Good bye, Guiteau!
Steamboatmen report the Cape Fear river as very low and continually falling. Navigation has now become quite difficult over the Shoals.

The "fitting" "fitness" for "mashers," is due to the "Tailors and Haberdashers."

Our young friend Dan, Glaven, who has been North for some time past, perfecting himself in his trade of boiler-making, has returned to the city on a visit to his parents.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOB'S.

Agnes Burke, white, was picked up on the corner of Fifth and Church streets, yesterday, in a beastly state of intoxication. She was conveyed to the guard house on a dray and will have a hearing this morning.

A subscriber at Pike, Cumberland county, N. C.; Mr. T. C. Currie, Jr., sends us a cotton bloom, which was picked from his fields, on Tuesday, June 27th. Mr. Currie tells us that the crops are looking well, and the outlook for the farmer is very promising at this time.

Persons leaving the city for summer resorts or for travel can have the DAILY REVIEW mailed to their address for 35 cents per month, or 10 cents per week.

The steamer Vesta has been chartered and will run in connection with the steamer John Dawson to Point Caswell on the Fourth of July.

Library Moonlight Excursion.
The hot weather will render the Library excursion an inviting opportunity to spend a cool and pleasant evening upon the river to-night. The Passport, we understand, will leave her wharf promptly at 7 o'clock and return between 11 and 12 o'clock. There will be music, dancing and refreshments to make the time pass the more pleasantly.

Flies and Bugs.
Flies, roaches, ants, bed-bugs, rats mice, gophers, chipmunks, cleaned off by "Rough on Rats." 15c.

Death From Sunstroke.
The only case of sunstroke we have heard of in this section this season, occurred in this city on Wednesday last, and proved to be fatal. Dick McClammy, colored, had been sent with a note over the railroad, and when he was returning he was overcome by the heat and rays of the sun. He was picked up and carried to his house, but died in about an hour.

Don't Die in the House.
"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, gophers. 15c.

Fire.
Yesterday about 12 o'clock, the roof of a house on Church, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was discovered on fire. Several men in the neighborhood climbed to the roof and extinguished the fire before it could do much damage. The house was occupied by John Willington. The fire caused quite an excitement in the neighborhood, as the building was surrounded by a nest of indammable frame buildings.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, etc. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Pt. C. & C. R. R.
The committees from Pender and Sampson counties and this city, who have for some time past been working in the interest of the Point Caswell & Clinton Railroad, will report on Monday night next. A sufficient amount has been subscribed to build the road, and a call for a meeting of the stockholders will be made in a few days for the purpose of organizing the Company and planning out the work, which will be pushed rapidly to completion.

City Court.
The only case yesterday morning was that of W. McCallister, charged with disorderly conduct. His case was an aggravating one and His Honor imposed a fine of $20 or 30 days. He went below.

For Nantucket.
The families of Messrs. Alex. Sprunt and B. F. Hall, also Mrs. Green Daniel and daughters, left for Nantucket, Mass., yesterday morning, where they will spend the Summer. We wish them a pleasant trip and improved health.

Base Ball.
Two juvenile base ball clubs of this city, named respectively the "Flying Cloud" and the "Twinkling Stars," played a match game of ball yesterday afternoon in the vacant lot between Chestnut and Princess streets. The "Flying Clouds" were the victors, making 21 to the "Twinkling Stars" 10.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 30 1882. NO. 158.

City Court.
The only case yesterday morning was that of W. McCallister, charged with disorderly conduct. His case was an aggravating one and His Honor imposed a fine of $20 or 30 days. He went below.

For Nantucket.
The families of Messrs. Alex. Sprunt and B. F. Hall, also Mrs. Green Daniel and daughters, left for Nantucket, Mass., yesterday morning, where they will spend the Summer. We wish them a pleasant trip and improved health.

Base Ball.
Two juvenile base ball clubs of this city, named respectively the "Flying Cloud" and the "Twinkling Stars," played a match game of ball yesterday afternoon in the vacant lot between Chestnut and Princess streets. The "Flying Clouds" were the victors, making 21 to the "Twinkling Stars" 10.

Personal.
Mr. A. J. Galloway, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Second District, Capt. V. V. Richardson, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Third District, and Col. H. B. Short were in the city yesterday.

Another Drug Store.
Messrs. Munds Bros., of this city, have purchased a drug store on Broadway, in New York city. Mr. W. C. Munds is now in New York running the store and Mr. J. Dickson Munds will leave on Saturday. Mr. J. Theus Munds will run their store here for the next month when Mr. W. C. Munds will return to this city and he will go to New York. We wish the gentlemen every success in their enterprise.

