City Court.

Three cases of disorderly conduct were disposed of yesterday. The offences were slight, and the prisoners were discharged.

Exports Foreign.

Barque Horace Scudder, Capt. Sears, cleared yesterday for Port-au-Spain, Br. West Indies, with 263,000 feet of lumber, valued at $6,061.08, shipped by E. Kidder & Son.

Express to the Sound.

Mr. Pat Larkins, who has the contract for carrying the mail between this city and Wrightsville Sound, will commence to-morrow. In addition to the mail he will run a package express to the Sound. Any orders left on his state at the Purcell House will receive prompt attention. For particulars see advertisement elsewhere.

Another Evidence.

As another evidence of the very large circulation of the DAILY REVIEW We will state that the bracelet which was advertised in vesterday morning's issue, was brought into the office before dark. It was found by a colored man in the available space to-day. Everything employ of Mr. Pat, Larkins, and has been returned to the owner. If you have lost anything or have anything for sale, advertise it in the REVIEW, and you will accomplish your desire.

Attracted Attention.

Acolored woman, evidently non compos mentis, who was dressed up in fantastic colors and continually tripped the light fantastic toe. attracted considera 12 o'clock, in time for the opening of ble attention on the street yesterday afternoon. She seems to be a new importation and one would suppose from her gaudy garb she had escaped from some hostile bands of "Injuns" or that she was some gipsy queen who had Lowndes, of Petersburg, Va., on the powdered with a soot bag.

The following named gentlemen have been appointed delegates to the State Convention, which will be held at Raleigh on the fifth of July:

T. B. Kingsbury, J. G. Burr, B. R. Moore, L. H. Bowden, John C. James, J. I. Macks, Jas. Reilly, A. G. Ricaud, E. A. Oldham.

Alternates-Isaac Bear, G. F. Alderman, M. S. Willard, A. Deumelandt, Wm. H. Griffith, Wilkes Morris, W. L. DeRosset, Jr., T. H. Johnson, J. F. Post, Jr.

Mr. Du Brutz Cutlar, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, tells us that the list of delegates to the Congressional Convention, which will assemble at Warsaw, July 20th, will be ready for publication in a few days.

The French Lottery ..

It is announced that the French Government has authorized another Lottery, so pressing has been the demand for it on the part of the people. The mice, gophers, chipmunks, cleaned ot by "Rough on Rats." 15c. previous one excited unbounded enthusiasm among all classes, and the wide distribution of the numerous prizes horse paid no attention to her and ran gave all ranks a taste of the satisfaction to be had in the easily acquired gains of the Lottery.

Fayetteville Examiner: We learn that on last Tuesday, about noon, Mrs. Susan Mitchell, wife of the late Robert Mitchell, Esq., died at her residence in this town, very suddenly, from apo-plexy, it is supposed. —The many friends of Mr. George G. Myrover will be glad to welcome him again to his old home, after a two years absence Mr. M. has been in the printing and jobbing business in Durham, and now comes here to join Mr. J. E. Garrett in the job printing business. —It is with sincere regret that we chronicle the death of Gen. A. D. McLean, of Harnett county, at his residence near Lillington, on the 16th inst., in the seventy-fitth year of his age.

Monroe Express: On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Dees, wife of Mr. Christopher Dees, who lives in Buford township, met with an accident which resulted in her death on Sunday night following. It seems that after dinner the hands started to the field to work, and when they had got some distance from the house one of the horses broke loose and ran back at full speed toward the house. Mrs. Dees ran out into the road to try to stop it, but the full against her, knocking her about twelve feet, her head striking a stump, producing concussion of the brain. Sunday night, about I1 o'clock, death end-ed her sufferings. Mrs. Dees was about 50 years of age.

News and Observer: At the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, Tuesday evening. Miss Mamie, daughter of Dr G W
Blacknall, was united in marriage to Mr George H Clowes, of Waterbury,
Connecticut. The ceremony was performed in the hotel parlor. At 9 o'clock the excellent band of the hetel played the wedding march, and the bride and groom, preceded by Mr and Mrs Black-nall, entered the room. The ceremony was then performed by Rev E R Rich, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, assisted by Rt Rev T B Lyman, Bishop of the Diocese. At its conclusion Mr and Mrs Clowes held a reception, and at midnight an elegant supper was served. During the evening there was dancing in the spacious ball-room. The bride was elegantly attired, her jewelry being diamonds presented by the groom. Mr and Mrs Clowes left yesterday morning for their New England home, and will visit various summer resorts during the season.

Smithfield Herald: There is a gen-tleman living in Beulah township, Johnston county, who will be 75 years old in November next; has been married three times; has raised 12 children, and during the present Summer has cultivated 17 acres of land in cotton and 16 acres in corn and has hired only ten days of labor, and his crop is in good condition. --- At 1.30 yesterday morning the alarm of fire was given; in a FRESH SUPPLIES OF few minutes hundreds of our citizens were on the spot.
