To Leave Us.

Major James Reilly and family are soon to move to Farmer's Turnout, on the W. C. & A. R. R., about 18 miles south of this city. A neat, one-story frame dwelling has just been completed by Major Reilly, and he proposes to move his family in about one month. We dislike to lose him as a citizen, but we know that it will be to his interest to make the move he has decided upon.

Mr. Solicitor. yesterday from Capt, Swift Galloway, has the honor of being State's Solicitor for this judicial district. Capt. Gallo way was a gallant officer in the Third N. School Entertainment.

The pupils of the school of Misses Burr & James have in preparation a series of calisthenic and musical exercises for the entertainment of their parents and friends, to be given at the Opera House on Thursday evening next. Upon the list of the pleasant exercises will be the "Broom Drill," which has created such a "furore" in Northern cities, and also Addison's celebrated "Fan Drill," as suggested by him, in the Speclator: June 27th, 1711.

The Thompson Case.

Mrs. Catherine R. Gause sued out a writ for damages before Mr. S. Van Amringe, clerk of the Superior Court, on Saturday last, against Mr. Herbert D. Thompson, claiming damages of $10,000. Mr. Thompson eluded the officers and went to Goldsboro, where Sheriff Grantham arrested him. Officer Bunting took the papers calling for his arrest to Goldsboro Sunday. Mr. J. W. Thompson, the father of the prisoner, went up on the same train with the officer, and gave bond for $15,000 for his appearance at the February term of the Superior Court for this county.

Dedication of St. Paul's Church

About two hundred persons left this city, Sunday, on a special train, for Farmer's Turnout, where the new Catholic church was dedicated, Arriving at the station, the excursionists found about one hundred persons in waiting to meet them. After depositing the excursionists the train ran up to Brinkley's, and there took on quite a number of persons who wished to attend the dedicatory services. At eleven o'clock Bishop Northrop, accompanied by Rev. Fathers Gross and Oberley, proceeded to dedicate the neat little building. The church, named Paul's, is a frame building 50 by 25 feet, and has a clear pitch of 14 feet. was built by Mr. Charles Morrill, of this city.

The processional around the church, while the outer walls were being blessed, was very imposing. The cross bearer led the procession, and was followed by the candle bearers. Next came the Bishop and Priests, and then the train-bearers, holding up the skirts of the elegant Pontifical robes worn by the Bishop; the bearer of the Bishop's staff and the acolites bringing up the rear,

After the journey around the church was made, the procession stopped at the door and chanted a hymn, and then moved into the church, followed by the choir, Mrs. John Bauman, Miss Sue Reilly and Mr. John W. Reilly. The Litany of the Saints was sung inside of the church, and the interior of the building was sprinkled with holy water and dedicated. The Mass was said by Father Gross.

Concone's Mass was sung by the choir. Bishop Northrop preached an eloquent sermon, and at 2 o'clock services were held and the Rev. Father Oberley preached a fine sermon. St. Paul's Church has now a membership of fotry-eight members. A litte after 4 o'clock the train started on its return trip to this city, and arrived about 15 minutes to 5 o'clock.