Resigned His Position.
Mr. W. B. Orr has been compelled, on account of failing health, to resign his agency of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company in this city. He will, in a few days, leave for the western part of the State, where he expects to stay during the summer, with a view of recuperating his health. We trust he will return to us in the fall, looking well and hearty.

No More Rooms Wanted.
A day or two ago a gentleman advertised in the REVIEW for a couple of rooms. Well, he got the rooms and asked us yesterday, for heaven's sake, to take the advertisement out of the paper and let this community know that he had rented. He says he didn't know there were so many rooms to rent. Neither did we until persons came in the office of the REVIEW to answer the advertisement.

Thought To Be Insane.
"Dummy," the colored man who has been prowling about, making himself very free with other people's eatables, and who was brought to the city Wednesday evening from Capt. Noble's plantation, was released on the charge of larceny, but was put in jail for safe keeping until his mental condition can be looked into. A commission de lunatico inquirendo will sit upon his case this morning. The poor fellow is evidently of unsound mind, and is thought to be an escaped lunatic from the insane asylum at Goldsboro.

A Mean Theft.
Yesterday forenoon, while the street hands were employed on Eleventh street, between Market and Princess, some scoundrel stole the stockings out of the shoes of some of the laborers. The hands were digging a ditch, and had taken off their stockings and shoes to keep them dry, and when they went for them at dinner time, they found that this robbery had been committed, as above stated. The scamp, or scamps, also stole a very good pipe belonging to one of the hands.

Carraway's Pills.
Dr. W. H. Green, of this city, has assumed the agency for Carraway's liver pills and they may be found on sale at his drug store, on Market street. These pills, be it understood, are free from calomel and the ingredients of which they are made are the purest. They have received some very warm testimonials from well-known citizens of this State, who attest their beneficial effects. Mr. Hugh F. Murray, Judge McKoy's competitor in the Judicial Convention held at Magnolia a few days ago, says "On me they act better than any other pill I have ever tried" and L. S. Read, of a well-known Baltimore drug house, says "I consider them one of the best family medicines in the land."

Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., of Scott's Hill, sends us a cotton bloom plucked on his plantation on Wednesday. It is the second received by us this season from that locality. Mr. Bryan says it is ten days later than his first last season.

Not a drink, not sold in bar-rooms, but a reliable, non-alcoholic tonic medicine, useful at all times, and in all seasons, is Brown's Iron Bitters.

The Excursion—Floral Tribute
The excursion on the Passport yesterday, to Smithville and the Forts, given under the auspices of the Wilmington Light Infantry, was one of the most pleasant of the season. The gallant soldier boys never looked handsomer, and the ladies were even prettier and sweeter than ever. Dancing was the order of the day, and the young folks enjoyed themselves to the utmost extent. Refreshments were served at reasonable prices, and the ices were pronounced unusually fine. The Light Infantry inaugurated a new feature in their excursion yesterday, which lent a charm to the occasion on account of its novelty. The young lady who was the most popular on the boat was presented with a beautiful floral tribute. Each holder of a ticket was entitled to a vote, and after the balloting was finished and counted, the poll holders declared Miss Mary Hill, of Goldsboro, to be the most popular lady and the winner of the prize. Lieut. E. A. Oldham, stepped forward, and in a terse little speech, presented to Miss Hill the tribute, a beautiful bow and arrow made of the choicest flowers which had been awarded her as the belle of the occasion. She received it modestly amid the shouts and applause of the excursion party. Miss Hill is a daughter of Dr. John Hill, of Goldsboro, and is in the city on a visit to her relatives.

We have heard of but one expression of the day's pleasure and that was universal commendation and a desire for a repetition of the Wilmington Light Infantry's excursion.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

K. and L. of Honor.
We learn from a friend at Fayetteville that Eccles Lodge of Knights and Ladies of Honor was installed in that town on Tuesday night last with thirty charter members, by Deputy Supreme Protector M. Kaphan. The following officers were duly elected:
P. P.—J. A. Pemberton.
V. P.—H. B. Horne.
P. P.—J. G. Oehrl.
Sec.—R. T. Scanlin.

Why is Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound like the Mississippi river in a spring freshet? Because the immense volume of this healing river moves with such momentum that it sweeps away all obstacles and is literally flooding the country.
