The mosquito brigade were out yesterday, buzzing around presenting their little bills. They had their war paint on, or rather a red mash hat, which is supposed to mean money or blood.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

In our notice of the contemplated dedication of Myrtle Branch Church, we were mistaken in stating that Revs. J. B. Taylor and W. M. Kennedy would participate in the ordination of Mr. Dukes. It is understood that these gentlemen will take part in the dedication of the church.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

Arrived Safe.

Mr. Leopold Brunhild, who left this city a few weeks ago on a visit to his old home and birthplace in Barana, Germany, has arrived at his destination, his brother, Mr. H. Brunhild, having received a letter from him yesterday announcing his safe arrival.

"Buchupaiba."

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, $1. Druggists Depot, James C. Munds.

For the Lake.

An excursion train will be run to Waccamaw Lake, on Thursday next, under the auspices of the St. John's Rectory Club. The train will leave here at nine a. m., returning at 7 p. m. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the Club, and a pleasant, quiet, enjoyable day is offered to all. It is an excellent opportunity for a day of real pleasure at a very moderate cost.

A Big Bear Hunt.

For some time past a couple of very large bears have been killing up the hogs in the neighborhood of French's Creek, Bladen county, and have become so bold of late that persons living in the vicinity have become alarmed for the safety of the ladies and children who were left at home when the gentlemen were at work on the farms. Saturday last a large number of persons, accompanied by all the dogs in the neighborhood, started out on a big hunt for the bears, but failed to find them. The dogs were not the kind to hunt bears with, hence the failure. We are told that an ordinary cur or hound will run the moment it strikes a bear's trail.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

An Exhausted Edition.

We understand that the edition of the beautiful illustrated publication issued by Col. Pope, descriptive of scenery and summer resorts in Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia, has already been disposed of. Mr. Emerson says that the demand consequent upon the notice which appeared in the REVIEW was such that it could scarcely be supplied, which of course made us blush. He thinks that another edition will be published to meet the demands.

Sale of an Elegant Residence.

The beautiful residence of Dr. A. J. DeRosset, with the large grounds attached, on the corner of Second and Dock streets, have been sold to Mr. Hanke Vollers, for $10,000, cash. The house is a large two-story building, with brick outhouses, and the grounds front 99 feet on Second street and 230 feet on Dock street. Even at the present depressed value of real estate it is considered that Mr. Vollers has a bargain in his purchase.

JOHN DYER & SON are the leading "Tailors and Hacerdashers" of this city.

Interesting Occasion.

A large congregation assembled at the First Baptist Church on Sunday night, to be in attendance upon the ordination of Rev. W. T. Jones. This excellent young man was raised in our city. He is a graduate of Wake Forest College, and has been a student at the Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky. He has accepted an invitation to take charge of the Baptist Church at Wilson, in this State. The services connected with the setting Mr. Jones apart to the full work of the Gospel ministry were very impressive and interesting. The introductory exercises were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Taylor. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Magnolia. After an appropriate hymn by the choir, the charge to the young minister was delivered by Rev. J. B. Taylor. The ordaining prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Barlow. After the laying on of hands by the presbytery, the L. M. doxology was sung, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Jones. After the conclusion of the services, a large number came forward to congratulate the young minister and bid him God speed.

Arrest of a Swindler.

At Cashier's Valley, Jackson county, in this State, has resided one H. J. Lombard, who for some time has been quite successfully swindling the merchants, business men and others of the various cities of the country by sending letters representing himself to be the secretary or agent of the Cashier's Valley Granger Club and requesting them to forward certain goods of which the club were in need and which he hoped to be able to introduce among the members. In numerous instances he obtained goods by these methods. He carried on quite an extensive business in this way through the mails, in violation of the postoffice laws, and recently Mr. H. Booth, Inspector in the postoffice department, learning of the case, went to Cashier's Valley and soon learned sufficient facts to cause him to make an affidavit against Lombard for a warrant of arrest. Lombard is known as a desperate character, and, although he has often been wanted by the local authorities for violations of the law, it seems that there was a fear of undertaking his capture. The warrant obtained by Mr. Booth was placed in the hands of an officer, who summoned four assistants and started for Lombard's residence to secure the arrest. The latter was not at home, but receiving information where he had gone and when he was expected to return the officers started out to meet him as he came home. They concealed themselves until they saw him approaching, and when he was within about 20 yards of them, the officer with the warrant arose, (the others remaining concealed), and demanded his surrender. At this Lombard began to shoot, and Mr. Hooper, the officer in question, threw himself upon the ground to avoid the shots. After a moment or two, however, he rose and commenced shooting at Lombard, and the others joining in the shooting, the culprit broke and ran, but they managed to surround him, when he surrendered. He had received six wounds, none of which, however, were very serious. He was taken before a justice of the peace, in the absence of any United States Commissioner, who after hearing the testimony, held Lombard in $1,500 bail for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. Court.

