured by "Buchupabia". $1. Depot James C. Mundy.

Yesterday's Aquatic Sports.

By far the largest crowd ever assembled upon any occasion in this city lined the wharves, house tops and office balconies on Water, between Dock and Chesnut streets, yesterday, to witness the aquatic exhibition of Capt. Paul Boyton. Every available space was occupied, and the river was covered with boats of all descriptions, loaded with human freight. Several large flats were taken out and anchored in the stream, on which were men, women and children of all ages, sizes and conditions. The programme given by Capt. Boyton was the same as that of Thursday afternoon, a full account of which appeared in the REVIEW of yesterday. To say that the large multitude of witnesses were pleased would be but a mild form of expressing their sentiments. They were delighted, and, at times, stood dumb with amazement.

The exhibition of yesterday proved conclusively that Capt. Boyton's suit is all that is claimed for it, and will no doubt be extensively used at life saving stations. We look upon it as one of the greatest inventions of the age. Its simplicity and easy adjustment is bound to make it popular with life-saving stations and masters of vessels.

A Card of Thanks.

PHILADELPHIA, November 5, 1880.
 For the benefit of others who may suffer as I have, I write to say that on Thursday, October 21st, I was attacked with the most severe and excruciating pains (apparently rheumatic or neuralgic) on the left side of my neck and head, accompanied with stiffness of the muscles. The paroxysms of pain would come at intervals of two or three hours day and night, from which I lost sleep and suffered intensely. After trying various remedies, meal and hops, belladonna plasters, crude petroleum and turpentine, chloroform liniment, etc., without experiencing any apparent relief, having seen your advertisement in one of our daily papers, I concluded on Sunday to try St. Jacobs Oil, though not having much faith in so-called patent medicines. I was presented with a bottle by a friend, to whom I had stated my intentions, and to say that its action was "magical" does not, to me, convey what I would express. It was simply wonderful. Applied and thoroughly rubbed in—in five minutes the paroxysms would stop, so to express it, like a flash, and by constant application, the last of which was Tuesday, 4 a. m., the pains were entirely subdued, and I have not had a return of them. To say I am thankful and feel the greatest gratitude to God, and through Him to man, for the means of obtaining such relief, is but feebly expressive of my feelings, and I deem it my duty to let others know of and obtain relief from the same source.
 FRED W. WARD, 2004 Titan Street.

Thanks to Our Brethren.

We have not yet thanked our brethren of the press for the many very kind and very flattering notices of our new venture we have received during the past two weeks. We would be glad to thank them in person, one and all, for the pleasant things they have had to say of us, and the pleasant manner in which they have said them. We will not be able to reproduce in our columns the flattering notices we have received, but our kind brethren of the press will know that we appreciate their notices just as highly as if we published a new notice every day.

Petition to Congress.

A petition is in circulation to-day and being very extensively signed, addressed to the House of Representatives of the Federal Congress, representing the very inadequate accommodations offered by the present Custom House and Postoffice buildings, for the transaction of the public business, setting forth the claims of Wilmington for larger and more imposing structures and praying for an appropriation of $100,000 for the purpose of erecting new buildings here. The petition is being circulated under a resolution adopted by the Produce Exchange at their recent annual meeting.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Bugle: W. L. Kirkman of Morehead township, sheared a two-year old sheep yesterday and secured 114 pounds of wool. This sheep is half Southdown. Last year the same sheep yielded 8 pounds.

Henderson Gold Leaf: Henderson is centrally located in the heart of the great Golden Tobacco belt, of which it is the principal market. This is a big industry—millions of pounds being sold here every year—and one that is destined to grow to still greater.

Chatham Argus: The family of our former townsmen, Hon. John Manning, moved to Chapel Hill, a few days ago. Mr. W. J. Hackney, of this county, informs us that within four days he has hived three different swarms of bees from the same stand, and they are all doing well.

Asheville Citizen: Mr. Geo. Gehagan informs us there is living on Laurel, Madison county, a Mr. Solomon Staunton, who cast his first vote for President of the United States before the war of 1812, and was a soldier in that war, and now draws a pension for that service.

Raleigh Visitor: The revival at Person street church is growing in interest. There were fourteen penitents at the altar Thursday night. The hosts of friends of Maj. B. C. Manly, in this city and throughout the State, will be pained to hear that his condition is extremely critical.

Fayetteville Examiner: Messrs. Rowland & Spohn are manufacturing spokes and shuttles at their wood works three miles north of Fayetteville. They use steam power and obtain their material from the country around. Captain Benjamin Robinson, formerly of this place, is now city editor of the Advance Gazette, a large neatly printed and well edited semi-weekly paper, published at Pensacola, Florida.

Statesville American: A correspondent from Jefferson, Ashe county, says: A fatal accident occurred on Old Field Creek, 30th April. Mr. Troy Phipps accidentally shot himself with a rifle. He had taken the gun out of the house, thinking it not loaded, put his foot on the hammer, pushing it back, and then placed his mouth to the muzzle to blow in, when his foot slipped off, and being loaded the ball entered his mouth passing out back of the head, killing him instantly.

Goldsboro Messenger: The Board of Education of our sister county, Greene, has voted $1000 to the Wayne county Normal school, to be held in Goldsboro, commencing Tuesday, June 13th, and to continue several weeks. An old colored woman is now living on the lands of Mrs. Mary Smith, in Bentonsville township, Johnston county, named Hagar Williams, over 100 years old. She says she carried water and meals to the soldiers during the revolutionary war, and was then a small child.

Newbern Journal: Mr. Howland, of Beaufort, brought up to the Memorial Services the old battle flag of the 48th N. C. Troops. It is all tattered and torn by minnie balls and it bears the name of many hard fought battles, Sharpshurg, Fredericksburg, Frazier's Farm, Harper's Ferry and Bristol Station are to be seen there, but none of those of the campaign of 1864—the hardest during the war—were to be seen. During that campaign Cooke's Brigade, to which the 48th belonged, never yielded an inch of ground while in a contest with the enemy, but always drove the enemy or held their own.

News and Observer: The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church have undertaken to build a parsonage. Treasurer Worth yesterday received a telegram from High Point, announcing that his large saw mill near Ashboro, Randolph county, was completely destroyed by fire at 11 o'clock Tuesday night. Dr. Worth says his loss is not less than $4,000, and that there was no insurance on the property. While several little boys were playing in the streets of Graham yesterday, a young man rode a horse at a rapid rate into their midst. The horse knocked down a little son of Mr. James Holt (a brother of Col. T. M. Holt), about eight years of age. The child's leg was broken, and the flesh was lacerated in a terrible manner. Amputation was rendered necessary.
