No City Court yesterday.
Cantelopes three for a quarter for the best.

DYER & SON sell a fine gauze undershirt for 37 1/2 cents.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up but five bales.

Dave Mallett was drunk and down on the streets last night, and was taken in by the police.

The new silver instruments of the Enterprise Band have arrived and were given out to the members yesterday.

The crops all about in this section are looking fine and the farmers have high hopes of bountiful harvests. The season continues very good.

There were four or five burglaries committed in this city last week. Burglaries are becoming entirely too frequent; something ought to be done to stop them.

Beer drinkers were in dilemma yesterday morning. There was little or no beer in the city. A car load was received, however, yesterday afternoon and they immediately took the other horn of the dilemma.

Some sinner, without the fear of justice and utterly void of moral instinct, and who seemed to have no earthly idea of the Eighth Commandment, stole some fine roasting ears from Justice Mills' corn patch on Sunday night.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBS.

To-day the July Drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company will take place. The anxious seekers after fortune, by the near cut, are building air-castles and trying to decide what they will do with the money they draw, and where they will spend the Summer.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBS for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Gone West.
Dr. S. S. Satchwell passed through the city last evening on a mission of professional duty to the mountains for a few days. He has accepted invitations from the State Normal Schools, now in session at Newton, Catawba county, and Franklin, Macon county, to address them on "Health in Families and Schools."

Judge McRae.
On Saturday last His Excellency, Gov. Jarvis, appointed Major James C. McRae, of Cumberland county, Judge of the Superior Court, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. T. Bennett. Judge McRae will take his seat on the Superior Court at Raleigh, beginning with yesterday, and close the session of the Court.

Don't Die in the House.
"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches, bed-bugs, flies, ants, moles, chipmunks, gophers, 15c.

Burglary.
The residence of Mr. John Neimeyer, on the corner of Sixth and Orange streets, was burglariously entered a few nights since and robbed of several articles of clothing, etc. The thief effected an entrance through a back window and made good his escape.

The Committee Report.
A note from a friend in Clinton conveys to us the gratifying intelligence that the reports from all of the Clinton & Point Caswell R. R. Committees were to have been sent in to the Committee at this place yesterday, in which event we suppose that they will arrive to-day. Our correspondent says that the people all along the proposed line are delighted to hear that the company is to be organized so soon and they promise to increase their subscriptions as soon as the organization is effected.

The Tricker Tricked.

A deputy sheriff was "caught napping" yesterday afternoon, near the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets. An urchin thought he would play a trick on the deputy and nailed his coat to the stump of an old tree. The tricker was tricked when the deputy arose in his might with hoop pole in hand and gave the urchin a simon pure article of birch bark tanning.

A Leave of Absence.

Mr. R. C. Taylor, the courteous and clever Superintendent of the National Cemetery, has been granted a leave of absence for thirty days and will take a trip to Minnesota. Mr. Taylor has stuck closely to his business for several years past and of late has been a little under the weather. We trust his trip will be beneficial, and that he will return feeling much better and thoroughly braced up by the change of climate.

A Detective and Burglary.

A detective of this city, in conversation with us yesterday, stated that he would guarantee the city authorities to break up the gang of burglars now operating in this city, in three weeks, if they would pay him for the work. He further stated that if he did not he would not accept one cent for his labors. He narrows his proposition down to "If I don't break up the gang don't pay me." He has twice within the past ten years been employed by the authorities and succeeded in breaking up and bringing to justice several burglars, notably the moonshiners and the lamplighter Boyette.

The Big Sunflower.

Mr. Oscar Wilde, while in the city, paid a visit to the Sound on Sunday, and was the guest of Capt. E. W. Manning. During the day he went to the beach with a party of young gentlemen and took a bath in the ocean, with which he expressed himself as much delighted and refreshed. He was called upon during the afternoon by many of the citizens residing on the Sound, with whom he held a conversation of a couple of hours' duration.

Mr. Wilde took supper with Major C. M. Stedman and returned to the city the same night. He left here yesterday morning for Norfolk, where he was to have lectured last night. He seemed highly pleased with our section of the country and with the people he had met.

A Good Man Departed.

We are pained to announce the death of Rev. William Closs, D. D., a distinguished divine of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and for many years a Presiding Elder in the North Carolina Conference, which occurred on Saturday evening at the residence of his son-in-law, at Enfield. He had been in feeble health for a number of weeks, continually growing worse, and his relatives and friends have had but little hopes of his recovery. His age was about 75 years, and he had been a faithful worker in the Christian ministry for about half a century. His funeral took place at Enfield, at 10 o'clock a. m., yesterday, and his remains were taken to Henderson, N. C., for interment. Dr. Closs was a native of Botetourt county, Va., but came to this State quite early in life, where he remained permanently until his decease. He leaves a wife and two children, a son and daughter, the latter of whom is married. His eldest daughter married Rev. A. A. Boshamer, of the M. E. Church, and died several years ago.

Rev. Frank H. Wood, of the Front Street M. E. Church, left here on Sunday evening to be in attendance at the funeral.

