ninth anniversary.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 230 bales.

Some very fine strawberries were selling to-day at 15 cents per quart.

A colored camp-meeting began to-day at Piney Point, a few miles from the city.

There is good boating water yet in the river, but it is reported as falling off now.

It is a fact that N. C. hams sell here now for 18 cents a pound. Poor men stand under.

There will be a game of base ball at the Athletic Grounds this evening. The game begins at 4 o'clock, sharp.

A thing in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO-BI'S.

The steamer John Dawson left here to-day at 11 o'clock, with those who desired to visit the school entertainment at Point Caswell.

To Builders and others—Go to JACO-BI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Dutch brig Jautic, Capt. Lever, cleared for Stettin, Germany, with 1,400 barrels of iron, valued at $2,950, shipped by Messrs. E. Peschau & Westermann.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black-fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

To-morrow will be generally observed here as the anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration. The banks and the produce exchange, and, we suppose, the public offices also, will be closed.

An enricher of the blood and purifier of the system; cures lassitude and lack of energy; such is Brown's Iron Bitters.

Our thanks are due the Marshals for an invitation to be present at the annual concert to be delivered before the Literary Societies of Davidson College, which is to take place at 11 o'clock, a. m., on the 14th of June next.

Quite a number of those who were hungry for a pull at the blackfish went down on the excursion on the Passport yesterday. The easterly winds were against them, however, and only about 900 fish were caught, but nevertheless everybody had a good time.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. W. H. Rothschild & Co., as it appears in this issue. Those in want of anything in their line are advised to send for their new spring circular, which contains directions for self-measurement. It is also well to bear in mind that these goods are delivered free everywhere. d&wt.

The strawberry festival give at the Rankin Hall last night by the Ladies of Front Street M. E. Church, was a very happy success. The attendance was large and enjoyment of those who were present was proportionate. We thank Capt. Parker for his kindly remembrance of us.

Magistrate's Court.
Mary Jones, colored, was arraigned before a Magistrate on the charge of assault and battery on the person of Mary Lewis. Defendant found guilty, and ordered to pay the costs.

Mary Lewis, for an assault on Mary Jones, was adjudged guilty, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Escaped from Jail.
On last Tuesday night Tom Metomp, a colored prisoner confined in jail at Smithville, escaped and is now at large.
He was confined on the charge of lar-cey, a true bill having been found at the last term of Brunswick Superior Court, and the case continued to the next term. The charge was being implicated in the larceny of which Jeffrey Robinson was convicted at the last term of Brunswick Superior Court and for which he was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.

The Fire Alarm.

What is said to have been a full and fair test of the new fire alarm was made this afternoon in the presence of Capt.
F. G. Robinson, Chief of the Fire Department, and a number of the members of the department. It is declared to be a very satisfactory test. It is an electric alarm, and is worked at the City Hall, the alarm being sounded by a bell at the Howard Engine yard, on Fourth street. In case of a fire the alarm is communicated by telephone or otherwise to the City Hall, and the alarm is sounded from that point.

"The Best in the World."
ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 8, 1881.

DR. H. H. WARNER & CO.: SIRS.— I consider your Safe, Kidney and Liver Cure the best medicine in the world for kidney and liver diseases.

An Immense Corporation.

We have received the report of Hon.
Chas. G. Fairman, Insurance Commissioner of New York, on the examination of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. This corporation is by far the largest moneyed institution in the world, possessing for the security of its policyholders over ninety-five million dollars in securely invested assets, and a surplus over all liabilities of over twelve million dollars. Mr. Fairman in his report says:

"The Superintendent feels no hesitation in saying, on the basis of the reports made by more than fifty department appraisers, acting independently of each other, in widely different parts of five different States, that the mortgage securities now held by the Company, amounting to more than fifty million of dollars, if subjected to foreclosure in the aggregate, would produce, even on forced sale, at least double the amount loaned. It would be quite superfluous to comment on the security of investments of which such statements can be true.

"The balance of the assets is invested mainly in United States bonds and other unquestioned securities of similar character. The Superintendent certifies that, upon examination, all these Securities are duly held and owned by the Company, and that, as a basis of ability to respond when called upon to meet any accrued or accruing liability, they may be depended upon with absolute confidence by all policy-holders of the Company.

"In other words, the Company is solvent, safe, and sound as any human institution well can be. Long continued years of wise and honest management by able officers have produced these results."

The Mutual Life is represented in this city by Mr. M. L. Willard.

Death of Captain Ward.

Capt. W. P. Ward, a prominent citizen of Onslow county, died at his residence in Swansboro, on the 13th inst., last Saturday, of pleuro-pneumonia.
Capt. Ward represented the district composed of Jones and Carteret counties for two years in the State Senate, prior to 1860, and in 1880 was sent to the House of Representatives from Onslow. He leaves a widow, three sons and one daughter to mourn his departure. A good man has gone.

Took French Leave.

