The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday were 26 bales.

The Easterly winds yesterday played the wild with the fish market.

To night is the date of Oscar Wilde's appearance at the Opera House.

Capt. John W. Hinson, formerly of here yesterday on a brief visit.

The steamer City of Alma, bound for Philadelphia for New Orleans, put into this port yesterday morning for coal. She will probably proceed on her voyage this morning.

A man from the neighborhood of Federal Point, while driving on Third street this morning, went to sleep and fell from the cart, the wheels of which passed over his hips, bruising him pretty severely, but not breaking any bones.

Oscar Wilde will discourse on Decorative Art at the Opera House to-night.

Ice Cream at Smithville.
Persons visiting Smithville and wanting ice cream in the middle of the day, can be furnished by Capt. Fred. Small.
He will send the cream to the steamers in the garrison to those persons who wish it, or will serve it to them at his ice cream saloon, near the Hotel Brunswick. See his advertisement in another column.

You can not show off a neat low cut shoe on a small foot without a pair of fancy half hose from DYER'S.

Slightly Disabled.
Yesterday morning, just after the steamer Minnehaha started for Smithville, she broke her propeller by striking it against a very large log which was in the river just below the dam tree.
She returned to the city and was put on the marine railway, and will be quickly and substantially repaired.

River News.
The only river steamers arriving here yesterday were the Bladen, from Fayetteville, and the John Dawson, from Point Caswell. The Cape Fear is reported as being very low, although the Bladen came over the shoals without lightening. Since her arrival here a rise of about 3 inches has been reported, but at last accounts it was again falling off. Navigation is very slow and difficult.

"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, squirrels. 15c. Depot.

To-Night.
Oscar Wilde, the apostle of aestheti-cism, as our readers are aware, will appear in this city this evening, at the Opera House. Mr. Wilde is now returning North from a Southern tour and will shortly sail for England on his return. He was greeted with large houses at Charleston and Savannah and seems to have been received with much favor in those cities. Reserved seats for the entertainment are now on sale at Dyer's. The usual rates of admission will be charged—$1 for reserved seats, 50 cents general admission and 25 cents to the gallery.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO-B'S.

Not For Darby.
We are assured, on excellent authority, that Judge McKoy will get a very handsome colored vote in Pender county. Our friend, "Judge" Darby, will, it is said, run almost out of sight of his ticket, in the rear. The colored bone and meat of the Republican party say that if they must vote for a Democrat anyhow, they prefer to go in for a genuine, simon pure and not for a pinebeck imitation of the article. They have learned to regard Judge McKoy very highly; they know him to be as unimpeachable as a man as he is incorruptible as a jurist and many of them declare that they will vote for him anyhow, even in the teeth of the party lash. These are facts and may be relied on. That which is true of Pender will also, we opine, be found true of other counties when the music comes.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1882. NO. 163.

Mock-Orange is Poisonous.

Only two years ago several fine cows were poisoned in this city by eating branches of the mock orange (really a cherry and known to botanists as prunus Caroliniana or Carolina cherry) thrown from a yard on Princess street. We noticed yesterday the same thoughtless act repeated in the same neighborhood. The fruit of this tree is the part containing the poison, and it is yet green, but as poisonous as at any time. Such thoughtlessness is unaccountable.

Seaside Park.

A number of gentlemen met yesterday at noon at the office of Messrs. E.
G. Barker & Co., and organized the Seaside Park Improvement Company of Wrightsville Sound. The organization was effected under the general incorporation law of the State.
Messrs. F. W. Kerchner, E. G.
Barker, A. H. Green, H. Vollers and H. C. McQueen were chosen a Board of Directors, and afterwards, at a meeting of the recently elected Board, Col.
F. W. Kerchner was elected Chairman and Capt. W. R. Kenan Secretary and Treasurer.

The objects and plans of the company are withheld for the present, under suggestions from parties interested.

The Opera House will be crowded to hear the great lecturer to-night.

The Vesta.

In referring yesterday to the accident which occurred to the Vesta last Tuesday night, on the return trip from Point Caswell, it was not our desire to in any way reflect upon the capacity of the boat or the care and caution exercised by her owners, Messrs. Love & Bagley, both of whom are practical machinists.
The information was obtained by a RE-VIEW reporter from what he considered reliable authority and the Editor, when he read the proof yesterday morning, at 12 o'clock, thought that the statement was authorized by the owners of the boat.

Messrs. Love and Bagley, both of whom, as we have said, are practical machinists, assure us that the statement contained in yesterday's issue is incorrect in some essential particulars.
They say that the fireman was not drunk and that he did not go to sleep and neglect his duties. The trouble was a very simple one and one likely to occur at any moment on almost any steamer. The thread on the feed pipe was not tight and the water which was raised by the pumps, instead of going into the boiler, went into the boat. As soon as this was discovered, Capt. Bagley, who is the engineer of the boat, as well as part owner, stopped the machinery. This is the simple statement of the facts which have been unnecessarily, and we may add, unkindly, distorted.

