Moonlight Excursion
Yates—Blank Books
Muns Bros—Insect Powders.
Hensberger—Just Call and See
R. M. McINTIRE—Saratoga Trunks
Saturday next is St. John's Day.
Attend your ward meetings to-night.
The civil docket of the Superior Court of Pender county will be taken up to-day.

We understand that there was a fine rain on the river above Fayetteville on Monday.
Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Tribon, arrived here yesterday morning from New York.
Summer begins to-day, according to the almanacs, and the almanacs, we all know, never lie.

Mr. W. A. Willson is making very great improvements to his dwelling on Nun, between Fourth and Fifth streets.
Mr. Martin New, who returned from New York a few days since, brought a fashionable "dog cart" back with him.

In estimating the causes of the failure of the electric fire alarm to give satisfaction to the members of the department it must be borne in mind that the telephonic system here has no hand in this failure.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Exports Foreign.
Nor. brig Regnaben, Olsen, cleared yesterday for London with 1,669 cases spirits turpentine, valued at $34,777, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co.

The Baptist Festival.
We learn that the Baptist Festival, held last night at Rankin Hall, was very largely attended, and there was an abundant supply of ice cream, cake and other delicacies and luxuries to tempt the appetite and satisfy the hunger of all present. There was nothing intoxicating except the smiles of the beautiful and accomplished ladies.

City Court.
Nick Laboo, charged with fast driving was fined $1. He paid and was discharged.
W. H. Highsmith, charged with the same offense, also paid $1 and was discharged.
Carl Dabbitt and Pat Sullivan, charged with disorderly conduct, were both fined $5. They paid up and were discharged.

Don't Die in the House.
"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, gophers, &c.

Ward Meetings.
To-night the various wards in this city will hold meetings for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention, which will be held in this city Saturday next, and also to elect five from each ward as an executive committee of the Ward. The Ward and Township Committees will elect two from each Ward, and one from each Township to constitute the County Executive Committee.

The several Wards will meet at 8 o'clock, p. m., at the following places: First Ward, Brooklyn Hall, over Railroad; 2d, Court House; 3d, Mayor's Office in City Hall; 4th, City Court Room; 5th, Steadman Bucket Co.'s Hall on Nun street.

The Townships will meet at 12 o'clock, m., at their usual polling places.

A Prisoner Escaped.
Yesterday, while the down train on the Carolina Central Railroad was at Moss Neck, a white man named Bailey, who was in the custody of Sheriff Zach Long, of Richmond county, jumped from the train and made good his escape. The prisoner was charged with a hellish attempt upon a little white girl, and was being conveyed to the Robson county jail at Lumberton. Bailey was supposed to have been handcuffed and chained to the seat of the car, but managed to slip the chain. Sheriff Long ran out after the prisoner, and fired three shots at him. The man fell after the third shot, but jumped up and made good his escape in the woods.

No Tidings as Yet.

We are sorry to learn that as yet the little child of Mr. Geo. W. Corbitt, who resides near Black River, Pender county, has not been found. About two hundred men have been searching the woods since the child was lost. They have been able to track it to within ten feet of the water in Collie Creek. Some persons think that the little fellow was taken up by the wind, which is said to have been blowing very hard, and which is described as a whirlwind. Our informant heard from the hunters for the child about 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

New English printed Pongee Silk Handkerchiefs, wash beautifully and are handsome. Call at DYER'S.

How Alligators Eat.

An alligator's throat—and especially the throat of a Black River or Smith Creek alligator—is an animated sewer. Everything which lodges in his mouth goes down. He is a lazy dog, and instead of hunting for something to eat, he lets his victims hunt for him. That is, he lies with his great mouth open, apparently dead, like the 'possum. Soon a bug crawls into it, then a fly, then several gnats and a colony of mosquitoes. The alligator does not close his mouth yet. He is waiting for a whole drove of things. He does his eating by the wholesale. A little later a lizard will cool himself under the shade of the upper jaw. Then a frog will hop up to catch the mosquitoes. Then more mosquitoes and gnats will light on the frogs. Finally a whole village of insects and reptiles settle down for an afternoon picnic. Then all at once, there is an earthquake. The big jaw falls, the alligator blinks one eye, gulps down the entire menagerie, and opens his great front door again for visitors.