Charles Reed, colored, escaped last night from the City Hospital, to which place he had been recently removed from the county jail, where he was confined under the charge of larceny of wood in Brunswick county, and selling the same in this market. It will be remembered that at the time of Reed's arrest, as reported by us, he attempted to escape, and was shot by the officer in charge, the ball penetrating his leg, making a flesh wound. The case was to have been examined on the 15th inst., but the janitor reporting Reed too lame to appear, it was continued, and on the recommendation of the City Physician, Reed was remanded to the City Hospital, from which place he has just made his escape. The officers of the law are now on the lookout for him.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin of Somerville Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and I was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar.
At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the lungs. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

"I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take William Hall's Balsam, and be convinced that Consumption can be cured. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness."

After Many Years.

Capt. Jas. I. Metts, of this city, formerly of Company, G., 3rd N. C. Infantry, who was wounded very severely in the Second Day's fight at Gettysburg, having been shot through the lung, received to-day by express the sword which he gave on that day in charge of some one unknown to him at that time. This proved to be a Marylander by the name of Reeves, a physician, who had hastened to the succor of the wounded, in the rear of the Federal lines whither Capt. Metts was carried after his wound and capture. There was no expectation of Captain Metts' recovery at the time, and in surrendering his sword he only knew that he was giving it into kind and sympathizing hands. We have heard a member of the Third N.
C., now, alas! among the departed, who saw Captain Metts when he was struck, say that he (Capt. Metts) was gallantly cheering his men, his hat in one hand and his sword in the other, both aloft, at the moment he was shot.

Recently a notice was published in the News and Observer calling for the owner of the sword, if alive, as the party holding it was desirous that it should be restored. We published the card in the REVIEW, at the time, and Capt. Metts wrote to the direction indicated, and to-day this precious memento of many a hard fought field is in its rightful owner's possession. It is a war-worn blade and scabbard, and a spot of blood on the hilt of the sword, which has remained there for nearly nineteen years, tells its own tale of those terrible days. Accompanying the sword, Capt. Metts received the following letters, which, at our request, he has kindly permitted us to publish:

CHAPTICO, Md., May 11th, 1882.

Dear Sir:—Yours of recent date came duly to hand and I avail myself of earliest leisure to acknowledge its receipt and note contents.

I have little, if any doubt, that you are the owner of the sword which I brought with me from Gettysburg in July, 1863, and it is a source of peculiar and especial pleasure to me, that I shall be able, after a lapse of very nearly nineteen years, to restore it to its rightful owner, in the same condition in which I received it from the wounded Lieutenant (shot through the lungs) from North Carolina, who, believing he was going to die and not wishing his "trusty blade" to fall into the hands of the Yankees, begged me to take it with me and keep them from getting it.

It would be very interesting to you, I am sure, to hear how I had to contrive to conceal it until I left Gettysburg, and the narrow escape I made in passing the guard with it to get on the cars for Baltimore; but the story is too long for my present sheet, and I must content myself with stating that I have no desire to retain the sword, and if when you receive it, you should find it to be not yours, you will be more likely to find an owner for it than I will, as it certainly belonged to somebody who hailed from North Carolina in '63.

I have delivered it to Mr. Glenn, of the S. M. R. R., with the request that he forward it to you as speedily as possible; and I would be glad to hear from you on its arrival.

Very truly yours,
F. R. T. REEVES.

CHARLOTTE HALL, MD., }
May 11th, 1882. }

Capt. Jas. I. Metts, Wilmington, N. C.:

MY DEAR SIR—It is with the greatest of pleasure that I forward, per express, your sword, which has been in the hands of a stranger for 20 long years.
I know that it will be received by you and yours with the greatest joy, for I know how my family love and revere the scabbardless blade of my poor father, who was killed at Boonsboro.

When Dr. Reeves first informed me that he had the sword of a North Carolinian, who, even when he thought he was dying, was so careful of his own, and his State's honor, as not to wish that the sword of one of her sons should fall into the hands of the enemy, I resolved, at once, that, if possible, I would find the owner and return it to him, and should he be dead, which I thought, from Dr. Reeves' account, more than probable, I would restore it to his family.

I am a "Tar Heel" myself, and were you in my place, you would be gratified, as I am, to hear, daily, the praise bestowed, by both friends and foes, upon the bravery and endurance of the gallant sons of North Carolina in our unfortunate civil war.

In conclusion, I will state that Dr.
Reeves has shown a most praiseworthy desire, all through, to restore the sword to its rightful owner. Hoping you will receive it in good order, and that you will let me know, at once, of its arrival, I remain, yours,
Very respectfully,
E. T. B. GLENN.

Mr. F. Wilke, Lafayette, Ind., reports a case where a man suffered so badly with Rheumatism that he could not move. He had most terrible pains.
Twelve hours after the first application of the St. Jacobs Oil the pains were gone, and the swelling had disappeared.

The Texas Greenback State Convention is called to meet at Galveston on the 29th of June.

The Light Infantry Anniver- sary.

