Quarterly Meetings.

Rev. Robt. O. Burton, the Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, in accordance with his published appointments, will hold his third quarterly meeting for the present Conference year, at the Front Street Methodist Church this morning, and at the Fifth Street Church this evening.

Unmailables.

The following unmailable matter remains in the postoffice in this city: One stamped envelope, illegibly addres3ed; 1 government samped envelope, addressed Timmonsville, S. C.; Miss L. Maddix, Bogue Sound, Cedar Pt. P. O., N. C.; Charles Roundtree Washington, N.C.

Presentation.

The young men of this city will present Hon. D. L. Russell and Mr. Du-Brutz Cutlar each with a handsome gold-headed ebony walking cane as a token of esteem and appreciation of their efforts in the defenceg of Mr. Gause. The presentation is to take place tomorrow night at the Little Giant Hall.

More Light Needed.

At nine o'clock last night none of the treet lamps on Fourth, South of Dock, on Orange, Ann or Nun, East of Fourth streets, were burning. The streets were very dark as was noticed by pedestrians. There seems to be a great deal of complaint, of late, on account of the lax and irregular manner in which the street lamps are lighted.

and successful attempt at robbery was practised on Mrs. A. Shrier, in front of her residence on Front street. She, together with two other ladies, had been down town shopping, and was returning home when the robbery was com mitted. The ladies were in front of Mrs, Shrier's residence, and she was in the act of inserting her night latch key her and grabbed a hand pocket book which she carried by the handle. The thief made two efforts to take it A valise containing a very valuable from her before she released it. TROM MY PLACE ON WRIGHTSVILLE The rascal also jerked a bunch of keys from Mrs. Shrier. The ladies gave the alarm and a crowd soon gathered but street, made good his escape. On the key ring was a metal tag bearing Mr. Shrier's name. The stolen bag or pocket book contained only five or six dollars. The ladies were naturally very much alarmed and cannot say whether the thief was white or black. All they know is that he was a large man and wore a white straw hat. He evidently had seen the ladies down town shopping and tracked them up until they got to Mrs. Shrier's residence and then made their assault.