The "David G. Worth."

The Ger. barque August, which was struck by lightning and set on fire while on her voyage to Europe, and returned to this city with the fire still burning, after extinguishing the fire and discharging the cargo was sold to Mr. James Sprunt. Mr. Sprunt has had the barque caulked, strengthened and repaired and she is now taking in a cargo of naval stores. She has been renamed the David G. Worth, in compliment to our enterprising fellow citizen of the firm of Worth & Worth, and floats the British flag under a provisional consular regulation, and is commanded by Capt. McDonald, of Windsor, Nova Scotia. Her destination is not yet decided upon, but upon her arrival in Europe she will be thoroughly overhauled and repaired. She is built entirely of oak, and competent judges pronounce her one of the strongest and staunchest vessels that ever come to this port; some of her timbers being sufficient for a ship of 1,000 tons.

Legion of Honor.

The Grand Council of the American Legion of Honor, for the State of North Carolina, was instituted in this city Tuesday last by Supreme Commander Jacob Roberts, M. D., of Philadelphia. Twelve Councils were represented, out of 19, embracing a membership of about 700.

The following are the officers for the ensuing year:
P. G. C.—Jos. H. Baker, M. D., of Tarboro, N. C.
G. C.—N. Jacobi, Wilmington.
G. V. C.—R. H. Lyon, Elizabethtown.
G. O.—Jno. A. Collins, M. D., Enfield.
R. S.—J. I. Macks, Wilmington.
G. T.—Jno. G. Snyder, Rocky Mount.
G. Chap.—A. H. McLeod, Lumberton.
G. G.—C. G. Mercer, Bladenboro.
G. W.—Jos. Schwerin, Newbern.
G. S.—Geo. G. Newman, Makelyville.
G. Rep. to Supreme Council—J. H. Baker, M. D., Tarboro.
Alternate—N. Jacobi, Wilmington.
Grand Trustees—C. M. Brown, Washington; J. H. Bell, Tarboro; Henry Morris, Tarboro.
Finance Committee—M. Patterson, Newbern; S. K. Fountain, Rocky Mount; A. Amheim, Greenville.
Committee on Law, Supervision, Appeals and Grievance—Owen Fennell, Jr., Wilmington; J. A. McDowell, Elizabethtown; S. Trueblood, Weldon. The constitution and order of business for the guidance of the Grand Council was adopted.

The Grand Council will, by invitation of Tar River Council, meet in Tarboro on the third Tuesday in July, 1882. The members of the Grand Council went down the river on the Pussopot, yesterday, and expressed themselves well pleased with the trip.

Mr. Editor.

As a law-abiding, tax-paying citizen of the city of Wilmington I respectfully ask permission in the name of the law-abiding portion of the community as well as the helpless women and children in our midst to protest against the present mode of administering punishment to offenders and violators of peace and law, at the City Hall tribunal. You doubtless will fully understand my motives when I assert that the police force are almost afraid to make an arrest for fear of not being properly sustained and supported by the Mayor of the city and when I cite you to the fines of five dollars and two dollars and a half as imposed respectively by His Honor, the Mayor, on Monday morning, upon persons charged with the grave offense of resisting a police officer "in the discharge of his duty," "defying the officers," &c. It is true the Mayor delivered a lecture to the prisoners but we presume that will have little effect and as the disturbances Saturday night came near resulting as I learn in a serious riot and perhaps in blood shed and loss of life it does appear to me that the punishment was not commensurate with the crime and calculated to make the law "A TERROR TO EVIL DOERS."

Perhaps the Mayor imposes a greater valuation upon city finances that he does upon its peace or the lives and property of its citizens; at least one would think so from his liberal reward of ten dollars for the party who wantonly destroyed five or six hundred feet of the city hose.

A TAX PAYER.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

SMITHVILLE.

Hotel Brunswick—The Library Association - Female Glee Club.

