New York.

A riving in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

Hon. A. M. Waddell will deliver an address before the Collegiate Institute at Kingston on the 24th of June.

There are 7 barques, 7 brigs and 14 schooners in port here to-day, and there are 7 barques and 6 brigs bound for this port from foreign ports.

The repairs to the wharf at the foot of Chestnut street have been completed, and it is now as strong and substantial as ever.

Silk worms, which are now much talked about, feed readily on the leaves of the Osage orange. This is a point to be noted.

lates (a colored association) will pay out next Monday night a benefit of $1,000 to the family of a deceased member.

We saw some garden peaches yesterday taken from a tree in this city, that were as large as walnuts. Vegetables hereabouts are developing rapidly, notwithstanding the cool weather.

Gen. M. P. Taylor and Capt. W. A.
Cumming, of the Second Brigade, N. C.
S. T., left here last evening for Charlotte, and will most likely take a part in the parade there to-morrow.

A little child was found wandering about the streets yesterday. Officer Allen took the little fellow in charge, and soon found its father, who was on the hunt for it.

To Promote a Vigorous Growth of the hair, use Parker's Hair Balsam. It restores the youthful color to gray hair, removes dandruff and cures itching of the scalp.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, of the Veteran Corps of the Wilmington Light Infantry, will deliver the prizes to the best shot and the best drilled man in the manual at the Opera House this evening.

Reports from all sections confirm the rumors of heavy frosts. In some sections replanting is necessary. The fruit crop, it is said, is too far advanced to be seriously damaged by the cold snap.

Mr. J. W. Hartley will give dramatic readings at the rooms of the Library Association, on Monday night. He is a fine reader and deserves a good audience on this, his last appearance in this city.

Best ever made, Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar coated; no griping; only 15 cents a box, of Druggists or by mail. Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York.

Would it not be a good idea now, since the fire alarm bell has been made stationary, to do away with the ringing of the breakfast, turnout and dinner bells? The ringing of the bell is a useless habit and so far as we can see benefits no one.

A large number of excursionists are expected in this city on Friday next from points along the line of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad. Special cars will be attached to the train, so we are informed, for the use of whites who are expected to participate in the excursion.

In the future the fire alarm bell will only strike the fire districts. The alarm can be distinguished from the "turnout and close up bell" by a cessation of the taps when the district has been struck.
The "jingle bell" will in the future be omitted.

Back Again.

Mary Moore is evidently well pleased with the fare and accommodations of the hotel de ville. The police "ran her n" a few days ago. She served a term in the city prison, and was released on Thursday morning. Mary breathed the unconfined air of this salubrious climate for six short hours, when she commenced to pine for her quarters in the station house. She kicked up a row Thursday night, and was again "run in." His Honor said yesterday morning, five days. The Janitor will moor Mary Moore out of the door. Exit.

At Point Caswell.

Quite a large crowd assembled in the town hall at Point Caswell, on Thursday night, to witness the closing exercises of the school of Miss Sallie Burgwyn. The entertainment consisted of recitations, charades and tableaux. The school children did remarkably well, and we are sorry we have not their names before us to particularize. If it were in our power to be ubiquitous we would speed on to Point Caswell and get the name of each little one who took part and give him or her the public praise they so justly deserved. Between the tableaux Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hawes gave some delightful instrumental music, and Mrs. John R. Paddison sang several sweet little ballads, much to the edification and enjoyment of the delighted audience.

Our young friend Vollers was placed in a very trying position and he bore his part well. He "stood the fire" as though he was an old hand at the bellows, but we felt so sorry for him, ahem! that we started out of pure disinterested motives to take his place. If he ever gets in a scrape like that again, we want him to call on us to relieve him. At the close of the entertainment the ladies of the village spread tables laden with delicacies fit for the gods. The prices were reasonable, the eatables unsurpassed and the ladies never looked lovelier in their lives. To say that the affair was a complete social success, is hardly saying enough, and we are delighted to know that the most sanguine financial expectations of the projectors were more than realized.

"The Best in the World."

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 8, 1881.
Dr. H. H. WARNER & Co.: Sirs.— I consider your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure the best medicine in the world for kidney and liver diseases.
COL. R. C. O'BRYON.

Black River.

We notice in the Produce Exchange a petition which was left there to be forwarded to Gen. Ransom, praying the Congress for an appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 to clear out Black River, from Point Caswell to Lisbon. The paper has been very generously signed by residents along the line of the river, and is accompanied by a letter from Capt. S. W. Skinner to Senator Ransom, setting forth the need of the appropriation and the great danger, as it is now, to navigation above Point Caswell. We happen to know something of the condition of this river, having been over it many times in former years, and we are only surprised that an application for relief has not been made long ago. There are places there, between Point Caswell and Beatty's Bridge, where the water runs like a mill race, while the channel is exceedingly tortuous and the bed of the river is covered here and there with sunken logs, which render navigation at times exceedingly perilous. We think that the appropriation asked for is sufficient to open up the river to such an extent that the Dawson can run to Beatty's Bridge, and the Lisbon to Herringsville at all seasons of the year. We trust that the appropriation may be secured, if not from this Congress then from the next, and that a resolution which we understand that Hon. Joo. W. Shackelford has introduced for the survey of the river may go through at once.