Personal.

Rev. Colin Shaw, of Bladen county, formerly chaplain of the 18th North Carolina, was in the city yesterday, en route for Davidson College commencement, which takes place this week. Mr. Shaw is one of the Trustees of that institution.

Daniel Shaw, Esq., Chairman of the Board, of Commissioners for Black county, and Daniel Robinson, Esq., of Black River, were in the city and paid us a visit yesterday.

A Store Robbed.

Some one broke into the second-hand clothing store, on Market street, occupied by Mr. Jas. H. Daniels, on Sunday night, and succeeded in carrying off about sixty dollars worth of clothes and shoes. The thief was well posted and attacked the most vulnerable part of the building. An entrance was effected by ripping off a plank on the east side of the building and shoving in a board of the ceiling of the building. It was the only place in the house which was not protected by shelving or cross beams.

Scoped In.

Ella Martin, colored, an old sinner, was arrested on the streets yesterday for being drunk and committing a nuisance. On her way to the lock-up she jerked away from the officer and locked her arm around a post, near the corner of Third and Market streets. In her drunken condition she lost her balance and fell from the street to a sunken yard below, a distance of about ten feet. Strange to say, she was in no way hurt. She was taken to the guard house and the city physician sent for who pronounced her only drunk.

A Bridge Fell In.

Yesterday afternoon while a lot of cattle, about 15 in number, were being driven over Smith's Creek bridge, near this city, the middle span of the bridge gave way, and the cattle were precipitated into the water, the planking and sleepers falling on top of them. Messrs. Edward Orrell, James Holland and T. P. Sykes, the owners of the cattle, went immediately to the rescue and pulled the fallen timbers off from them. Had it not been for the promptness of the gentlemen, several of the cows would have drowned, but they all swam ashore, apparently uninjured. We presume the bridge will be repaired today.

Early Closing.

Yesterday afternoon most of the business houses on the wharf closed their doors at 5 o'clock. The matter of early closing was first mentioned in the DAILY REVIEW, through a communication written by one of our level-headed citizens, and was quickly endorsed by the Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange. Hereafter the usual suspension of business from 1 to 2 o'clock will not be had, but work will continue until 5 o'clock, when all business will close for the day. The following firms have agreed to close in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Managers: Alex. Sprunt & Son, G. Boney & Son, A. H. VanBokkelen, Woody & Currie, G. W. Williams & Co., Cronly & Morris, Robinson & King, J. R. Turrentine, W. A. Whitehead, Heide & Co., Jas. I. Metts, A. H. Green, John W. Gordon & Bro., G. O. VanAmringe, C. P. Mebane, Worth & Worth, E. Lilly, C. E. Smith, John E. Crow, Paterson, Downing & Co., Rankin & Birdsey, R. W. Hicks, D. R. Murchison & Co., DeRosset & Co., Kerchner & Calder Bros. Chess, Carley Co., Kenan & Forshee, E. P. Covington, Adrian & Vollers.

Railroad Meeting.

At a meeting of the committee, in this city, of the Point Caswell and Clinton Railroad, held last evening at the City Hall, Mr. F. W. Kerchner in the chair and Mr. J. C. Stevenson acting as Secretary, the committee were urged to commence operations for having the subscriptions to the iron railroad changed to the wooden road, and solicit additional subscriptions and to report to the chairman on or before the 22d inst. If at that time the subscriptions amount to $25,000, the chairman will call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of organizing.

