 No City Court yesterday.
 The most fashionable gentlemen are furnished by DYER & SON.
 Mr. C. T. Willis, of the Dramatic Guide of Tarboro, was in to see us yesterday.
 The members of the Bennett-Green Club are requested to meet at the Court House this evening at 8 o'clock.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Sholar who was stricken with paralysis on Saturday last, died yesterday morning.
 The steamship Gulf Stream, Captain Ingram, left here at 9 o'clock p. m., yesterday, for New York.
 Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOB'S.

The Guano Warehouse and Elevator opposite this city, has been lengthened fifty-two feet. It now has a capacity of 60,000 tons.
 The Hibernian Benevolent Association will give an excursion down the river to-day on the Passport. A pleasant time is anticipated.
 The many friends of Mr. W. B. Orr in this city, will regret to hear of his critical illness at his home in Alabama. He has for some time past been suffering from that fell destroyer consumption.

The excursion to Waccamaw Lake this morning will be well attended. The committee have perfected all their arrangements, and promise a good time to all. The train will leave promptly at 9 o'clock.
Exports Foreign.
 Nor. barque Brocka, Capt. Jensen, cleared yesterday for New Castle-on-Tyne, with 3,500 barrels roun, valued at $6,500, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

The Circus is Coming.
 S. H. Barrett's Circus will exhibit in this city on Monday the 11th of September. Look out boys; the circus bills will be up in a short time and you can look at the elephants and lions etc. But want the saw dust smell nice.
Criminal Court.
 This tribunal was in session yesterday and disposed of the following cases:
 State vs. Louis Mott. Larceny. Defendant submits.
 State vs. John W. McGuire. Mismarking hogs. Case on trial. This case claimed the attention of the Court during the day.
 Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOB'S.

Two Circus Troupes in the State.
 Maybury, Pullman & Hamilton's Circus and Menagerie will shortly be exhibited in this State. Their agents are now at Greensboro making arrangements for their appearance in that town. S. H. Barrett's Circus, which exhibits in Goldsboro on the 26th will go via Raleigh to Charlotte and thence down the Carolina Central Railroad to this city.
The Encampment Abandoned.
 Yesterday was the day settled upon some time ago by the Edgecombe Guards of Tarboro to go into their annual encampment at Fort Johnson. We regret to learn that the proposed encampment has been abandoned on account of the recent copious and frequent rains. The members of the company are mostly farmers who could not leave their crops. We are told that some cotton and cornfields in that section are completely submerged in that water.

"Rough on Rats."
 Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers. 15c. Depot.
 "How do you manage," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy all the time?" "I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy," was the reply, and thus keep myself and family in good health. When I am well I always feel good natured." See other column.

The Firemen's Parade.

The colored firemen of this city, together with the Victor Fire Company of Raleigh, paraded yesterday afternoon. The procession formed at the Atlantic Garden on 9th and Swann streets at 3 o'clock, in the following order: Raleigh brass band, Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company No. 3, Victor Fire Company, Raleigh Cadet Company, Little Columbia No. 5, of Kidder's Hill, and Dread Not, of Brooklyn. The march was down Swann street to Fourth, down Fourth to Red Cross, down Red Cross to Front, down Front to Castle, up Castle to Third, and up Third to Dock, where addresses were delivered to the firemen.

His Honor, Mayor Smith, welcomed the visiting firemen to the city, and expressed a desire that they would be pleased with their visit. James H. Jones, foreman of the Victors, thanked the Mayor for his welcome and good wishes expressed for them. Just at this juncture Geo. L. Mabson stepped forward on the stand, and presented the Cape Fear boys with a new and pretty United States flag, it being the gift of Maggie Davis, a young colored woman of this city. Valentine Howe received it in behalf of his company and thanked the donor for her gift and assured her that his company would ever prize it.

At the conclusion of the speeches the line of march was taken up and the companies marched to Sixth and Market streets, where they broke ranks for the contest of speed—the prize being a handsome swinging silver ice picher and cup, which would be awarded to the company making the best time in running with a hose reel carrying 300 feet of hose a distance of 250 yards, and running 100 feet of hose from the reel, attaching it to a hydrant and supplying water.

The reel and hose weighed 1,000 pounds and each company was allowed ten men for the reel, one for the hose and one for the hydrant. Only ten men pulled the reel.

