We regret to state that Dr. J. C.
 Walker is still quite sick and has not been able to leave his bed for several days.

Virtue dwells at the head of a river to which we cannot get but by rowing against the stream.

Almost every country has its national melody, but the waltz is the music of the whirlwind.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black-fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

A young man wishes to know whether he should study on the saxophone or try the xylophone. Do neither. Devote your young life to practicing on the telephone.

We learn that a man was run over by a train on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad at Whitaker's, yesterday afternoon, and both legs were cut-off.
 We learned no further particulars.

Two doves from the Hollow were arrested Monday night for disorderly conduct and were lodged in the guardhouse. The Mayor being indisposed, he did not investigate their cases yesterday morning. They will appear at his levee this A. M.

A little son of Mr. A. J. Howell ran a large fish hook through the fleshy part of his left hand, on yesterday. It was found necessary to have it cut out by a physician. The little fellow, we are glad to know, is not suffering any inconvenience from it.

Lieut. T. J. Simmons, who was detached from the revenue cutter Stevens, at Newbern, and assigned to the Colfax, has been ordered back. Lieut. W. H.
 Hand, of the Crown, at San Francisco, has been ordered to duty on the Colfax.
 He is expected to arrive about the 15th proximo.

The next regatta over the Wrightsville course will be sailed about the 15th of September. It will be an open-to-all race for the Sea Side Park Improvement Company's prize of $25. It is to be hoped that all of the yachts on the sounds will be entered.

Mr. A. H. Kelly, formerly of this city, but now of West Point, Va., in the claim department of the Piedmont Air Line, is in the city on a visit to his parents. Mr. Kelly has been on a visit to his brother, Mr. Geo. H. Kelly, at Birmingham, Ala., who we are pleased to know is well and doing a large business.

More Church Cases.
 The Rev. A. M. Conway, pastor of the First Baptist church, colored, was arrested yesterday on the charge of perjury. The charge against him grew out of the church cases which have occupied the attention of the Magistrate's Court for several weeks. There seems to be a great deal of dissension and strife between the discordant factions in the church.

That Prediction.
 Vendor predicted that there would be storms along the coast about the 29th and we are of the belief that his prediction will be verified. The heavens, as we write, look dark and angry and it is the opinion of our local weather prophets that the clouds are gathering to break upon us in the equinox which they think is right upon us.

A Barking Bird.
 A large bird pass over the city Monday night about 11 o'clock and attracted the attention of pedestrians and others by the peculiar noises it made during its flight. It sounded very much like the hoarse barking of a large dog.
 Some persons think that the "barking bird" was a precursor of very bad weather. The noise or bark was very strong and loud and was heard for a considerable distance.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1882. NO. 206.

Mr. J. W. Koss, one of the attaches of the penitentiary, arrived in this city yesterday. He came to take the woman, Emma Johnson, an escaped convict, back to the penitentiary. He left with his charge yesterday afternoon.
 An account of her capture has been published in the REVIEW.

New Cotton.
 The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 10 bales, of which 8 bales were new cotton. Some little of this has been sold at 12 1/2 cents per lb., which is 1 cent above quotations. The consignees here are Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co., B. F. Mitchell & Son, Woody & Currie and E. P. Covington, and the shippers Messrs. S. E. Shaw, Maysville, S. C.; S. W. Wilson, Maysville; C. E. Stubbs, Marion, and Jephtha Gibson, Laurel Hill, N. C.

The Excursion To-Day.
 Our friends of the Second Baptist Church will give their excursion to Smithville and the Forts to-day. They have made ample preparations for a pleasant day and the committee aver that none of the guests will have cause to regret spending the day with them.
 They have heretofore conducted their excursions in such a manner as to win for themselves the plaudits of their friends, and we feel assured they will not allow their well-merited reputation to suffer to-day.

