Only 4 bales of cotton received at this port yesterday.
Some fine mountain cattle was received here yesterday.
New sweet potatoes sold in market yesterday for thirty cents per peck.

The Br. Barge Indiana, hence, arrived at Bristol, Eng., August 5th.
The steamer Regulator, Doane, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO B'S.

Mr. L. J. Otterbourg has gone North to select his Fall and Winter stock of goods.

The "Monarch" is the best fitting skirt in the market; prices from 75 cents to $2.00. For sale by JYEX.

Blue, red and white flannel hats, of Buffalo Bill shape, are extensively worn by young ladies at the seaside.

Pretty breakfast caps of red silk, edged with lace, are worn by young married ladies at watering place hotels.

We understand that Mr. Elijah Hew-bell is marshaling his forces for a strong fight for the sheriffalty of the county.

To Builders and others—Go to JACO-B'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

A committee of ladies will furnish refreshments, at city prices, to all who may desire it, on the excursion to be given on the steamer Passport to-morrow.

To prevent Irish potatoes from rotting spread them out on the floor and sprinkle them well with air-slacked lime. If this is done soon after digging them it will be sure to protect them from rot.

There was only one case before his Honor Mayor Smith on yesterday, that of a young colored man who was charged with fast driving. He paid the costs in the case and was dismissed.

By reason of the high winds and sea the blackfish excursion, which was to have taken place to-day, has been postponed until Tuesday next. The Passport will make her regular trip to-day.

The New Southern Humpty Dumpty troupe, of this city, are preparing for an entertainment at the Opera House early in September. Our people may look out for something good on that occasion.

We are requested to state that there will not be a meeting to-night of the executive committee of the Green-Bennett Club but that the committee will meet next Tuesday night at the office of Messrs. W. L. Smith & Co.

Shrimp pink is one of the fashionable colors of the day, and it is to be said of it that it is very trying on the complexion—a fact in itself not likely to perpetuate its popularity. Another color in high favor is "lobster red."

The excursion season draws to a close, and this fact reminds us that it is excusion day to-morrow on the Passport.— The steamer will run to Smithville and the forts, and a pleasant "family day" is offered by Capt. Harper to all who may go down then.

An agent for Maybury, Pullman & Hamilton's circus was in the city yesterday. It is not now definitely known whether or not the troupe will show here this season. It will exhibit in Baldigh on the 23rd, and Goldsboro the 24th. It then doubles back as far as Charlotte, and may come here on the Carolina Central road.

A subscriber at Magnolia tells us that a lump of silver, weighing nearly a pound, was picked up on the streets of that place a few days ago. The silver was evidently a souvenir of one of the terrible fires by which that town has been scourged. The supposition is that it was melted coin which was in the money drawer of some store which was consumed by fire.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 17 1882. NO. 195.

Criminal Court.

The attention of the Criminal Court was taken up yesterday in the trial of Sam'l Reese, colored, charged with rape. There was an array of witnesses on both sides. The examination of witnesses was brought to a close about dark and the Court took a recess for supper. Upon reassembling at 8 o'clock the counsel commenced their arguments. Reese seems to treat the matter lightly and frequently during the trial would smile at the statement of witnesses.

Freedman's Bank.

Joseph E. Sampson, who has done much in assisting the colored people of this city who were victims of the Freed-man's Bank steal, in getting in some of the dividends from their stolen deposits, received yesterday about two hundred bank books and checks for the dividends from the Commissioners at Washington. These dividends range from 15 cents to $352. He has the books all codified and is ready to turn them, with the money, over to the owners.— This makes the fourth dividend which he has secured and paid out. It is thought that another will be declared, which will probably be the last.

A Scrimmage.

Two colored women got into an angry altercation yesterday afternoon, on the corner of Mulberry and McRae streets, and from words they soon came to blows, when they fought and they fit, and they gouged and they bit, and they scolded and swore, and struggled and tore, at the clothing they wore, until one was almost entirely denuded from her neck to her waist. She evidently had the worst of the fight, and so, borrowing clothing with which to appear decently clad, she went her way. We did not learn the cause of the war nor the names of the belligerents.

Principal of the Public Schools.

Mr. C. S. Noble arrived in the city on Tuesday night. He is the gentleman who has been employed as principal of the public schools of this city. He met the school committeemen of the first and second districts in joint session at the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon.
After a free exchange of ideas the meeting adjourned. The committee are much pleased with the fact that they have been able to secure Mr. Noble's services.
He is a gentleman of much experience, capability and reputation as a teacher.
It will be his aim to raise the standard of our public schools to a higher sphere of usefulness and so discipline them as to have no trouble in their management.

