MR. DARBY'S ACROBATIC PERFORMANCE.

The farce has been brought to a conclusion, and Mr. Frank H. Darby, the newly-fledged convert, has accepted the nomination tendered him by the Republican convention held in Raleigh last week, and will run on the ticket.

Mr. Darby has gone over bodily into the Republican camp and in saying this we but take his own language as the basis of the assertion, independently of the fact that he has accepted the conventional nomination of that party.

Mr. Darby has had the good sense to resign his position as Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for the county of New Hanover, a position which pays nothing, but he has not, at this writing, resigned the position of City Attorney, awarded him by a Democratic Board of Aldermen, and which has a remunerative salary attached.

We think that Mr. Darby has made the greatest mistake of his life, and we are truly sorry to record it. We have entertained for him the warmest personal feelings, which have existed for years, and this fact adds to the poignancy of our regret at knowing that he has "gone to the bad."

The Republicans are welcome to all of the jubilation they can scare up over this tremendous accession to their rapidly thinning ranks. They have had to pay dearly for their convert, the highest office in the judicial district being the prize. As to Mr. Darby's election, there is no chance in the world for it, provided the Democratic party will be but true to itself.

Mr. Trevelyan is said already to have done well as Chief Secretary of Ireland. In Parliament he has a "ready and courteous method of answering questions" which gives pleasure and is making him popular even with the Irish members.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Sun fully understands the true inwardness of the recent Radical outrages in the House. He hits the nail squarely on the head when he writes: "The handwriting on the wall is not mysterious, but it attracts no attention. He may read it plainly who runs fast. The majority, led by Secor Robeson, and ruled by automaton Keifer, have come for a revel, and they mean to have it out without regard to cost."

A medicine of real merit, prescribed by many leading physicians, and universally recommended by those who have used it, as a true tonic, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

A commission of medical experts is asked for to examine Guitau to ascertain if he is really insane. A petition to that effect is being numerously signed by the New York doctors.

It is said that but three of the Pennsylvania Republican Congressmen are confident of the success of the Cameron ticket in November. As these gentlemen have grave fears that the split in the party may affect seriously their own chances, they, it is thought, will endeavor to bring about an understanding. As the Independents demand a new convention and a new ticket, Cameron's regard for his prestige as well as his pride will prompt him to refuse this. He merely consents to call the old convention together again to supply Mr. Marshall's place on the ticket for Congressman at-large.

PERSONAL.

Garibaldi was buried in a violent rain storm on his rocky island home, at Capri.

Henry Fitzgiles, aged thirteen years, is a prodigy of Tallahassee, Fla. He is a colored boy, and an artist of wonderful merit.

Dr. D. Babcock, the inventor of the fire extinguisher of that name, is in Buchanan, Va., a perfect wreck from the intemperate use of whisky.

Cetywayo's visit to England is indefinitely postponed by the government. It is apprehended that he would be turned to inconvenient political account in London.

Charles Osborne, an eminent Quaker minister, born in North Carolina in 1775, is credited by Hon. G. W. Julian as the first to advocate the abolition of American slavery.

John Bright's head seems to grow more delightfully level the older he gets. He now says that some day the United States will be the greatest nation on the face of the globe.

The bronze statue of Lafayette which J. P. Howard, of Burlington, will present to the University of Vermont next fall, will cost him $25,000. Ward, the American sculptor, is doing the work.

Emperor William's grandson, Prince Frederick William, expects to visit America next fall. He will sail in October on the corvette Olga for the West Indies and the United States.

In the Toronto police court, Friday morning, William Higgins, aged 60 years, was charged with having struck his mother, aged 80. The old lady refused to prosecute her "boy," but a policeman proved the assault, and the boy got sixty days.

37 Walker St., Baltimore, Dec. 1881. For six years I have been a great sufferer from Blood Disease, Dyspepsia, and Constipation, and became so debilitated that I could not retain anything on my stomach, in fact, life had almost become a burden.

Finally, when hope had almost left me, my husband seeing Brown's Iron Bitters advertised in the paper, induced me to give it a trial. I am now taking the third bottle and have not felt so well in six years as I do at the present time.
