ON THE WING.

A Hurrried Trip to New York and Boston—Captain Bisbee's New Boat.
A friend of ours who left here a few days since on a trip to some of the Northern cities, has transmitted to us a few items of his experience. His letters, two of which have been received, are very interesting but the first was delayed so long on the way that it is now rather old. There are a few points in it, however, of which we shall avail ourselves. He tells us that the crops in Delaware and New Jersey are looking very fine and that the merchants in New York say that they are doing a very large business this Spring. From New York he went to Milford, Ct., where he was the guest of Mr. O. T. Earle. This gentleman, in connection with some others, has recently established a horse-shoe manufactory, making the shoes from both iron and steel, one machine turning out 60 a minute and others 30 a minute. At Providence, R. I., he was so simply disgusted that he left as soon as possible. Colored men paraded the streets with white wives and were allotted some of the best seats at the hotel tables with the whites. The place is overrun with the colored population. At Fall River he found everybody busy, and more than forty cotton factories at work. The buildings are very nearly all of granite, which is cheaper there than bricks. He met with many courtesies at Fall River and mentions having met with Mr. W. H. Ainsworth, who was first in charge of the Cotton Mills in Wilmington, and who is Capt. Bisbee's father-in-law; also Mr. A. R. Borden, who concentered the top of our cotton mills, and Capt. Dyer, who fitted up the mills, all of whom enquired very particularly after their acquaintances here.

At Boston, our correspondent saw much which was interesting, but he failed to fall in love with the place. Everything there was scarce and high, and the contrast with New York was very great, in many ways. He describes Capt. Bisbee's new boat, the Minnehaha, as a very handsome boat, and a fast boat. He says, and we will let him tell this part himself:

Capt. Bisbee has got the Minnehaha. She is a beauty and will be repaired when she reaches her new home. She has two cabins, and is a 14-mile boat, with room on her for 300 people. Capt. Ed. Burriss and Frank Wilkinson and engineer Smith, with the fireman came on from New York, bringing Tommy Morse and Willie Davis, of Smithville, with them. The boat will start, if the weather is favorable, on Monday evening, the 23d inst., and hopes to be there in a few days. The boys are all well and take this method of informing their friends, nearly all of whom are subscribers to your lively little paper. I met in the Custom House here a very clever gentleman, Mr. Fred. Grant, who was a class-mate of Col. S. L. Fremont's, at West Point, and who asked very kindly after his old friend and class-mate. I also met another, Maj. Chauncey C. Deans, who has shown a great many courtesies to us as Southerners—remaining in his office some three hours after time to facilitate our business. There are some clever gentlemen here, but a good many who are not.

Remedy for Roaches.
Many housekeepers in this city are very much troubled by the roaches which infest their premises, and would no doubt be glad of a simple method to get rid of them. The best way, says the Sanitary Engineer, to get rid of water bugs and cockroaches that we know of, is to stop feeding them. If no crumbs are lying on the table or floor and thorough cleanliness and neatness is maintained throughout your whole apartment, they will soon change their boarding place to the nearest neighbor's, where the fare is better. We know of no way to effectually prevent their passage from one (ordinarily constructed) room to another. Their passage along water pipes through walls may be stopped by closing the holes about the pipes with plaster, and borax is sometimes used with good effect to keep them from some particular place, but on the whole we think the cheapest and most certain way is to starve them out.

Don't Die in the House.
"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, gophers. 15c.

By notice published elsewhere, it will be seen that Capt. C. D. Myers offers for sale that very handsome property of his on Wrightsville Sound, three tracts, with a front of 395 feet, and comprising 60 acres. This is one of the most desirable properties on Wrightsville Sound.

