The Excursion To-day.

The excursion down the river to-day on the Passport, under the auspices of Germania Lodge K. of P., will doubtless be one of the events of the excursion season. The committee have perfected all of their arrangements for the comfort and pleasure of their guests, and will continue to do all in their power to make the excursion surpass the most sanguine expectations of its projectors.

Installation of Officers.

D. D. G. C. John J. Fowler, assisted by P. C., W. S. Warrock, installed the officers of Stonewall Lodge, K. of P., No. 1, on Monday night. The newly installed officers are as follows: C. C.-T. D. Meares.

V. C.-W. W. Hodges. P.-Jas W. King. M. A .- J. F. Woolvin, I. G .- Scanlin. O. G .- W. K. Bell.

St. George and St. Andrew's.

The St. George and St. Andrew's Society, with their invited guests, excurted down the river yesterday on the steamer Passport. The little steamer was gaily dressed with the signal code, and examined the steamer Minnehaha. and carried the English flag at her mast We are told she was pronounced by head. The committee of the Point Caswell & Cliuton Railroad met in this city, To Builders and others-Go to Jaco- Monday night, and determined to call a meeting for organization. The company will be formed in this city Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, in the Mayor's office. The work of constructing the road will be pushed as rapidly as possible. We are pleased to see that the road is now a fixed fact and trust it is but the beginning of the building of local feeders for our city.

The Standard to be Raised.

We understand that it is the intention of the Chairman of the School Districts in this city to employ a competent and experienced male teacher for the schools of this city, who shall have charge of all of the public institutions of learning. It is their desire that the standard and discipline of the schools be raised to the maximum, and it is their opinion that it can not be done more effectually or quicker than by employing a male superintendent who will have charge of all the schools. They have given much thought to the matter, and have their eye on a gentleman of ability and expe-

Another Disciple.

Capt. Frank Wilkinson paid his respects to Oscar Wilde on Sunday night. Mr. Wilde was seated in a highly decorated chair in his suite of rooms at the Purceil House with his colored valet D. C. standing behind him with a huge Japanese fan in the shape of a sunflower. N. C. Capt. Wilkinson was announced and was ushered into the room with great pomp and dignity. He wore a pair of tarpaulin knee breeches, a new sailor shirt profusely decorated with small sunflowers and a big red onion pinned over his heart. He had on a pair of ten-cent pink stockings and No. 12 gum shoes. Capt. Wilkinson approached and said, "I am the first official officer of the Minnehaha, and I carry a master's license. I've come to chat you a little about this great and glorious work of de-corative art. but I must tell you first that if, when you come on the stage, you would hard-a-starboard your helm, and luff up to the port of the leeward side of the stage, the exeunt door, you know, sorter like this"--here he struck an attl-The fortunes of the Crescent City in a tude which caused such a broad grin ry point of view, were at a very low esb from the colored valet that the Japanese in 1868; the great terror of yellow fever fan would hardly cover his mouth rendered a residence extremely unde- "Well, you see that 'ud be better. The Crops.

Mr. Jno. R. Paddison, of Point Caswell, was in the city yesterday and called to see us. He brought some yery gratifying information relative to the crops in his locality. He says that such crops were hardly ever seen there before. Corn and cotton are both just splendid and promise an abundant yield and the farmers are happy over the prospects.
