Bibulous Theology.

Speaking of Calvinists brings up a story told me by Mr. Handy, of Philadelphia, yesterday, about a meeting between Senator Vance, of North Carolina, and Gov. Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, at Yorktown, one of whom had been in the Rebel army and the other in the Union army. There was a saloon convenient, into which they went, and having had a drink or two, Vance said

"What church do you belong to?" "Presbyterian." "I don't believe it," said Vance. "Sound me," said Hoyt.

"What is the chief end of man?" said Vance."

"To glorify God," replied Hoyt. Then said Hoyt to Vauce: "How many questions are there in the catehism?" "One hundred and thirty-eight." "Right."

"What is sin?" said Vance. Hoyt rattled out the entire definition of the Westminister divine, and Vance cried: "Right again. Now, let us take a Malaria, Chills and Fever, and Bilious attacks positively cured with Emory's Standard Cure Pills—an infallible remedy: never fail to cure the most obstinate, long-standing cases where Quinine and all other remedies had failed. They are prepared expressly for malarious sections, in double boxes, two kinds of Pills, containing a strong cathartie and a chill breaker, sugar-coated; contain no Quinine or Mercury, causing no griping or purging; they are mild and efficient, certain in their action and harmless in all cases; they effectually cleanse the system, and give new life and tone to the body. As a household remedy they are unequaled.

For Liver Complaint their equal is not known; one box will have a wonderful G, at New Orleans, Tuesday, July 11, 1882 effect on the worst case. They are used and prescribed by Physicians, and sold by Druggists everywhere, or sent by mail, 25 and 50 cent boxes. Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, best ever made, only 15 Cents. Whittier on Annoyances in Heaven.

Mrs. Ellen E. Dickinson in the Churchman, I related something of a conversation between Mr. Longfellow and myself on spiritualism a few months before his death, or, rather, a conversation on the influence and nearness which many persons experience in regard to those who were dear to them and have gone into the mysteries of eternity. Mr. Whittier listened with interest, adding that he was aware that Mr. Longfellow had some remarkable ideas and sympathies of the kind, but had never talked with him on the subject, "and for my-self," he added, "I have felt but very slightly that closeness and nearness of the unseen of which you speak." After a few moments, in the progress of our talk, he remarked: "Lite is a mys-leans."
