Gen. S. H. Manning, who has been at Detroit, Mich., for several days past in attendance upon a reunion of Federal soldiers, returned to this city last night.

The city was left in the dark for several hours on Monday night after the moon had set, because the street lamps were not lighted. We thought the regulations in this respect were more stringent than they seem to be.

There were four arrests made by the police yesterday. All were taken to the guard house, and their cases will be investigated by the Mayor this morning. Of these two were arrested for fast driving and two for being engaged in an

Meeting of Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. met at the Company's offices in this city yesterday morning. The only items of interest transacted which are made public, was the election of Mr. H. Walters, of Baltimore, to fill the vacancy on the Board caused by the death recently of Mr. Thos. C. Jenkins and a resolution to declare a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent., payable on and after July 15th.

The alarm of fire yesterday, sounded about 5 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a small frame dwelling house on Fourth street, between Wooster and Dawson, owned and occupied by a colored man by the name of Joseph Bryant.
