M E Church Sunday School-Excursion BROWN & RODDICK-Grand Annual Clearing Sale WILMINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY-Second Grand Excursion KERCHNER & CALDER BROS-Heavy and Light Groceries Seventh Sunday after Trinity. Day's length 14 hours and 10 minutes. It rained every day during the past week. The days are growing perceptibly shorter. Sunset this afternoon at 11 minutes past 7 o'clock. The K. S.'s meet to-day all dressed in style by DYER. No interments last week in Oakdale and none in Bellevue. Four children and one adult interred last week in Pine Forest Cemetery. Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S. Some very fine watermelons were in market here yesterday. The best sold at 25 cents. The total rainfall in this city for the week ending with yesterday amounted to 4 1/2 inches. The heavy rains will keep the street force busy during the next two weeks repairing damages. Do not destroy the sunflowers. They absorb much of the malarial poison of the atmosphere. The Register of Deeds issued marriage licenses during the past week for three couples, all colored. The moon completed her first quarter this morning and she has scarcely been visible during the week. Mr. John D. Bellamy has returned to the city, after an absence of several weeks in the upper part of the State. We had another hard shower of rain yesterday and it looks at this writing as though it might rain every day this week. Alex. Henderson, colored, had a fit and fell on the street, on the corner of Front and Walnut streets, last night, about 9 o'clock. He was carried home on a dray. Mr. S. W. Holden advertised in last Sunday's REVIEW a reward for a sledge which he had lost and by 7 o'clock on Monday morning it was found and in his possession. Mr. Holden authorizes us to say that he ascribes its recovery entirely to the advertisement inserted in the REVIEW. Skinny Men. "Wells Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1. Depot J. A. C. Munds.

Personal. Rev. J. C. Hiden, D. D., formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church here, is in the city, the guest of Mr. William Larkins. He will preach in the First Baptist Church, corner of Fifth and Market streets, this morning.

Cotton. The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with yesterday foot up 123 bales against 632 bales for the week ending July 25, 1881, a decrease this week of 509 bales. The receipts to date foot up 136,105 bales against 118,910 bales to July 25, 1881, an increase this year of 17,195 bales.

I. O. of G. S. and D. of S. The semi-annual session of Grand Lodge No. 2, I. O. of G. S. and D. of S., will be held at New Bern on the 25th inst. It is a benevolent organization of colored people of both sexes, and it is expected that a large delegation from this city will be in attendance.

Unmailable. The following unmailable matter remains in the postoffice in this city: Mr. Turner Odan, Jackson, N. C.; Bob Tate Dunson, Little Swamp, Bladen county, N. C.; Mr. Ward Reynolds, Pinegrove, Ga.; Miss Millie A. Bennett, Nelson county, Va.; T. J. Hicks, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mary E. Curren, Park ave., Baltimore, Md.

Exports Foreign. The Br. brig Buda, Capt. Inness, cleared yesterday for Rotterdam with 1,354 casks spirits turpentine and 1,000 barrels resin, valued at $30,306.32, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing, & Co. The Nor. barque Volentien, Capt. Olsen, cleared yesterday for London with 1,560 casks spirits turpentine, valued at $34,080, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Marchison & Co.

Needs Attention. Our shell road to the Sound is probably the prettiest in the United States, but it is awful on horse-flesh getting to it. The condition of the Eastern part of Market Street leading to the turnpike is fearful, and should receive prompt attention. There is about a half mile that needs ballasting. We respectfully call the attention of the city authorities to these facts.

Another. We understand that by request of a number of those who participated in the recent excursion given to Smithville and the Forts by New Hanover Tent No. 57, I. O. of Rechabites, it was decided at the last meeting of the Tent to give another excursion at an early day, due announcement of which will be made in advertisement. All of the pleasant features of the first excursion will be reproduced, with some new ones and we trust that the attendance will be large.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Festival and Presentation. We understand from a member of the Order that the members of Stone Ezel Lodge of Good Samaritans will have a festival at the Market House, corner Campbell and Fourth streets, this week. A pleasant and prominent feature of the entertainment will be the presentation of a gold-headed cane to the two most popular male members of the order and a handsome silver cup to the most popular female member of the organization. The voting will take place to-morrow (Monday) and the presentations are to be made on the following night, Tuesday. The prizes, which are very handsome, may be seen at Mr. Harris' news stand. Among the prominent candidates for the cane, brought forward by their friends, are Valentine Howe, Jos. E. Sampson, Joshua Bowen, W. A. Williams and Cato Waddell.

Painful Accident. Master Daniel A. Rowan, aged 14, employed at Messrs. Altaffer, Price & Co., Sash and Blind Factory, had his left hand badly lacerated yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock. He was running the re-ripper sawing machine when his hand slipped from a piece of lumber which he was sawing, and struck the saw, cutting a gash about one inch in length, severing the bone of the little finger and the one next to it, and slightly grazing the bone of the third finger. Dr. Love was summoned and dressed the wound. It is thought that he will lose none of his fingers. Dan is a clever lad and we hope that he will recover rapidly. He was one of the route boys of the REVIEW a few weeks ago.

Col. Green. There was considerable disappointment expressed here yesterday when it was ascertained that Col. Green, the next Congressman for this District, would not come to Wilmington at all, at present, but that he had gone home. There are very many here who would be glad to make his acquaintance, and we hope that he will come down and see us, and give us a talk before long.

Military Excursion. The Second Grand Excursion of the Wilmington Light Infantry will be given on the steamer Passport, to Smithville and the Forts, on Wednesday next. The company will be joined at Smithville by their namesakes from Sumter, and there will be target shooting for prizes. The ladies should attend largely on this occasion, as it promises to be an unusually pleasant affair.

The Stolen Cotton. The cotton found in the bags captured by Officer Everett, on the night of the 21st inst., has been identified as the property of Messrs. Woody & Currie, and was stolen from their lower warehouse in the southern portion of the city. One of the thieves, who escaped at the time of the capture, is still at large, but it is hoped that he may soon be gathered in and done for in such a way that he will have no opportunity for stealing any more cotton, or anything else, for awhile, at least.

Talk about health resorts: If people want to live long and die happy, they should come to Wilmington and spend the Summer. The tale is told in a few words: not one white person, male or female, child or adult, was interred here during the week ending with yesterday. We have reason to believe that Mr. Frank H. Darby will, at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen, to be held on the first Monday in next month, tender his resignation as City Attorney, which is as it should be.

The large brick house on the Northwest intersection of Market and Third Streets, which is to be occupied this Fall by Dr. A. J. DeRossett, is undergoing some exterior repairs. Some one made an attempt early yesterday morning at burglarizing the premises of a gentleman residing on Fifth street, near the M. E. Church, but was foiled and frightened off.

The steamer Minnehaha will make a trip to Smithville, and return, to-day. Fare for the round trip 50 cents.

Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Tribon, sailed hence yesterday for New York.

Only two bales cotton received at this port yesterday.
