HEINBERGER—Will it Rain or Shine Tomorrow?

No City Court yesterday.
There is plenty of cider in the country this year.
"We told you so," DYER keeps everything in the latest style.
Only three bales of cotton were received at this port yesterday.

The special term of the Superior Court for Duplin county, for the trial of civil suits, convened on Monday.

Unavailable letter remains in the Postoffice in this city addressed to W.
W. Owens, Marion, S. C. and Geo.
Hammonds, Columbia, S. C.

Mr. Thos. E. Bond, who has been recuperating his health in the mountains, has returned to the city and we are pleased to see him looking better.

S. H. Barrett's big moral circus is billed to show in Goldsboro on the 26th inst. "We learn there was one of Mr.
Barrett's advance agents in the city yesterday."

The Spanish tugboat Gde Zalado, Capt. Burley, from New York for Havana, put into this port yesterday for coal. She proceeded on her voyage in the afternoon.

For the past two days very heavy rains have fallen along the line of the W. & W. R. R. Cornfields in some places are overflowed and farmers are beginning to feel anxious about their crops.

Through a letter received from Ralph this morning, written by Capt. G.
L. Dudley to friends here, we understand that Gov. Jarvis will speak at Smithville next Friday night, and in Wilmington on Monday night.

There will be a reunion of the surviving members of the Duplin Rifles, at Kenansville, to-day. A very large crowd is expected to be in attendance.
Cols. Green and Bennett, it is expected, will address the crowd.

The British barque Mersey, which has been at quarantine, came up to the city yesterday. She has a clean bill of health. She is the first four-masted vessel ever in this port, and is besides the largest sailing craft which has ever laid alongside of our wharves.

Exports Foreign.
The Nor. barque Viea, Capt. Neilsen, cleared yesterday for Queenstown, Ireland, or Falmouth, Eng., for orders, with 1,700 casks spirits turpentine and 1,010 barrels rosin, valued at $35,600, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Monthly Exports.
From the Custom House we learn that 24,559 barrels of rosin, valued at $48,142; 462,866 gallons of spirits turpentine, valued at $201,366; and 231,000 cords of lumber, valued at $5,030, were shipped from this port to foreign ports during the month of July.

A Few Words.
We rise to remark that the gentleman who advertised in yesterday's issue of the REVIEW has secured the rooms he desired. This is done at his request—Six responses were made to his advertisement yesterday before 3 o'clock, and two after that hour. Likewise we will take occasion to remark here that the canary birds advertised in Sunday's REVIEW have been recovered. We are sorry to say, however, that the child's oral necklace, advertised in the same issue as lost, has not yet been found.
So that necklaces are still in order while canary birds and rooms are not.
And while on this subject we will add a few words for the benefit of advertisers in general, repeating what we have said on a previous occasion:

The DAILY REVIEW has the largest circulation in this city 25 per cent. larger than that of any other daily newspaper whenever.

All of which we are willing to have tested.

Decline of Man.
Nervous Weakness, Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility, cured by

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1882. NO. 182.

The Big Excursion.

The excursion from Goldsboro and vicinity will arrive here to-day about noon. We learn that the excursion party will number between 400 and 500.
A great many merchants will take part in the excursion, and we trust that the merchants of this city will convince them that it is to their interest to trade with Wilmington.

The Apple Crop.

Persons from all sections of the State tell us that the apple crop never was as large as it is this year. We learn there is one farmer in Duplin county who has about three hundred bushels of apples lying on the ground in his orchard. We trust the farmers will realize handsomely from their fruit crop, but are fearful that they will not do so. It is a very easy matter to dry or evaporate apples, and there is always a good market for North Carolina fruit at the North.

The W. L. I.

The armory of the Wilmington Light Infantry has been recently fitted up and is now supplied with papers, magazines etc. Portraits of most of the old captains of the company adorn the walls. The company is now uniforming its new members and will soon be able to parade with more than a corporal's guard. We do sincerely hope that the members of this time honored organization will shake off their lethargy and turn out with the company on parades, and cease rendering trivial excuses for failures to do so.

A Novelty.

Mr. E. S. Warrock, the Job Printer, has shown us a sample copy of a beautiful "Annual" for the year 1883. It is a 48-page book, illustrated with 50 fine wood engravings, including several of the Western part of this State, with descriptions and other entertaining reading; has a calendar and is finished with a handsome illuminated cover. He will issue an edition of 1,000 copies.
This is something entirely new in this section, and will be an attractive and useful medium of advertising. Mr. W. has already disposed of front cover and title pages, both inside cover pages and several others. His rates are very low, as follows: One page $6; one-half page $4; one-fourth page $2.50—size of page 4x7 1/2 inches. He shows his faith in advertisers by saying he does not want pay until the work is completed.
We hope and predict for him success in this new enterprise. The book can be seen at his office.

Fire Districts.

For the convenience of those of our citizens who are not familiar with the boundaries of the different fire wards of this city, we again publish them as follows:

- First District—All that portion of the city North of the W. & W. R. R.
- Second District—All that portion of the city East of Fifth street and between Market street and the W. & W. R. R.
- Third District—All that portion of the city West of Fifth street and between Market street and the W. & W. R. R.
- Fourth District—All that portion of the city East of Fifth street and south of Market street.
- Fifth District—All that portion of the city West of Fifth and South of Market streets.
- Sixth District—All that portion of the city West of the Cape Fear River.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

The Excursionists.

The excursion train, on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, is expected to arrive here at about noon today, and will bring representative business men from the line of the road named, as well as from the North Carolina and the Atlantic & North Carolina roads. It will be a good opportunity for our merchants to cultivate the acquaintance of a class of business men who have heretofore seldom visited our city, and we are glad to learn that our people have taken the matter in hand to offer for our visiting friends a cordial welcome to Wilmington. We learn that a fund has been raised and a committee appointed to wait upon the visitors and entertain them while here. They will visit the Sound this afternoon, returning to-night, and to-morrow will be passed in extending the courtesies of and in those many urbanities for which our people are pleasantly noted. The excursionists will probably leave for their homes to-morrow night.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the month of July foot up 220 bales, as against 1,388 bales for the same month in 1881, a decrease this month of 1,168 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 136,137 bales, as against 119,060 bales to same date last year, an increase this year of 17,077 bales.

Harbor Master's Report.

The arrival of vessels at this port during the month of July, as we learn from the books of Capt. Joseph Price, the harbor master, foot up as follows:

AMERICAN.
Steamships, 4	3,380 tons.
Schooners, 11	3,365 "
Total, American 15	6,745 "
FOREIGN.
Barques, 8	2,962 tons.
Brigs, 6	1,670 "
Total, Foreign 14	4,632 "
Grand total, 29	11,377 "

Rev. Dr. Yates.

Rev. Dr. Yates, of Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, preached for his old congregation at Front Street M. E.
Church Sunday morning from the text "Be ye faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life."

The faithful man was so presented that the hearer could not fail to follow him closely along life's way amidst its difficulties, rising higher and yet higher till the crown—an emblem of royalty—is placed upon the victor's head. And then life in all its fullness was presented in the grandness of thought. It was a sermon calculated to awaken within the hearer stronger resolutions to be faithful—faithful at all times, leaving results with God. Dr. Yates is one of the best thinkers and closest reasoners in the North Carolina Conference.

For tremulous, wakefulness, dizziness, and lack of energy, a most valuable remedy in Brown's Iron Bitters.
