

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second class matter.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 3, 1882.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

REPRESENTATIVE-AT-LARGE: RICHARD T. BENNETT, OF ANSON COUNTY. FOR CONGRESS—THIRD CONG. DISTRICT. COL. WHARTON J. GREEN, OF CUMBERLAND CO.

The New York Sun very wittily says: "The issue of the campaign of 1884 seems likely to be a question whether the spirit that governs the country shall be Jeffersonian or Robertsonian."

In the House, yesterday, a resolution was adopted to adjourn to-morrow (Saturday) at noon. The Senate is yet to hear from, but our night dispatches may perhaps tell of its concurrence.

If the Winter wheat in this country turns out as well as the Spring wheat, it is estimated that the yield will exceed the enormous crop of 1880, which was 468,000,000 bushels.

French's Hotel, in New York, a downtown resort known to many of our readers, was closed on the 1st inst., last Wednesday, because of a disagreement as to the lease between the owners of the property, the brothers, T. J. and Chas. T. French.

The veto of the River and Harbor bill was called for, not only by Republican and Independent papers at the North, but by Democratic papers at the South.

A Virginia judge has refused to allow bail to Mr. Garland, who shot Mr. Addison lately, in a quarrel about a young lady, and who was before the judge on a writ of habeas corpus.

The President, in his veto message, says:

As the citizens of one State find that the money to raise which they, in common with the whole country, are taxed, is to be expended for local improvements in another State, they demand similar benefits for themselves and it is not unnatural that they should seek to indemnify themselves for such use of the public funds by securing appropriations for similar improvements in their own neighborhood.

Exactly so. And if the President will but carry this thing through he can drop a veto message to Congress on the increased expenditures in the letter carrier system. Not one dollar of this money ever visits North Carolina.

New York World: From a cable despatch to-day it appears that the London Times has learned at last a fact which Mr. Jennings communicated a fortnight ago to the readers of the World, that the English wheat crop of 1882, "will be no better than for the last five years."

Druggists and pharmacists are restricted in the sale of deadly poisons. Why, therefore, should not the dealers in deadly weapons be even more stringently restricted? A woman's heart is a small affair, but it can upset the biggest man that ever adorned this world.

The imports of foreign merchandise into the port of New York continue on a very liberal scale. The total for the past week was $10,738,478, of which $7,392,900 represented general merchandise and the remainder dry goods.

As absurd a story as was ever printed has been put into circulation by the Sentinel du Midi, and reproduced in full, though contradicted, by the Finfulla, an official Italian newspaper.

On Monday next the people of Alabama elect State officers, one-half of the members of the State Senate, and the full House of Representatives.

Commenting on the political status in the South, the New York World mentions two very significant facts: First, that the Independent party that was at one time forming in almost every State has now no separate existence anywhere.

The liquor trade seems to have good reason for alarm at the total-abstinence wave which is sweeping the West. In Kansas the prohibitory law has driven the traffic out of sight and made it so dangerous that only reckless men will engage in it.

The meanest man on record sent through a postoffice presided over by a woman a postal card on which was written: "Dear Jack: 'Here's the details of the scandal.' And then the rest was in Greek."

A new style of the door mat has been devised for editorial sanctums. It bears the woven inscription "Come Again," and is intended to lie outside the door.

When a nation gives birth to a man who is able to produce a great thought, another is born who is able to understand and admire it. Druggists and pharmacists are restricted in the sale of deadly poisons. Why, therefore, should not the dealers in deadly weapons be even more stringently restricted?

Sing a song of Egypt, Pocket full of bonds; Four and twenty big guns With shells that correspond. When the fire was opened The forts were knocked away— Wasn't that a pretty mess For Pasha Arabi?

The Imperial Gazette of China has been continuously published for the past 1,530 years.

The profits of the Western Union Telegraph Company for 1882 are estimated at $6,500,000.

Little "niggers" are coming into fashion as pages in Paris; their complexion throws out the whiteness of their mistress's skin.

The veterans of the Mexican war are to hold a "national" convention in Nashville, Tenn., September 13th, 14th and 15th. About 800 are expected.

A Great Northern railroad train, with an eight-foot single driver outside cylinder engine, lately ran from Leeds to London, 1863 miles, in exactly three hours—sixty two miles an hour.

A female dentist is having a hard time of it in Quebec. The press is denouncing her as pursuing an unwomanly vocation, and the clergy of St. John and Levis Churches have prohibited their people from having anything to do with her.

The naval authority of the Detroit Free Press staff estimates that one English iron-clad would work her way into New York without firing over a dozen shots, and these would be fired simply to scare the hackmen away from her intended landing-place.

Sixteen ships of the regular trans-Atlantic lines have been chartered by the British government to take troops to Egypt.

LONDON, August 3—Noon.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., dated Alexandria, 3.30 o'clock this p. m. announces that all the British troops have been ordered to the front, an attack being expected.

ALEXANDRIA, August 3—Noon.—Last evening and to-day an alarm was caused by rumors of the impending massacre of Christians. The patrols have been ordered to increase their vigilance and the police to confiscate sticks from natives.

Criers have paraded the native quarters of the city enjoining the people to remain at home at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the hour which it is reported has been fixed for the massacre.

News from Cairo, to the 30th ult., states that 17 Pachas were imprisoned in the citadel; among the number was Ali Cherif Pasha, who was arrested because he employed Greeks to guard his house.