SMITHVILLE, N. C., June 21, 1882. The new Hotel Brunswick at Smithville will receive the finishing touches this week, and mine host Perry has fixed up his house in the most complete and comfortable style, everything being new throughout. It is needless to say that the location of this delightful watering place is in the most desirable part of Smithville, and visitors from the upper country will find upon the table everything that comes out of the salt water thereabouts. The billiard table and ten pin alley, bath houses for ladies and one for gentlemen, all will be ready within the next week.

Smithville is going ahead with her library. It was started through the management of some of her best citizens. Dr. W. G. Carter is President; Dr. F. B. Bishop, Vice President; Mr. James Clemons, Secretary; Mr. J. B. Rusch, Treasurer, and Mr. Samuel Doshier, Librarian.

They have now 225 volumes of the most select books in their library, and are constantly adding to the list. The library room is in one of the garrison buildings, delightfully located. I am informed that they will soon throw open their doors to the public visiting Smithville, where a few hours, morning and evening, may be most pleasantly passed in looking over the papers and books.

The boarders at the Hotel Brunswick were most pleasantly entertained last night with a delightful serenade from the Quartette Club. We were aroused about 11 o'clock by the sweet music and showed our appreciation, not by lighting a candle or lamp, because we couldn't find a match, but by applause from the open window.

Should you be a sufferer from dyspepsia, indigestion, malaria, or weakn's, you can be cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Patriot: A well-posted farmer says that the poorest acre of ground in this county will yield this year from 10 to 15 bushels of wheat, while much of the best wheat land will yield 25 bushels. The harvest is going on with great energy. All the farmers say that it is the best crop since 1839.

Greensboro Bugle: Mr. Joseph Worth, who lives near the city, sent us this morning specimens of oats 2 feet 5 inches, timothy 5 feet 4 inches, orchard grass 4 feet 5 inches. A fruit fair, under the auspices of the State Fruit Growers' Association of North Carolina, will be held in Greensboro, North Carolina, August 9th and 10th.

Charlotte Observer: A little negro boy, aged about fifteen years, was yesterday lodged in jail at Concord, on the charge of trying to poison the family of Mr. Jacob Stirewalt, at Mill Hill, in Cabarrus county. For several days none of Mr. Stirewalt's family could drink the coffee placed on their table, on account of its unpleasant taste. The small quantity which some of them drank made them sick, and their suspicions were aroused that the coffee was poisoned. Mr. Ed Stirewalt has had a little negro boy, named Adam, bound to him for several years and as he was suspected of the mischief, he was arrested and a quantity of strychnine was found on his person. He confessed to having put strychnine in the coffee on three separate occasions.

News and Observer: The revenue collections in this district for the week ending last Saturday were $22,259.91. The weather early yesterday morning was warm, but at noon a storm came up. The rain fell in torrents, and there was considerable hail, the stones being of large size. There is now on exhibition at Mahler's jewelry store an elegant silver tea service, six pieces, massive and graceful in style and design, which is to be presented to one of the kindest gentlemen in all the world. It is to be given to a physician of Oxford, Granville county, who has for years attended the orphans at the Orphan Asylum, and has steadily refused to accept any compensation for his services. The silver service bears on its this inscription, engraved by "Mr. Mahler with exquisite taste." Presented to Dr. S. D. Booth by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, A. F. and A. M., in grateful recognition of his services to the orphans, 1881."

Newbern Journal: Mr. E. R. Stanley has sold most of his stock—about 400 shares—in the A. & N. C. Railroad to Mr. Best at $13 a share. A serious affair occurred at Trenton, last Saturday evening, between Mr. George H. McDaniell and J. M. Pollock. It is said they were in a controversy about prohibition—both antis—when Mr. McDaniell drew his knife and stabbed Mr. Pollock in the neck, inflicting a serious wound. On Thursday last two colored boys, Charles Whitfield and Ruffin Smith, living on Col. J. N. Whitford's plantation, engaged in a fight with hoes, when Charles inflicted a blow upon Ruffin's head, which caused his death on Saturday evening. Dr. N. H. Street attended. Charles is still at large. Capt. Page had a conference with Mr. Best on Monday in reference to the railroad running from Core Creek to Trenton and on through Onslow. Mr. Best accepts the propositions offered and will construct the railroads if Jones and Onslow will give bonds for $25,000 each, to run 20 years, and not to be delivered until railroad is completed.