A New Enterprise.

In establishing a bazaar in this city, Messrs. Shrier & Dryfoos will supply a long felt need. Wilmington has long since felt the need of an establishment of this kind and we are glad to know that this gap in her business circles is to be filled up. They propose to conduct their bazaar on the same principle on which Macy's or Altman's is carried out and will be able to furnish their customers with the thousand and one articles which our citizens have been in the habit of sending to the North for. The store, No. 45 Market street, is being remodelled and refitted for them. A new front of French plate glass with nickle frames is also to be put in the store.
They propose opening on or about the 20th of September with a very large and varied stock, and will keep all the novelties in all classes of goods, except gentlemen's ready-made clothing. Their store will in no way be anything like a 5 and 10 cents or even a $1 store. Their goods will be of excellent quality and finish and they will deal largely in ladies and children's ready-made undergarments and dresses. Messrs. Shrier & Dryfoos propose to run their bazaar on the most improved style and will employ from twenty to thirty ladies as clerks. They propose to get their clerks in this city and have already employed about a half dozen.
In addition to the clerks there will be cash girls and men to wrap parcels and keep the stock in order. The new firm is now negotiating for a large electric light, and will doubtless have it in pos-sion and ready for use by the time the store is opened. The entire building of three stories will be used by them in displaying their goods. There will be fifty departments in the bazaar and every article in each department will be plainly marked. We are pleased to chronicle the establishment in our city of this enterprise, for the reason that a place of the kind is needed and because it will give employment to a large number of females who are now wearing away body and soul over their needles and by which they can hardly manage to survive.

Dogtongue, Sorghum and Tube Roses.

We stated several days ago that the dogtongue traffic had assumed large proportions along the line of the W. & W.
R. R. We have been successful in the past two days in getting some statistics in regard to the shipments of dog-tongue or vanilla leaf. Messrs. Newbury & Southerland, at Magnolia, are, possibly, the largest shippers in this section of the State. Last year they shipped 100,000 pounds, and will double that amount this year. The leaf, which grows wild, is gathered and dried. It is then carried by the gatherer to the dealer, who pays three cents a pound for it. It is then packed into bales by an ordinary cotton hand press and is ready for shipment. The bales will average 500 pounds. Messrs. Newbury & Southerland use Rockingham sheeting for baling, as it is about as cheap as cotton bagging and makes a much nicer package. They have now ready for shipment about 45 bales, and unpacked leaves enough to make ten or twelve more bales. The supply is almost inexhaustible, and wagon loads of the aromatic flavored leaves of dogtongue are carried to them daily.
Mr. A. H. Morris, at Teachy's, is also a very large dealer in dogtongue. He shipped one hundred and fifty bales last season and will increase his shipment this year. He also deals largely in roots and herbs and is building up a fine business. There is no telling what are the resources of this State. Leaves, roots and herbs which have been growing wild and undisturbed for centuries are now beginning to have a marketable value.

We notice that quite a large amount of sorghum cane is being cultivated in Duplin county. We are told by reliable parties that there are about 400 acres of cane now growing in that town. There are seven sorghum mills in the county, and at this season of year they are kept very busy in grinding out the sweets.
The cane is first placed between large rollers, which crushes it, and the syrup drips into a barrel made for the purpose. The barrel, when full, is placed on a tripod and the syrup is turned out, in quantities to suit, into a pan supplied with small gages. The syrup goes through a process of evaporation very much like that used during the war in making salt along our coast. The mills now in use have an average of 70 gallons of sorghum a day. It is estimated that an acre of cane will yield 140 gallons. The product of last year's crop was sold in Goldsboro at 40 cents per gallon, and was shipped from there to Baltimore.
The crop is an easy one to make, as it requires very little cultivation. The leaves of the cane are used as fodder, while the seed are fed to chickens, hogs, &c.

At Magnolia, considerable attention is paid to the cultivation of tube rose bulbs, for shipment. Messrs. Newbury & Rivenbark have about ten acres under cultivation. The seedlings are planted in the Spring, and produce "flowering bulbs" by Fall, which will not bloom before the following year.— An acre of tube rose bulbs will yield about $500. The bulbs are taken up and dried, and are then assorted, packed and shipped. The prices of these bulbs range from $8 to $25 per thousand, according to the quality. Mr.
John Meyer is also cultivating bulbs, but on a small scale. We are told that the production of the ten acres under cultivation is already sold, and that there is a demand for treble the amount.