Chief of the Fire Department Robinson, Mr. R. M. Houston, Elijah Lane, Altrad Howe and J. C. Hill were selected as judges. The distance, 250 yards, was measured off and every thing declared in readiness for the contest. The Little Columbia, No. 5, led off; they made the run and threw water in two minutes. It is but justice to say that this company lost time by getting a rope on the reel foul, which tripped two of their members when they had run only about 125 yards, and their inexperience in working the hydrants. The next run was made by the Cape Fear Company, No. 3. They ran the distance and complied with all the requirements of the rules of the contest and threw water in one minute. The Dread Nots took the next run and threw water in one minute and ten seconds. They did not make their nozzle coupling tight and the nozzle was blown off by the force of the water. The Victor declined to run as they did not understand the handling of a hydrant. Valentine Howe, foreman of the Cape Fear, offered them his three best men to work the hydrant, hose and coupling, if they would take part in the contest. They still declined to make the run and the firemen assembled around the judges' stand to witness the presentation of the prize. J. C. Hill presented it in a little speech, in which he alluded to the faithful service of the firemen. Valentine Howe received it in behalf of his company. He alluded to the friendly feeling existing between the firemen and the city, and urged his men to perpetuate it, and pledged the hearty services of his company to the citizens to wage war against the subtle fire fiend. The Victor company was escorted to the Atlantic Garden, where they are quartered, by the Dread Nots and the Little Columbia marched down Market to Front and up Front street to their engine house. The prize won by the Cape Fear was attached to the flag-pole and was triumphantly carried to the engine house. The Cape Fear company will hold a reception at their hall from 11 o'clock this morning until 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Victors will leave for their home this evening.

No Fever.
 A telegram was received yesterday by Mr. M. M. Katz from our quondam citizen, Mr. S. P. Thomas, who now lives at Laredo, Texas, stating there is not a case of yellow fever within two hundred and fifty miles of that place. Mr. Thomas and his sister moved from this city several years ago and have since been living in Laredo.

Axes and Planks.

Now that was a nice row in which Bill Howard and Jim Sones, two colored worthies, engaged in on Tuesday. Howard was armed with a piece of plank and Jones was heeled with an axe. No body was hurt but they wanted the matter fixed up by the Courts. Howard got out a warrant against Jones for trying to chop him without being axed to do so, and Jones took out a warrant against Howard because he was bored and couldn't stand being planked down. Justice Millis bound them both over to the Criminal Court.

The Excursionists and Firemen.

About 500 excursionists arrived in this city yesterday morning via the Carolina Central Railroad from Raleigh. About one hundred of the number were whites, who were provided with separate coaches. The Victor fire company and a cadet company were a part of the excursionists. These organizations were escorted to the Atlantic Gardens, corner Ninth and Swann streets, by the colored fire organizations of this city. The Raleigh firemen were taken around to the engine-house where they for the first time in their lives saw a steam fire engine. They and their friends spent the day walking about the city, but their attention was particularly attracted by the shipping in port. The excursionists are orderly and well behaved and we trust they are pleased with their visit to the metropolis of the State.

Putting a Stop to a Dangerous Habit.

The railroad authorities have been annoyed for some time past by little colored boys, who congregate about the yards and depot shed. They frequently run dangerous risk in stealing rides on the trains which are being shifted from one track to another in the yard. The engineers have frequently been compelled to stop their trains and leave their engines to go to the assistance and extricate small boys from dangerous positions, in which they had placed themselves. The little boy whose foot was cut off a few days ago was one of the crowd which had frequently been warned against jumping on and off the trains while in motion. In order to prevent further trouble and accident, the railroad authorities have had one of their employes sworn in as a special policeman to watch these boys and put a stop to their loafing on the company's property. Two of the boys were arrested yesterday and placed in the city prison for a hearing before the Mayor's Court this morning.

How to Wash Flannels.