We may also add here that no one was discharged for remissness of duty on the occasion, as there was no remission.
The damages were so slight that it cost just 60 cents for the necessary repairs.
The Vesta carries a regular inspector's license, and is subject to inspection at any time.

Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.

One of the leading features of the August number of this popular periodical, is the highly interesting commencement of Marion Harland's new serial, "A Good Fellow." Among the other notable contributions are, "Nantucket," an admirable article by the editor, Rev.
Dr. Talmage, on "Decoration Day—What it is and what it Means," "Street Singing and its Influence on the Reformation in Germany," "Cyprus, Ancient and Modern," "How the Rough House was Founded by Prayer," "The Vocal Music of the Ancient Hebrews," by Alfreton Hervey, etc. MacDonald's serial, "Weighed and Wanting," is continued, and there is an excellent story by Ella Rodman Church entitled, "Hope Chestlewaite's Trouble." There are also exceedingly interesting Sketches and Essays; Poems of great merit by J. Lovie Robertson, General W. H.
Browne, etc., and a most comprehensive and instructive miscellaneous article, "The Home Pulpit," has a sermon by Dr. Talmage, "Do Dreams Mean Anything?" Among the other features of interest are, "The Collection Basket," "Missionary Notes," "Information for the Curious," "The Drift of Religious Comment," "Personal Notes and Comments," "Obituary Notices," etc., etc. The illustrations are numerous and finely executed. This magazine should find its way into every family. The price is only 25 cents a number; $3 a year, postpaid.
Send 25 cents for specimen copy. Address, Frank Leslie, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Letter From an Old Wilming- tonian—The Fourth in the Metropolis.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 5, 1882.

DEAR REVIEW: Thinking that the readers of the REVIEW would like to hear how the 4th of July is spent in and around the metropolis, I have decided to drop you a few lines and give you an outline only, for to describe all the scenes and places of interest and amusement would fill your limited space to its utmost capacity.

As our Christmas begins in the sunny South, so the Fourth of July begins here, the night before, by the firing of cannon crackers, explosion of torpedoes and the incessant firing of firecrackers, which was kept up all night and all day of the Fourth, and ever and anon the "giant crackers," whose explosion seemed to be equal to the thundering roar of our noble old "Cape Fear Artillery," and this thing was kept up till midnight, although it rained considerably before and after midnight.

Early in the morning all boats and trains leaving the city were filled to overflowing, but about noon the sky became overcast and the pleasure-seekers began to drop off, and by 3 or 4 o'clock the rain began to fall, and thereby checked the ardor of even those who had already arrived at the different summer resorts, viz.: Coney Island, Rockaway Beach, Glen Island, Central Park, Prospect Park, Fort Green and hundreds of other places. It is estimated that there were 10,000 people at Rockaway Beach when the rain began to fall about 3 p. m., and at Coney Island I suppose there were a great many more, as it is a much more popular place for pleasure-seekers. There was to have been extensive fireworks at several places last night, which were postponed on account of the extreme damp weather. Those at Manhattan will take place Thursday evening, and those at West Brighton Saturday.

About 4,000 persons attended a picnic at Washington Park, which is on 69th street, N. Y., which was given by J. L. Sullivan, the champion pugilist (as your correspondent believes) of the world, at which he completely used up "Jimmy Elliott," the man who has been blowing about whipping Sullivan.
At Monmouth Park, yesterday, there were seven hotly contested races, each being witnessed by an immense crowd, notwithstanding the rain which was falling, the principal one being the one mile and a half race for 3-year-olds, for the Lorillard Stakes. The stakes, including entries and purse, amounted to about $12,000, and was won by Runnymede, owned by Dwyer Bros. Time, 2:40, but not on a "plank."

At West Brighton there was also some fine racing, including a steeplechase race.

Base ball, yacht racing, rowing of different boat clubs, cricket and kindred games were the order of the day, each resort having from 1,000 spectators upward.

New York and Jersey City have been the scene of one of the largest strikes on record for the past four weeks—that of the freight handlers—who struck for 20 cents per hour. They had an excusion up the Hudson yesterday which was largely attended.

The different trades unions of New York, and the freight-handlers of Jersey City and New York will have a mass-meeting to-night at Union Square, which, the weather permitting, will be a very large one.

I am glad to see that our (for although living in Brooklyn, my affections ever run out for my old native State) Judicial Convention re-nominated those two gentlemen of ability, Judge Mc-Koy and Solicitor Galloway, or "Swift," to use the old term, for each of them will be swift in carrying our standard to victory, and "don't you forget it."

Now, if our Congressional Convention will not go in for any sectional strife, or allow itself to be bulldozed by a faction, as it has done in the past, but select the most available man, everything will be all right, otherwise your correspondent has misgivings as to the result.

The Democracy of this city are organizing for the approaching election and are going in to win.
Yours truly,
T. P. O.

Rescued from Death

William J. Coughlin of Somerville Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and I was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar.
At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the lungs. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better and to-day I feel better than for three years past.
"I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take William Hall's Balsam, and be convinced that Consumption can be cured. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness."