The following heading was agreed to as a proper one for the subscription list: We the undersigned agree to subscribe the amounts opposite our names for the purpose of building a wooden railroad from Point Caswell to Clinton. The capital stock to be $50,000. Par value of shares $25 each. When $25,000 is subscribed, the company to be organized. The said subscriptions to the stock to be collected by installments as the work progresses, not to exceed 10 per cent. per month. We understand that those interested have determined to build the road free from encumbrances. More than enough money has already been subscribed to organize the company, but they prefer to have the full amount, $50,000, subscribed before commencing operations. The different committees from Pender, Sampson and this city will report on the 22d inst., and will no doubt show a subscription of more than is required to build and equip the road. On to Clinton!

The Cane Presentation.

About two hundred persons assembled at the Little Giant Hall last night to witness the presentation of the canes to Hon. D. L. Russell and Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar.

Mr. R. H. Pickett presented the canes in behalf of the young men of the town in the following neat little speech:

Judge Russell and Mr. Cutlar:
The young men of Wilmington have called upon me to perform a duty that in itself gives unbounded pleasure, but coupled with the fact that my heart is with them in the good work, makes the pleasure doubly sweet. 'Tis with a feeling, gentlemen, of deepest gratitude I present you in their name these beautiful canes, hoping that in years to come they may prove emblematical in reminding you that in defending the virtue of our fair maidens and upholding the just, you have the united support of every true young man. Accept them, gentlemen, and may you ever be found cane in hand "protecting the innocent."

At the conclusion of Mr. Pickett's remarks, Judge Russell thanked the young gentleman for the sentiments conveyed and stated that Mr. Cutlar would, by arrangement, reply to Mr. Pickett. Mr. Cutlar arose and made a most happy and graceful speech of about five minutes length. He assured the donors that the tokens which had been presented to him and his associate counsel in the defense of Mr. Gause, was far more appreciated than any pecuniary reward could be. He stated that they took the case without reward or hope of reward for the protection of innocence and in defence of justice.

The cane presented to Judge Russell was a black ebony, with a heavily carved gold knob head bearing the inscription "Protect the Innocent," engraved in circles, with the name D. L. Russell in the center. Mr. Cutlar's cane was also of ebony and with a square gold head beautifully carved, on which was engraved "DuBrutz Cutlar, Protect the Innocent."

Military.

The Wilmington Light Infantry held their regular monthly meeting last night, at which they admitted thirteen new members. They voted to celebrate the coming 4th of July by an excursion up the river to Point Caswell. We are glad to state that the company is now in a very flourishing condition, and that the people seem to be waking up a little military ardor which for a long time has been at a low ebb.

The Democratic Executive Committee of New Hanover county are notified in another column of an important meeting to take place on the evening of the 15th inst.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

True Life Insurance

a Protection.

NOTHING CAN BE MORE UNCERTAIN than the duration of a single life; nothing can be more certain than the average duration of fifty thousand; consequently the fluctuation of a small number will be very great, while the fluctuation upon a large number will be very small. The supreme risk, then, is the value or interest which is centered in the continuation or duration of a single life. This risk in the case of the uninsured is carried by those who have the greatest interest in his life, while the party insured transfers the risk to a company which, by a well ordered system, distributes the risk over a large number, so large that the condition of the insuring party is immediately changed from a position of the greatest hazards to a position of the greatest safety. Feeling it is a plain duty, choose the best.

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN., after thirty-six years' successful experience, has readjusted its table of rates, and embodying every feature of legitimate advantage which time has so far developed, gives the safest, most valuable and most liberal contract ever written. This is "no new plan" order, much less is it an experiment. It is a volume from the library of experience itself. Each policy will have attached a table of cash values growing out of the reserve, and the accumulation of surplus will be stated each year. The longer the policy runs the greater its value, both as an insurance and an investment, and the higher reserve required by the assumption of 3 per cent. interest makes the policy just so much the more valuable as an endowment. We believe it, as we intended it to be, the safest, most valuable, and most liberal contract ever written. JACOB L. GREENE, President. Send for modified plans, giving advantages offered. S. D. WAIT, Gen'l Agent, Raleigh, N. C. ATKINSON & MANNING, Agents, June 13 Wilmington.
