 J. J. Herring paid $2 for being disorderly.
 Gilmore Battle also paid $2 for being disorderly and went on his way rejoicing.

Confirmation.

The rite of confirmation was administered to six adults and twenty-four children at St. Thomas' Catholic Church Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Northrop. After the confirmation the Pontifical High Mass was celebrated. Father Oberly preached the confirmation sermon.

Broke Her Back.

Annie Williams, one of the mourners at the camp-meeting, had her back broken on Sunday. She was kneeling at the altar when Milly Morris, who is generally known on account of her enormous size, commenced to shout and fell over on the unfortunate woman, breaking her back. Medical assistance was summoned and the woman received the necessary treatment. She was brought to this city yesterday morning.

"How do you Manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, and thus keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured." See other columns.

Kicked by a Horse.

Little Frank, son of Capt. C. D. Myers, nearly escaped a terrible injury last Saturday. The horse had made his way from the stable into the garden and Frank attempted to drive him out when the animal kicked him in the stomach. For a while he was unconscious and the family were almost distracted with fears as to the result but the little fellow recovered before a physician could arrive and on Sunday appeared as well as ever.

Spring Chickens.

Two estimable ladies who keep a boarding house on one of the principal streets, and whose cuisine is especially remarkable for variety as well as excellence, conceived the idea last Saturday of treating the guests of their house to broiled chicken for breakfast on Sunday morning. With this object in view they succeeded, after mortgaging a house and lot and a Sound plantation, in raising money enough for the purchase of a dozen of those rare and delicate birds, known as spring chickens. These were carefully prepared and laid out overnight ready for the griddle next morning. But, l'homme propose et Dieu dispose, and the next morning the birds had flown, all featherless as they were, and the disappointed boarders had to content themselves with ham and eggs and lamb chops. Camp meeting.

Thursday the delegates will be taken down the river on a pleasure excursion. Mine host Perry of the Hotel Brunswick will prepare a dinner for them.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBS.

Murder at Fremont.

A subscriber at Fremont sends us a short account of a murder which occurred at that place on last Thursday. A white man by the name of O'Neal was pistolled by a colored man named Platt. Dr. W. J. Gilbert was called in, but O'Neal was dead before he arrived. The ball entered the apex of the left lung and ranged obliquely across the chest, opening an artery in the vicinity of the heart, death resulting from internal hemorrhage. This was the first murder ever committed at Fremont, and the feeling of the community was very intense. Platt, the murderer, and another colored man by the name of Moore, charged with being accessory to the deed, were arrested and lodged in jail.

Criminal Court.

This tribunal met in special session yesterday. His Honor Judge Meares on the bench, and Mr. Solicitor Moore at his post. Owing to the sickness of the Clerk, Maj. Jno. W. Dunham, he was absent, and Col. John D. Taylor filled the office very acceptably. His Honor delivered the usual charge to the Grand Jury. The following named persons constitute the Grand Jury for this term of the Court:

John C. Heyer, Foreman; DeLancy Evans, Clerk; D. M. Fennell, A. M. McLean, W. J. Kellogg, D. B. Mitchell, Charles Robbins, M. F. Beasley, S. J. Sneed, E. P. Bailey, Joseph H. Hanby, H. W. Bryant, C. W. Yates, Joshua G. Craig, C. M. Harris, J. D. Nixon, James A. Hewlett, Stephen Bowan.

Death of Mr. Monks.

Mr. Thomas Monks, a highly-esteemed resident of this vicinity, died at his farm near the Eastern extremity of Market street, on Sunday afternoon, aged about 58 years.

Mr. Monks was a native of Ireland and emigrated to America in the year 1847. After a few years spent in Virginia and South Carolina, he took up his residence near this city in 1855 and engaged in raising vegetables for this market. Subsequently, he greatly enlarged his business and added thereto the products of the dairy and general farming. Energetic, industrious and frugal, in a few years success rewarded his well-directed efforts. He was a silent but keen observer and this, combined with strong common sense and untiring industry, soon achieved for him that independence which enabled him, with a genial heart, to dispense a bountiful hospitality to his countrymen and friends. As a practical farmer he deservedly ranked high. With rare judgment and prompt and thorough work, the most sterile lands yielded up to him abundant crops. As a law-abiding, upright citizen, the county, in the death of Mr. Monks, has sustained a great loss. His countrymen and friends will miss his hearty welcome and genial hospitality. A kind and considerate husband and an affectionate father, to his family his loss is simply irreparable. True to his work in life, he was equally faithful to the church and the religion of his forefathers, and died clinging to the Cross. In the "dark valley" be this their hope, their consolation.

Possible Fatal Accident.

We regret to learn of a serious accident which befell Mr. Archie Black yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock. He has for some time past been employed by Capt. S. W. Skinner at the Marine Railway in this city, and was sent yesterday to select some pieces of blocks at the saw mill of Mr. A. Y. Wilson. While at the block pile selecting suitable material, a block 7 feet long and 10 inches square was thrown from the window above him, which is 15 feet from the ground, and it struck Mr. Black on the head. The blow made a severe fracture at the base of the skull, causing cerebral hemorrhages. The unfortunate man was paralyzed in the right side and has not spoken since he was hurt. Mr. Black, who is about sixty years of age, came here from Fayetteville about three years ago and has ever since been working for Capt. Skinner. He was a fine ship carpenter and has always been respected for his industrious habits, strict integrity and religious devotion. He is said to have built nearly all of the wooden-hulled steamers on the river, while he was a resident of Fayetteville. His condition is very critical.

Moonlight Excursion.

The weather bids to be fair for the moonlight excursion down the river on the steamer Passport, to-night, under the auspices of the Library Association. What can be more refreshing than a trip down the river these beautiful moonlight nights? The fare is cheap, and we confidently expect to see a large crowd take advantage of the opportunity. Secure your tickets at Dyer's to-day.

The Howard Light Infantry, colored, of Fayetteville arrived in this city last night to attend the Decoration services to-day.
