Groceries!

Day's length 13 hours and 5 minutes.
Sunset this afternoon at 33 minutes past 6 o'clock.

Full moon to-morrow afternoon at 5 minutes past 4 o'clock.

Three interments—all children—in Oakdale during the week.

There were no interments in Bellevue cemetery during the week.

Four marriage licenses were issued during the week—all to colored couples.

One adult and four children were interred in Pine Forest during the week.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

Capt. Harper will give another of his pleasant excursions next Friday to Smithville and the Forts.

Mr. C. M. VanOrsdell, Jr., is now turning out some work which cannot be surpassed for beauty of finish.

We regret to learn that the venerable Dr. Schonwald is sinking and that the last hope for his recovery has departed.

A very large and dangerous wash on Front street, between Orange and Ann, was filled in yesterday. It was caused by the recent heavy rains and was attended to as soon as the city force could reach it in its order.

Our friends of the Second Baptist Church will give another of their pleasant excursions on the Passport to Smithville and the Forts on Wednesday next. The well-known ability of the gentlemen in charge is a sufficient guaranty that the excursion will be a pleasant one.

The Charlotte Journal.
We received yesterday, for the first time, a copy of the new paper, the Charlotte Journal. It is a handsome sheet, well conducted, and gives evidence of substantial prosperity in the large number of advertisements which are found in its columns. It has our best wishes for success.

Cotton.
The receipts of cotton in this port for the week ending with yesterday foot up 263 bales as against 79 bales for the corresponding period last year, an increase this year of 214 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 136,746 bales as against 119,405 bales to August 27th, 1881, an increase this year of 17,341 bales.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, AUGUST 27, 1882. NO. 204.

Mr. Wm. R. Hunter, the "Children's Friend," will lecture to-night in Front Street Church, on "The Importance of Sabbath School Work."

A flat containing 800 watermelons was at Market Dock yesterday. There were one or two more flats with from 200 to 300 melons in each.

Mr. B. F. Penny, of the firm of W. J. & B. F. Penny, leaves to-morrow morning for the Northern markets to purchase a new stock of Fall and Winter goods.

Jeff Bordeaux, alias Jeff Sharpless, was committed to jail yesterday by Justice Johnson, of Cape Fear township, on the charge of the larceny of a bull, the property of Mr. W. Cronwell—a full account of which appeared in yesterday's REVIEW.

It will be seen by advertisement that an excursion will be given on the Passport, on Wednesday next, under the management of Messrs. M. P. Taylor, Gabriel Holmes and W. H. Green. The gentlemen are well qualified to get up a pleasant excursion and will doubtless give their patrons a pleasant day.

Fine Pears.
Capt. H. L. Winton is raising some very fine pears at his place in Wilson. They are large and equally as succulent as the famous California pears. He has shipped about thirty boxes to New York so far, and has many more to send off. We trust he will realize handsomely from them.

City Court.
His Honor, the Mayor, received calls from only three little boys yesterday morning.

Daniel Watson, charged with disorderly conduct, was sentenced to five days' imprisonment.

W. H. Larkins and Jane Lawson were sentenced to one day's incarceration in the city prison.

Fell In.
The rear of the second floor of the store on Water street, occupied by Mr. S. P. McNair, fell in yesterday afternoon, under a heavy weight of corn which was piled on it. There was no serious damage done. Some six or seven barrels of flour were damaged and some of the corn sacks were burst. The back door of the first floor was forced open by the pile of corn which fell against it, and the railing around the office was broken.

First Bale From North Carolina.

