INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
A. H. WELLS—Comfort
MUNN'S BROS.—Druggists
C. W. YATES—Just Received
MINNEHAHA—Moonlight Excursion
HARRIS—BREAD—Will it Rain or Shine To-morrow?

Steamship Buconator, Capt. Tribon, hence, arrived at New York yesterday. A large four-masted iron-hull barque is in the river, on her way up to this city. We understand that the Seaside Park Hotel at Wrightsville, is open for the reception of guests. We learn from steamboatmen that there is a slight rise in the river with a prospect of a larger one.

Mr. J. A. McCallum, who left here in 1879, to nurse the yellow fever sufferers at Memphis, has returned to the city. During the epidemic, it was reported here that Mr. McCallum had died of the fever.

An old goat, the property of Mr. W. M. Drew, who lives in Brunswick county, about seven miles from this city, has astonished the natives by giving birth to four kids. The mother goat and the four young Sir Williams are flourishing.

Capt. F. M. James will leave for his old home at Nantucket on Saturday. He will be gone about a month. During his absence his duties as a health officer will be attended to by Mr. Archie Alderman. We wish him a pleasant trip.

City Court. Scipio Hill, charged with being drunk, was sentenced to one day's confinement in the city prison. Alice Hall, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $3 or six days in the city prison. She was sent below in default of payment of the fine.

The "monarch" shirt fits well, looks well, wears well, and sells well. It is kept by Jno. DYER & SON. Those of our citizens who would like to indulge in a moonlight excursion down the river will have an opportunity to do so to-night on the steamer Minnehaha. A good band of music has been engaged for dancing. No objectionable persons will be allowed on board. See adv. elsewhere for prices, etc.

The family excursion to be given on the Pasport to-morrow will be well attended. Capt. Harper has made every provision in order for his guests to enjoy themselves, and has arranged with the clerk of the weather for a pretty day. The young people will dance and the old ones can enjoy themselves in any manner they may see fit.

Personal. Rev. J. B. Taylor, D. D., of the First Baptist Church of this city, left here yesterday, to be absent a short time. He joins some friends at Chautauque, and will then visit relatives in Baltimore and Richmond. Dr. Taylor will be absent some two or three weeks. His pulpit will be supplied during his absence.

His Answer. A boy, about 12 years of age, was about to be put on the witness stand in a J. P. Court in this city, and before swearing him the Magistrate, in order to ascertain if he knew the nature of an oath, propounded several questions, to which the youth made satisfactory replies. Finally he was asked, "Where do bad people go to?" and he promptly answered, "Down de river fishing."

Kleptomania. Four little rascals, Willie Taylor, Tug Moore and his brothers are annoying merchants very much by the disease with which they seem to be afflicted, viz: kleptomania. They have been paying their respects to Mr. C. W. Yates, but on yesterday two of them were caught and tied. While Mr. Love, the clerk, was in the back part of the store, one of them sneaked in the door and stole a book strap. A gentleman on the opposite side of the street saw the young rogue when he took the strap. He went across and caught the boy and turned him over to Mr. Love, who had him tied and carried him to his parents, who promised to give the thief about as much strap as he could stand.

Persons recovering from wasting disease, such as malaria, fevers, etc., will be greatly benefited by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters, a true tonic.

Personal. The Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates, who is much beloved in this city, arrived here on Tuesday night on a visit to Mr. H. M. Bowden. Dr. Yates will rusticate for a couple of weeks at Mr. Bowden's summer residence at Wrightsville Sound. We trust the salt air will be as beneficial to him as we know his visit will be pleasant to himself and friends.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Festival and Presentation. The festival at the Market House, corner of Fourth and Campbell streets, under the auspices of Stone Ezel Lodge of Good Samaritans, came to a close Tuesday night. The presentation of the gold-headed cane to the most popular male member and a silver cup to the most popular female member was the interesting feature of the occasion.

The cane was presented to Jos. E. Sampson and the cup to Fannie E. Howe, the wife of "Ruff" Howe. J. C. Scott, we learn, was the originator of the presentation scheme and we are pleased to know the festival was a financial success.

Death of Col. McLean. We regret to learn, as we do from the Robesonian, of the death, at his residence near Lumberton, on last Saturday, of Col. Nathaniel McLean, the immediate cause of his death being hemorrhage of the lungs.

Col. McLean was born in Robeson county in 1823. He graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1849 and began the practice of his profession in Warrenton. In 1861 he volunteered as a private in the First N. C. Regiment and rose by gallant and meritorious conduct to the position of Lieutenant-Colonel. At the close of the war he entered upon the practice of law in his native county and has resided there ever since. He was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1865-66 and was afterwards Register of Deeds and at one time County Attorney.

Black Turning White. There is a colored woman in this city who might be termed a lusus naturae. Fifteen years ago, white spots began to appear on her body, and she looked as though she might have been scalded. Since then the spots have grown larger and larger, until to-day she is almost as white as any Caucasian to be found. She still has some streaks of dark skin on her face, but they are rapidly disappearing. When she first began to "turn white," she was put on exhibition in this city by a party of amateur showmen, who advertised her as the "Leper Woman." She is a queer looking creature, and her change of color is attributed to a skin disease. We did hear the technical term for the disease and it sounded to us like "physcoranicomicue." We do not vouch for the correctness of the spelling of the name of the disease, but any one can pronounce it to suit himself.