Wedding Bells.

We clip the following from the Margaretville (N. Y.) Utilitarian, in reference to the marriage, in that town, on the 9 inst., of Mr. William Pollock, of Pittsfield, Mass., to Mrs. Fanny Greenough, daughter of James Dawson, Esq., of this city:
The marriage ceremonies were private, owing to the delicate health of the father of the bride, having been held in presence of some of the relatives of the parties who are guests of the "Ackery House," and a few invited friends. The high social position of the parties, their youth and bright prospects for the future, would seem to draw around the bride and groom a halo of future bliss, which, in after life, as the weight of passing years grows heavy, will be intensified by the sweet memories of happy days spent in Margaretville.
As they leave the mountains and join their home companions, we hope they will not forget, (as we feel confident they will not regret,) that Cupid lurks among the leafy bowers of the Delaware. The presents were not numerous, but valuable, and will be treasured as souvenirs of the happy occasion.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Marked Down.

Miss E. Karrer has just received a lot of new styles of millinery and neck wear. She has marked down her summer stock to make room for a large stock of Fall goods. She has some rare bargains to offer, and our lady readers will do well to examine goods and prices before they are picked over.

Personal.

Major Edward Savage, of New York, but formerly of Wilmington, is now in the city on a visit to his brother, Capt.
Henry Savage, and other relatives. He was a Captain in and subsequently Major of the Third North Carolina regiment, but since the war has nearly all the time resided in New York, his present home.

Revised Edition.

We saw yesterday, in Mr. Yates' bookstore, a copy of the revised edition of Maury's Manual of Geography, intended expressly for use in North Carolina schools. It embraces a new map of the State, and a number of illustrations, among them a very correct picture of the port of Wilmington. This latter is from a photograph taken by Mr. Orr, from the top of the guano warehouse on Eagle Island.

The members of the Bennett-Green Club will meet at the Court-house this evening at 8 o'clock. Let there be a full turnout on this occasion.

The Fruit Fair.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Aug. 9th, 1882.
EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:—Thinking you would like to hear something from this section, and particularly of the fruit-growing interest of North Carolina, I will drop you a few lines in the hope that they may interest your readers.

Early this morning people began to pour into the beautiful town of Greensboro, by rail, in carriages, wagons, carts and on foot, until there was a perfect living sea of human beings.
At 11 o'clock, the hall being crowded with men, women and children, Col.
John N. Staples, in brief, eloquent and appropriate remarks, made the welcoming address and introduced Col.
Heck, President of the State Fruit Growers' Association, who delivered a very excellent speech in which he congratulated the Association upon the selection of Greensboro as the place of holding their Fair.

Gov. Jarvis was then introduced, and made a very eloquent speech, in which he promised the fruit growers of the State that whatever he could do as a citizen or in his official capacity to aid their interests he would cheerfully do.
Then, as Governor of the State, he formally opened the first fruit fair in North Carolina.

The fair is a success in every particular. There is the largest collection and greatest variety of fruit that I ever witnessed in any State and makes one think, when looking on, what a grand old State we live in. No State in the Union can produce better apples, peaches, pears and grapes than are on exhibition here to-day, either in size or quality. It is a well known fact that to-day North Carolina peaches are commanding higher prices in the Northern markets than those of any other State.

And now, Mr. Editor, pardon me for speaking a little of my own section. As you know it is the prevailing opinion that the middle and western part of this State is the best fruit growing part of North Carolina, but I am perfectly satisfied from experience and observation that this is a mistake, but it is a fact that the people in those sections take more care in the cultivation of fruit than we do. It is frankly admitted by fruit growers, that the peaches grown on our sandy soils have equally as good flavor, will carry longer, and are from ten to twenty days earlier; and in proof of the assertion, Mr. S. Otho Wilson awarded Mr. R. P. Paddison a special premium for early varieties on exhibition from Pender county.

Now, in view of the fact that we can raise fruit of as good quality, that will carry longer and ripen earlier, and have as good means of transportation, why is it that we are not a fruit growing people?

Col. Heck said, in his speech, that 425,000 pounds of fruit had been shipped from Greensboro this season, and the amount would probably reach 1,000,000 more. Now, this would make about 10,000 bushels, and at $2 per bushel would make $20,000 drawn from the North to that town alone. We can do the same with the proper energy. Let our people wake up on the subject, and go to work, and if the Association hold their next annual fair at Greensboro, get our people to go up and see how they are growing fruit, and enjoy the generous hospitality of the good people of that place, and they will be well paid for the trip.