At Pine Grove To-Night.
 The crew of the yacht Erolie, the winner of the last regatta, will, by invitation, take supper at Pine Grove, Wrightsville Sound, to-night.
 After tea Capt. Manning will tender his guests and their friends a complimentary hop in his pavilion on the beautiful lawn in front of his house. He extends a cordial invitation to the ladies and gentlemen of this city and all the Sounds.
 Ample preparations have been made to furnish all who may attend with one of his excellent pig-fish suppers. Boats will be at the command of those who wish to take a sail or visit the banks.
 An excellent band of music will be on hand to accommodate the dancers.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO-BI'S.

The Difficulty at Smithville.
 In referring yesterday to the difficulty which occurred at Smithville last Saturday, we stated, on the assurance of a gentleman whose word was to us sufficient, that the difficulty was the result of a misunderstanding. This, we are now informed, was a mistake. A friend of the attacking party called upon us last night to assure us that there was no misunderstanding and that such references were made that a personal attack was considered the only justifiable means left and that the party to whom we have referred, as well as his friends, still consider that his course was thoroughly justifiable. Having in the first instance carefully refrained from mentioning the names of the parties interested, we think it best for all concerned not to mention them now.

Death of Dr. Schonwald.
 The venerable Dr. J. T. Schonwald died at his residence in this city early yesterday morning. He had been sick for some time and his death was not at all unexpected. He was a native of Hungary, being born at Buda Pesth, November 25th, 1801, and was consequently nearly 81 years of age. His remains will be interred at Myrtle Grove Sound to-day, at 10 o'clock. Dr. Schon-wald has been a resident of this city for about forty years. He was a gentleman of literary culture and has contributed one or two volumes on medicine and its practise. He was benevolent and charitable, always bestowing his charity in a modest way. He has often relieved suffering and driven the wolf from the door of many of our poor when they little expected from whence their relief came. Many will be the tears shed over the grave of the subject of this notice.

Col. Green's Appointments.
 Col. Wharton J. Green, our candidate for Congress in this district, will address his fellow-citizens at the following times and places: Long Creek, Pender county, Saturday Sept. 2nd.
 Burgaw, Pender county, Monday,
 Sept. 4th.
 Kenansville, Duplin county, Tuesday, Sept. 5th.
 Beaufort, Carteret county, Thursday,
 Sept. 7th.
 Speaking will commence about 11 o'clock a. m.

Democratic Mass-Meeting.
 We are authorized by the chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pender county, to announce that the Democrats of that county will hold a mass-meeting at Long Creek on Saturday next, the 2nd day of September.— Our candidate for Congress, Col. Wharton J. Green, and Col. B. R. Moore, of this city, have accepted invitations to address the people on that occasion.— Other distinguished speakers are also invited. Speaking will commence at 11 o'clock a. m. A large crowd is expected.

A Dog and an Alligator.
 An alligator, something over seven feet long, was killed on the west bank of the Cape Fear river, at the Hilton ferry, yesterday afternoon. The circumstances of the capture and killing of his 'gatorship are as follows: A gentleman who was driving through the country en route for Point Caswell put his horse and buggy on the ferry flat at Hilton and was taken across the river.
 As he was about to drive on to the causeway on the west side he discovered that his setter dog had been left on the opposite bank. The gentleman whistled to his dog, when the obedient canine plunged in and swam the stream.
 Just before the dog reached the shore an alligator appeared on the scene and bit the dog in too, taking one half of it in at one gulp. The 'gator then came near the flat, when the flatman caught it in the eye with a large boat hook and held it until the gentleman shot and killed it with his revolver.

Peace Produces Prosperity.
 The prosperity with which the blessing of Divine Providence has visited the South is evidenced by the increase of the comfort of living in the several prominent cities, notably New Orleans.
 The great Charity Hospital, which has flourished for over a century, has been sustained by the gratuity of $1,000,000 from The Louisiana State Lottery Company, in return for its franchises.
 The next drawing (the 148th Grand Monthly) will occur September 12th, and prizes of $75,000, $25,000, $10,000, etc., will be given to purchasers of tickets—whole, $5; fifths, $1. Any information can be had on application to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.