The belief is quite general that soft, all-wool flannels cannot be washed without shrinking and getting yellow, and for these reasons many persons deny themselves the luxury of wearing them. But there is no foundation in fact for such a belief, as the softest and finest flannels may be washed an indefinite number of times without becoming harsh or yellow, or shrinking in the least, if the following method is invariably pursued: Dissolve a small quantity of good soap in hot water; add cold water enough to form a sufficient quantity of suds. Be careful not to have the suds too strong. Put the flannels in the cold suds and let them soak for several hours, when, unless they are very much soiled, they can be cleansed perfectly by a little rubbing. If they are very dirty it may be necessary to change the suds in which they are soaked two or three times. Rinse in cold water softened with a little soap or borax. Do not rub soap upon the flannels. A little dissolved borax should be added to the water in which flannels are washed, but no bleaching should ever be used. Borax softens and whitens them; blueing renders them unsightly. It is best to always iron flannels before they are quite dry.

BURGAU, N. C., Aug. 8th, 1882.
 At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pender county, held here to-day, a convention of the Democratic party was called to meet at this place on Monday, the 9th day of October, at 12 o'clock, M., to nominate candidates for the various county offices and for the Legislature.
 The Township Conventions to elect delegates to said Conventions were appointed to be held on the 30th day of September at 12 o'clock, at the respective voting places of each township.
 On motion the Secretary was requested to forward these proceedings to the Wilmington Review and Sar for publication.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Coughlin of Somerville Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with bleeding of the lungs followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and I was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of Dr. William Hall's Balsam for the lungs. I got a bottle, when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better and to-day I feel better than for three years past.
 "I write this hoping every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will take William Hall's Balsam, and be convinced that Consumption can be cured. I can positively say it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness."

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Bugle: Hon A H Van Bokkelen and wife of Wilmington, spent yesterday in town. A rabid dog attacked Capt. Worley, who resides on Church street, this morning in his own house and came very near biting him and one of his children. He killed the dog in the house.

Durham Plant: The recent heavy rains have done considerable damage both to crops and mill and bridge property. Deputy-Sheriff Farthing came down Monday morning with thirteen prisoners from Hillsboro jail. There were twelve men and one woman.

There are several important suits to come up this term of our court. On docket are six divorce suits that stand for trial, and one for breach of promise, in which the damages are put at $5,000. The court is likely to be a lively one, and a large crowd in attendance.

News and Observer: Mr. David C. Dudley, who was so terribly wounded six weeks ago, is getting well again. The negro who struck him has never been captured. The vaults of the new court house were yesterday completed. Work on the front of the building, which has been suspended for ten days, will be resumed. If some good violinist who could call figures for the fashionable dances could make Raleigh his home, he would no doubt meet with encouragement. Rufe Stanley's place needs to be filled by some one. The young people about Franklinton we learn are going to have a dance on the 17th inst., and will have to send to Petersburg for music, because there is no good prompter with any of our bands, since Stanley's death.

Robsonian: A more promising prospect for a bountiful harvest has not been seen in a number of years. In the Ashpole and Cotton Valley vicinity the verdant scenery along the roadside is sufficient to stimulate the energies of the agriculturist of any country. We regret that it becomes our painful duty to chronicle the death of Archie MCK. McPhaul, who departed this life on Sunday, July 30th, after a lingering attack of typhoid fever, aged 21 years and a few days. Little Louise, daughter of Mr. Wm H. Cowper, came to an untimely death by falling into a tub of hot water, with which a colored woman was scouring the piazza, on Thursday evening last. It seems that the child was playing about on the wet floor and slipped, falling backwards into the scalding water almost instantly she never lived more than 12 hours.

Newborn Journal: Mr J W Morris, General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Midland Railway, moves his headquarters to Goldsboro, where he relieves Mr G W Collier, the station agent. Mr A M Woolledge is appointed as station agent at this place. We learn that Mr Thomas E Gaskins, of this county, died at his home on yesterday morning. His death was sudden, he having been up early in the morning giving directions to his hands. Mr Gaskins was an honored and useful citizen and his sudden death will cause sorrow to many faithful friends.
 On Sunday morning a boy was found in the market dock which proved to be Edward Day. He was last seen alive on Saturday night about nine o'clock, aboard one of the boats in the dock, and at that time was in the act of leaving the boat. Coroner Bates summoned a jury and held an inquest over the body; the verdict was, "come to his death by accidental drowning. He was about 13 years old."

DIED.

SHOLAR—In this city, on the 8th inst., Mrs. E. A. SHOLAR, aged 50 years, 3 months and 10 days.
 The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from her late residence on Fifth street, between Nunn and Church, this (Thursday) afternoon, at 4.30 o'clock.