The River and Harbor Bill.

We thank Senator Ransom for a copy of the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill, as reported to the House by the Committee on Commerce, where it was twice read and recommitted and ordered printed. We copy from it the following relative to points in North Carolina for which appropriations have been reported:

Improving Dan River, Virginia and North Carolina; continuing improvement, seven thousand five hundred dollars.

Improving North Landing River, Virginia and North Carolina; continuing improvement, eight thousand dollars.

Improving Cape Fear River from the ocean to Wilmington, North Carolina; continuing improvement, one hundred and forty thousand dollars.

Improving Contentnea Creek, North Carolina; continuing improvement, five thousand dollars.

Improving Currituck Sound and North River Bar, North Carolina; continuing improvement, including Coanjok Bay, twenty thousand dollars.

Improving French Broad River, North Carolina; continuing improvement, five thousand dollars.

Improving Lillington River, North Carolina; continuing improvement, three thousand dollars.

Improving Neuse River, North Carolina; continuing improvement, five thousand dollars.

Improving Pamlico and Tar Rivers,
North Carolina; continuing improvement, five thousand dollars.

Improving Trent River, North Car-
thousand dollars.

Improving Waccamaw River, North and South Carolina; continuing improvement, four thousand four hundred dollars.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.—A spirit of gratitude prompts me to address a brief note of thanks. Three months ago I returned from Mobile, Ala., and was immediately attacked with what is known as Sciatic Rheumatism. I employed three physicians in succession, giving each one ample time to afford relief if it had been in his power. I was not materially benefited by their services and was beginning to despair, when a friend who had experienced the effects of St. Jacobs Oil advised me to give it a trial. I refused, because I did not think Rheumatism could be cured by outward application. Insisting upon a trial of it he sent me two bottles. Unable to meet his kindness by further refusal, I had the remedy applied to the parts affected. My case was so severe that after a few applications I scarcely seemed to be benefited. But before the first bottle had been used up, I began to be relieved of the painful lameness in my hip and knee, and when the second bottle was used out I could dress myself and walk about. I continued to use it, and am now able to go down to my office and attend to business. Should persons afflicted as I was desire a stronger testimonial, I shall tell them, if they call upon me, to give St. Jacobs Oil a fair trial; and I now feel as though I could assure them the same grateful and speedy relief that I have experienced. WESLEY Sissons, Atty at Law, 179 Washington St., Chicago, Ill.

Weather Forecasts.

Venor has published the following predictions of the weather for the remainder of the year 1882: The season will merit the designation of cool to cold and wet, generally. Not that there will not be terms of summer warmth, and even intense heat, for periods, but rather that these last will appear in the retrospect as of but comparative insignificance, or as the exceptions to the general rule.

The season will be marked by not only great precipitation, but by a mug-giness of atmosphere, generally, caused by the reeking condition of the earth and the long continuance of clouded sky. This will result in periods of extreme sultriness and heavy weather, during which thunder and hail storms will occur. In other words, the summer will be the reverse of clear and dry.

There is a likelihood of June and August frosts in Northern, Western and Southern sections, and a general cold wave may occur toward midsummer. The autumn months will continue moist. September will probably give rains and floods in Western and Southern sections of the United States. October will be much the same, with early cold and snow falls. November will begin the winter of 1882-'83—a winter likely to be memorable on account of its exceptionally heavy snow falls and very cold weather over the whole Northern Hemisphere. That a "cold and wet summer is invariably followed by a cold and stormy winter," is a truth now so well proven and borne out by the testimony of past records that we cannot lightly put it aside, and if we have good and sufficient grounds for predicting the former—as we most assuredly have at this time—it is but right that we should warn the people of the latter in good season.

The approaching season will probably be the first of a couple of wet summers, and, as 1882 is, so is 1883 likely to be.

Personal.

Frank D. Koonce, Esq., of Onslow, is in the city and favored us with a call last night. We learn from him that the crops in his county are very promising, although the cotton and the late corn have been cut down by the cold weather, necessitating replanting in many instances. The fruit crop is excellent in its promises and on the whole the farmers are hopeful of good harvests.

Kidney Disease,
Pain, Irritation, Retention, Incontinence, Deposits, Gravel, &c., cured by "Buchupabia." $1. Depot James C.

We are requested to state that all of the members of the Veteran Corps and the Honorary Members of the Wilmington Light Infantry, are invited to attend at the target shooting and the drill and presentation of prizes at the Opera House and afterwards at the Armory to-morrow without further notice.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, variable winds, mostly southerly, stationary or lower pressure.

Interesting Exercises.

Quite interesting were the exercises at the Williston School, colored, on the corner of Seventh and Nun streets yesterday.
They consisted of recitations, declama-tions, music and the reading of essays by the pupils, some of whom acquitted themselves with genuine credit. A considerable number of visitors were present, who were highly pleased with the intellectual entertainment.

Eustis Green is principal of the school with his wife and four other assistants to aid him in his labors. He is competently educated, has a fondness for his duties, and is doing wonderful work in advancing the educational standard of the colored race. The school has an average attendance of 285 pupils, a slight majority of whom are females.
The studies are such as are generally pursued in the public schools, from the primary to the higher English branches, embraces rhetoric and algebra and Latin.