Military News.
A meeting of officers of the State Guard was held at Charlotte last Saturday afternoon, at which about thirty were present. Adjutant-General Johnstone Jones presided, and Lt.-Col. F. A. Olds and Major J. G. Young were secretaries. The purpose was announced to be to adopt suitable resolutions of respect to the late General B. C. Manly. Speeches eulogistic of the deceased were made by General Jones, General M. P. Taylor, Col. Harry Skinner, A. D. C. to Governor Jarvis, Col. F. H. Cameron, and Lt. S. V. Goodson, of Lincolnton. The last named was a member of "Manly's Battery." His remarks were pathetic. A committee, composed of Gen. Taylor, Maj. W. A. Cumming, Lt. S. V. Goodson, Capt. Ernest F. Young, and Major George H. Hall, was appointed to prepare resolutions. These will be published in a few days. A resolution directing that the armories of every company in the State be draped in mourning for a period of 30 days, and that all officers wear crapes for a like period, was adopted.

Some Politics.
Some Solomon, a real smart Aleck, has written a letter from Raleigh to the New York Sun, in which he says that Maj. C. M. Stedman, of this city, will be the candidate at large for Congress, against Col. O. H. Dockery, who is to be run by the anti-Bourbon, anti-Prohibition, liberal Democratic, Green-back Republican party.
Maj. Stedman has been spoken of very quietly by some of his friends in connection with this nomination, but it is understood that he does not desire it. Should it fall upon him, however, and should he be induced to accept it, there could be no doubt about the issue of the contest as between him and Col. Dockery.

Base Ball Match.
Yesterday afternoon a match game of base ball was played at the Athletic grounds between the Recreation Nine, Capt. Jos. D. Smith, and the Independent Nine, Capt. Fred. P. Howland. Mr. A. G. Ricard acted as umpire. The game was won by the Recreation Nine. The score stood, Recreation 19 runs, Independents 16 runs. The game was closely contested, and was played with much interest by both sides.

Stole a Watch.
A colored boy who was employed to cut wood at the residence of Captain John Fitzgerald, on Bladen, between Seventh and Eighth streets, burglariously entered the residence during the absence of the family, on yesterday, and stole a watch and some other jewelry. An officer was put on the track of the boy and succeeded in securing the watch. The young thief has not yet been arrested.

Queer Fish.
A queer-looking fish, measuring five feet, four inches in length and weighing about 100 pounds, was caught at the fishery of Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son yesterday. The fish is a stranger to these waters and is supposed by some to be of the salmon family. Its under-jaw protruded about two inches. It had a large tongue but no teeth. The question is, what is it?

Mr. L. D. Cherry surveyed yesterday the paupers' burying ground, and found that there were 34 acres in the plot. The cemetery will hereafter be known as Oak Grove Cemetery.

Robert Beasley, a colored employe at the Carolina Rice Mills, had his right hand crushed yesterday under a pestle. The bones of the little finger were broken.

The Murderer.
We succeeded yesterday in gaining some further information in reference to the murderer of Orton, on Wednesday. The name of the murderer is Ferro Sykes and not David. He branded his victim with an axe and did not cut her throat as was first reported. The murderer is supposed to have gone in the direction of Shallotte.

Primary Meetings.
The primary meetings for delegates to the Republican nominating convention for county officers, were held last night, and passed off quietly with the exception of the upper division of the First Ward and the Fifth Ward. When our reporter visited the first named precinct he found all confusion, and the poll-holders calling on the police to close the house. The factions were wrangling and a free fight and general knock down was imminent, but the police quieted the disturbance and left the poll-holders in quiet possession of the ballot boxes. Bill Howe, armed with an axe helve, walked through the crowd and around the building in which the polls were held, and quiet reigned in Warsaw. The Fifth Ward meeting broke up without electing delegates. The following are the delegates elected to the nominating convention:
First Ward—Upper Division—Henry Brewington, Emanuel Nichols, A. J. Walker.
First Ward—Lower Division—Owen Burney, Josh Tucker, Monroe Bird.
Second Ward—E. J. Pennypacker, George E. Burden, S. VanAmringe.
Third Ward—J. E. Sampson, S. II. Manning, David Jones.
Fourth Ward—J. K. Cutlar, Louis Boyd, W. P. Canaday.
George L. Mabson asked us to state that there would be contesting delegates from the Upper Division of the First Ward. The contest seems to have dwindled down to County Treasurer. The most prominent candidate are Dijah Hewlett, Owen Burney and W. H. Howe.