The first bale of cotton of the crop of this season was received to-day by Mr. Chas. E. Smith, and was sold on 'Change at auction to one of our principal cotton buyers, Mr. A. H. Greene, at 15 1/2 cents per pound. The cotton was raised by Mr. M. M. McKinnon, near Laurinburg, and graded middling. We point with pride to our merchants, among whom Mr. Greene is one of the most active and enterprising. Though but a citizen of a few years' residence, he has exhibited great interest in our prosperity and has its commercial advancement greatly at heart.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Explosion of a Lamp.
A kerosene lamp exploded in a house on the corner of Seventh and Campbell streets, last evening, about 8 o'clock. A little colored girl, Nancy Hill, was very badly burned about the face and neck. The child's mother, fortunately, was close at hand and covered her with a shawl or blanket and succeeded in smothering the flames before any very serious or dangerous injury was done to the child. A physician was called in and dressed the wounds. It was found that the sufferer's eyes were hurt but there is no danger of her losing her sight.

The "Liberal" Party.
There was a meeting of the "Liberals" of this city held in Coroner Hewlett's store (Coroner Hewlett is a Republican) near the corner of Seventh and Queen streets Friday night. There were just eight persons present who constituted the meeting, viz: Messrs. Jesse J. Dicksey, Alex. T. Swann, John Kennedy, W. M. Collister, John Curtis, E. H. King, Bryant Swann and Wm. Kennedy. J. J. Dicksey was elected Chairman, Alex. T. Swann Secretary and John Kennedy Secretary. The meeting was held in a coroner's shop and a few steps from a grave yard large enough to bury the Liberal party. As a matter of course the Republican paper published in this city was requested to publish the proceedings.

A saving of time and money: Wear the "Electric" Shirt, sold by Dyer.
Go to Smithville to-day on the Minnehaha if you want to keep cool.

The Rev. Thos. M. Ambler has returned to the city and will conduct the services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day at the usual hours.

The residue of the stock of dry goods of Mr. I. Shrier will be sold at auction to-morrow. Some rare bargains are to be had. See ad. elsewhere.

Badly Fooled.
That was a good joke which was played on a staid old pater familias at the Seaside Park, on last Wednesday night. A young lad, about 15 years of age, dressed up in a lady's dress and putting a becoming sundown on his head, walked out to the platform where, under the uncertain light of a partly obscured moon, he was introduced as Miss Jones. The gentleman hurriedly brought a couple of chairs and seated the supposed young lady and engaged her in conversation. He tried to travel incognito, and was talking very sweet to his companion, dwelling upon the length of her eyebrows, raving over her beautiful soft brown eyes, and went into raptures over her complexion. Matters went on in this way for some time until one of his friends walked up to him and said: "M—, don't tell B—who that fellow is you are talking to!"
The pater familias started in amazement and hardly believed his own senses when he discovered how he had been fooled. Later in the evening he found out the name of the young lad, and soon after was introduced to his mother when she said, "Well, ma'am, your brother played a capital trick on me this evening." He did not see what the boys were laughing at, but we think he is very excusable for his last mistake.

Ticket 56,021.
We had occasion to interview Mr. J. A. Burks, the station agent at Robeline. Mr. Burks was the lucky holder of one-fifth of ticket No. 56,021, which drew the capital prize of $75,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery Drawing of August 8. He stated that he had forwarded the ticket to New Orleans, by the Southern Express Co., and exhibited a letter showing that the sum of $15,000 was paid in cash, by the Lottery Co. without scaling or any deduction. Mr. Burks seemed delighted with his good fortune and was full of pleasant humor.
Mr. Burks is rather below the medium size; wears a light brown mustache and goatee and has dark brown hair; he is genial, pleasant and sociable in disposition. He is a comparatively young man; has a wife and two children, and is a native of Sonora, Ky., where he owns some real estate. He has been in his present situation at the Depot of the N. O. P. R. R. and in this State since last December. He takes his good fortune quite nonchalantly, and in a sensible manner. He says that he will retain his present position for some time to come. He is evidently an intelligent gentleman, of sound, practical judgment. He speaks in high terms of the promptness with which the Louisiana State Lottery Company cashed his ticket, without any quibbles or reductions, for any cause whatever. This is but one of the innumerable instances showing that the Louisiana State Lottery Company deal honestly with the lucky holders of tickets drawing prizes in the wheel of fortune.—Natchitoches, La., People's Vindicator, Aug. 19.