Malaria, Chills and Fever, and Bilious attacks positively cured with Emory's Standard Cure Pills—an infallible remedy: never fail to cure the most obstinate, long-standing cases where Quinine and all other remedies had failed. They are prepared expressly for malarious sections, in double boxes, two kinds of Pills, containing a strong cathartic and a chill breaker, sugar-coated; contain no Quinine or Mercury, causing no griping or purging; they are mild and efficient, certain in their action and harmless in all cases; they effectually cleanse the system, and give new life and tone to the body. As a household remedy they are unequalled. For Liver Complaint their equal is not known; one box will have a wonderful effect on the worst case. They are used and prescribed by Physicians, and sold by Druggists everywhere, or sent by mail, 25 and 50 cent boxes. Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, best ever made, only 15 Cents. Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York. Sm d&w.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBS.

STATE NEWS.

Northern Journal: On the 4th of July Mr. Zeph Marshall, Dr. Mumford and James Frazzle were out fox-hunting with one dog near Piney Green, Onslow county, and after jumping, the fox turned the tables and actually run the dog about half a mile, back to where the hunters were waiting, who in turn shot the fox.

Norwood Gleaner: While Mr. Ephraim Huneycutt and family were away from home last Thursday, his house was entered by thieves, who broke open his trunk and stole $55 which he had in a pocket-book in the trunk. The pocket-book also contained some valuable papers which were not taken.

Roxboro News: No man can be nearer to the hearts of the "old soldiers" of this county than Gen. Mat Ransom, a noble officer, a brave man, a kind friend; he is thought of by our people as an idol. And many an old comrade will grasp his hand on the 28th with emotion and pleasure, thinking in their hearts, God bless Ransom.

Rocky Mount Reporter: On Sunday next, the Rev. Mr. Primrose will install Rev. R. A. Wailes as pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place. The heaviest rain we have had this season fell here last Monday evening. Reports are current that in some sections near here, the rain was accompanied by considerable wind, which blew down the cotton and corn, damaging it to no little extent.

Henderson Gold Leaf: The prevailing warm weather and recent rains of the past week have been as favorable to growing crops as could be desired. Cotton has taken a fresh start, and is coming out wonderfully. Corn vigorous and healthy-looking, and is growing finely; tobacco is looking well, and all other crops ditto. Indeed, the reports from all sections of this immediate neighborhood are abundantly indicative of a propitious season.

Rockingham Spirit: Mr. Thomas Cowan, of Hamlet, has a peculiar chicken, it being one-half duck. Part of the time it quacks like a duck, at other times it chirps like an ordinary chicken. It walks erect like a man, and is certainly a strange fowl. — A colored man by the name of Amos Nicholson, died suddenly on the sidewalk, near W. T. Covington & Co's store, on Thursday evening. About an hour before his death he stated that he was going to die, and that he was ready and willing to go, being fully prepared for the awful change. He was apparently about 30 years of age.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. J. B. Williamson, of Providence township, this county, sowed one bushel of wheat and realized therefrom forty-two bushels. — The youngest bride that we have ever heard of, is Miss Catoe, who was married just across the South Carolina line, the other day, to Mr. Thos. Payne. Miss Catoe's age is 11 years and 7 months, and her husband is bowed under the weight of only 20 years. It was a "sure enough" marriage, a regularly ordained minister of the Gospel performing the ceremony. — It has been a long time since our city was so sadly shocked as it was yesterday evening at sundown, as word went from mouth to mouth that Laban Williams, a bright, clever and popular boy of Charlotte, while out horseback riding with a lady friend, had been thrown from his animal and killed. The accident occurred just beyond the Air-Line depot, on the road to Biddle Institute, at the spot where the bridge spans Town creek.

News and Observer: Mr. John Shortridge, of Hamlet, died July 5, after an illness of four months. He was a manufacturer and an energetic man. Camp Russell, the ownership of which has been since 1877 a matter of dispute between the State and the United States, is to be turned over to the State, to which, indeed, it rightfully belongs. — Arms were yesterday shipped to the Sampson Light Infantry, at Clinton, a new company, which will parade at the execution of Philip Faison, colored, next Tuesday at that place, its services having been requested. By the way, it is said this will be the first execution on any day save Friday, in North Carolina. — The Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College, at their meeting, in this city, yesterday, decided not to elect a president for the college at this time, but appointed a committee of five, consisting of Rev. Dr. Skinner, Rev. Dr. Huffman, W. H. Pace, L. L. Polk and C. M. Cooke, to correspond with different persons, and at a suitable time to call the board of trustees together, when they will have reliable information before them to act on.

We learn that on yesterday, James H. Harris, "of color," sent a note by a white messenger to Governor Jarvis proposing a joint discussion with him before the people of North Carolina. What a spectacle it would be to see the Governor of North Carolina going around the State holding joint discussions with a negro! What would the people think about it? Are they ready for such equality as this? We think not. This, however, is what the negro Harris now claims. The Governor's answer to the white messenger who bore the negro's letter was that he had no reply to make. The negro's messenger to the Governor was J. C. Gorman, late Adjutant General of the State during Radical rule. The "General" we are told, was a gallant Confederate soldier in days gone by; now he is a negro's messenger! What a fall! What next?

Nervous debility, the curse of the American people, immediately yields to the action of Brown's Iron Bitters.
