BOYS

NOW THAT THE WEATHER has settled and Summer is upon us in good earnest WE are inclined to feel interested in the Boys. Very few persons think of the boys, but we do, especially when we've a large stock of Clothing on hand, adapted to their especial use. Parents should not delay the securing of light weight Clothing for their boys. Comfortable garments make

'em a heap more healthy, and a real hearty boy, one with a good appetite, creates a desirable galety about the house, which is essential to happiness. In order to successfully meet this issue and give the boys a lively chance, OTTERBOURG will devote the greater part of this week to the supplying of Clothing for their especial benefit. We have sold entirely out of the 165 Sailor Suits, but will run off Lot No. 2, S. S. at $2.50, former price $4. Also, Light Colored Cassimere Suits, 5 to 10 years, at $3.75, worth $6, and some desirable styles at $4, worth $7. We are anxious to close out entirely our stock in this department, and will do so even at a sacrifice.