The anniversary of the Wilmington Light Infantry will be celebrated tomorrow. There will be a parade and target practice in the day and a competitive drill in the manual of arms at night. The Company will parade for roll call, at 7 a. m., and will proceed to Hilton, where there will be target practice for the regular prize, the gold medal, which is annually awarded for the best shot. They will then return to the city, and at 8 p. m. will form at the Armory and march to the Opera House, the use of which has been kindly donated by Capt. Pennypacker for the occasion, where the drill in the manual will take place, the prize for this being a beautiful silver cake basket, at the conclusion of which they will return to the Armory where they will find some "fixings" prepared for them and for the members of the Veteran Corps and the Honorary members. Messrs. Jno. C.
James, H. C. McQueen and F. A. Lord are the judges for the drill. There will be no charge for admission to the Opera House and the ladies are especially invited.

The Lutheran Church.

Rev. F. W. Conrad, editor of the Lutheran Observer, of Philadelphia, is to arrive to-night, in this city. He will be the guest of Mr. H. B. Eilers, and Rev. Dr. L. A. Bickle, of Mount Pleasant, this State, comes to Wilmington tomorrow morning and will be the guest of H. Volders, Esq.

These distinguished divines come to our city to take part in the special services to be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church next Sunday, at the installation of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau as pastor of that Church. The services will be held as follows: Sunday morning preaching by Dr. Conrad, of Philadelphia; Sunday School at 3 p. m., with addresses by Rev. Messrs. Bickle and Conrad; night services at 8 p. m., act of installation, the charge to the people to be delivered by Dr. Conrad and the charge to the Pastor by Rev. Dr. Bickle.

On Monday night a missionary meeting will be held, in which the above-named gentlemen will speak on the foreign and domestic mission work of the Lutheran Church.

EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:

Dear Sir:—In consideration of the very few legal holidays we have, it seems to me that our business men might well afford to observe them more closely than they do now. This could be accomplished by preconcerted action in such a way as would not prove detrimental to any one, and would afford their employees an opportunity to devote an entire day to much needed recreation and not a very small part of one, as has been the way in the past.

Requesting the insertion of this communication, with such well-timed remarks as you may deem advisable to make, all of which is respectfully dedicated to the Produce Exchange and Board of Trade and Banks,

I am, in behalf of the interested,
ONE OF THEM.

We insert the above with great pleasure. Great Britain has three holidays to our one, and if we would but follow her example, we doubt not it would be better for both employer and employee.
The confined and sedentary life of many of our clerks and bookkeepers is injurious to health, which might be remedied by more frequent opportunities for recreation in the open air.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Patriot: The work of enlarging and improving the Methodist church will begin soon. The building fund, amounting to $3,000, lacks only $300 of being made up.

Newbern Journal: Messrs. Watson & Daniels shipped a fine lot of mackerel by the New Bern yesterday, among which was a giant fish, about four feet in length, the first of the kind ever seen in the market by this firm.

Greensboro Bugle: Mr. James J.
Ogilvie, of Staunton, Va., has just returned from Dr. Beal's buildings known as the machine shops, near Glascock's foundry, for the purpose of establishing a fruit drying establishment on an extensive scale.

Laurinburg Enterprise: The citizens of the Spring Hill neighborhood in this county were painfully thrilled on Friday morning last by the announcement that Mr. Jno. Johnson, an aged and highly esteemed citizen of the community, had suddenly died. —Mr. John Leach, who was stricken with paralysis about two years ago, and from the effects of which he never recovered, died at his home near Red Banks, Robeson county, last Tuesday, 9th inst., at the advanced age of sixty-odd years.

Charlotte Observer: The many friends of Mr. John W. Miller, one of the prominent cotton buyers of the city, will hear with regret that he has decided to leave Charlotte next season. He is going to Norfolk. —The Observer yesterday received a letter from Governor Vance, in which, after speaking of some private matters, he says: "We leave here on next Thursday night at 11.40 o'clock, with Bayard, Butler and Hampton, Ransom, Armfield, Cox, Dowd, Scales, Evins, and others are coming."

Goldsboro Messenger: Our merchants complain that business is exceedingly dull.

Mr. J. F. Southerland lost fully $2,000 during the winter by horses dying from "pink eye." —The name of the postoffice at Warrensville, Sampson county, N. C., has been changed to read "Boxkings." —The Democratic party of Johnston county will assemble in convention at the court house, in Smithfield, on Saturday, June 10th.

—Mr. John D. Grimsley, former clerk of Greene county Superior Court, had the misfortune on Tuesday to have his hand badly crushed in his brick machine, necessitating its amputation.
—Snow fell on Monday in portions of Johnston county. The ground at Mill Creek Church, in the Bentonsville section, was covered with snow. We hear of hail in other neighborhoods.
The Democrats of Carteret county held a meeting last week and recommended Hon. C. C. Clark for Congressman at Large, Hon. A. A. McKoy for Judge Third Judicial District, and Capt. Swift Galloway for Solicitor. —We learn from Mr. H. McLean, superintendent of the Midland Road construction, that he contemplates having the rail put down to Smithfield by the 1st of June.
We learn also that the work of putting down new rail was begun on the Atlantic Road near New Bern yesterday.