Our Fruits and Vegetables. There seems to have been a great deal of attention paid to the cultivation of fruits and vegetables of all kinds by horticulturists in this section of the country during the past decade. There has been a marked improvement in the size and quality of the vegetables raised. The quality of peaches which we get now is almost incomparable with the small, knotty, worm-eaten peach which was grown about here ten years ago. Strawberries have been raised to a higher state of culture, and the flavor is unsurpassed by any we have ever seen grown elsewhere. Notwithstanding the fact that most fruits have received considerable attention and a marked improvement is noticeable, there has been no perceptible improvement in the size or flavor of watermelons. The melons raised in Georgia far surpass those raised in this State. Our melons are susceptible of a higher state of cultivation; in fact, they are not cultivated about here. The seed are planted and the vines are left to take care of themselves. Just here we will ask if there seedless melons have been raised in this section this season? It is a well-known fact among dealers that North Carolina fruits and vegetables are more sought after at the North and command a higher price than those from other States. Let our farmers pay more attention to the cultivation of melons and see if the standard cannot be raised.

Skinny Men. "Wells Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1. Depot Jas. C. Munds.

Narrow Escape. We learn that three little boys, while in bathing at Green's mill pond a few days ago, were attacked by a large alligator. The boys saw the monster coming towards them and swam to a batteau, into which they climbed for safety. The alligator kept playing around the trail craft and tried to capsize it but was shot from the shore by some one who was luckily at hand.

Being Overhauled. The Little Giant has been taken apart and is being thoroughly overhauled. The wheels and running gear are to receive a new suit of paint, and when she is brought out and the boys have their new uniforms, then look out for a strut which will put my Lord Roscoe to the blush.

Judge McKoy Accepts. MAGNOLIA, June 27th, 1882. Hon. Almond A. McKoy. DEAR SIR:—We, the undersigned, have been appointed a committee to inform you of your nomination for Judge of the Third Judicial District by the Democratic Convention, this day assembled, and request your acceptance of the same.

JOHN E. WOODARD, B. H. BURN, E. W. KERR. CLINTON, July 18th, 1882. Messrs John S. Woodard, B. H. Burn and E. W. Kerr. GENTLEMEN:—Yours of the 27th June, informing me of my nomination for the position of Judge of the Third Judicial District, would have been answered sooner, but I deemed proper to await the assembling of the State Convention.

I was very much gratified by the indorsement of your Convention, composed of so good a people. With pleasure I accept the nomination. Accept my kindest wishes for yourselves. Your obedient servant, ALLMOND A. MCKOY.

STATE NEWS. Newbern Journal: We learn from passengers on the down train last night that there were signs of a bloody affray at Falling Creek station. A negro was lying on the side of the road weltering in blood, and appeared to have been stabbed in several places. Oxford Torchlight: The farmers of Granville are carried away with the yield of the wheat crop. It goes out beyond their most hopeful anticipations.

Granville's big crop or rather the effort to make it has certainly swept the stables and pastures of old horses. We are told that as many as 12 have been lost from overwork and short rations on a single farm in one of the townships. Greensboro Patriot: Rev DeWitt Talmage has engaged with Messrs. Nicholson and Willis to lecture in Greensboro on the 15th of March, 1883. This was the earliest date it was possible to obtain.

On eight acres of ground Mr H. H. Tate, of this place, has raised this year 291 bushels of wheat. On one-third of an acre, where special effort was made, he realized 30 bushels of wheat. We remember to have heard of no better farming anywhere.

News and Observer: It appears now all sections of the State have been visited by rains. At the Warm Springs there are now 532 guests registered, and about 50 arrivals is the daily average, it is reported. A compliment in the shape of a nice suit of black clothes, was bestowed upon the Rev. James B. Ballard on Saturday, while in attendance on the North Carolina Local Ministers' Conference in Raleigh. Mr. Ballard is in his eightieth year, and has been for over 42 years a faithful local Methodist minister. Six years ago he was crippled, and has since been on his crutches.

Durham Plant: The section of country around Staggsville was visited Friday evening last by a severe and destructive storm. In width it did not cover more than a half mile, but wherever it struck trees were torn up by the roots, fences badly damaged. Willie Glenn, sixteen years of age, son of Robert Glenn, living on Elerby Creek, about five miles from town, was accidentally killed on Thursday evening last. He was in a field where a dog had caught a hog, and in attempting to drive off the dog with the butt of his gun, its contents were discharged in his breast, ending his life in one hour.

Charlotte Observer: Chas. R. Jones, Esq., of this city, has been elected representative from North Carolina to the Supreme Lodge of the new order of Knights of the Golden Rule. Mr. Dick Caldwell, an old, and at one time, influential lawyer of the Rowan and Stanly bars, was found dead in his room at Albemarle, last Thursday. He had gone to his room that morning to take his usual nap and a servant entering at dinner time, found Mr. Caldwell lying on the bed, dead. The cause of his death is supposed to have been apoplexy. He was a son of the late Judge Caldwell, of Salisbury.

The Presbyterian church in Concord has been condemned as unsafe and its doors are closed and will remain so until the trouble is remedied. A Philadelphia architect examined the roof of the building and pronounced it to be dangerous, whereupon the church board met and decided to close the church until a new roof can be put on. The church is a large brick building and was erected six or seven years ago.
