THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2 1882. NO. 209.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

LOCAL NEWS.

MUNDS BROS.—We Have the Best
S. JEWETT—Vincent & Zimmerman

There are 46,405 postoffices in the United States.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 15 bales.

Only one case before the city court yesterday. The sinner was drunk and down, and was sentenced to one day's imprisonment.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACOBI'S.

Steamship Benefactor, Capt Tribon cleared and sailed hence yesterday for New York.

There was a rise of 6 inches at Fayetteville up to Thursday morning, but one inch of this had fallen off before the first left on that morning.

Mr. A. Y. Wilson is erecting on his mill yard, in the southern portion of the city, a large planing mill, the capacity of which will be 20,000 feet per day.

There was shown in our office yesterday a peach blossom which had made its appearance upon the peach tree in the yard of a residence on the corner of Red Cross and Second streets, in this city.

Messrs. Black & Fennell made a haul with their seine off Masonboro on Thursday and caught 4,070 large fine mullets. The haul was made with five hands and made 814 bunches. Pretty good that.

Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., will fill the pulpit at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church on Sunday next, morning and evening, at the usual hours of service, preaching on both occasions in English.

Mr. S. A. Craig has resigned the position of City-Agent of the DAILY REVIEW, he having engaged in another business. The list is now in the hands of Mr. J. H. Pugh, who will receipt for amounts due for subscription.

The work of upholstering the seats in the parquette of the Opera House was commenced yesterday. The building is being put in thorough repair preparatory to Mr. C. B. Bishop's appearance here. That's strictly business.

Four amateur fishermen from this city spent the day on Wrightsville beach last Wednesday and caught seven large drum-fish, one of which was over four feet long and required all hands to land it. They also caught a very large number of blue fish, or skip jacks.

Mr. A. S. Grandy, a graduate of Chapel Hill, will assist Mr. W. Catlett in the Cape Fear Academy during the coming session. Mr. Grandy is a brother of Prof. Grandy, of Chapel Hill. He is highly recommended for this position by Dr. Battle and Mr. J. H. Horner.

Exports of Cotton.

From the books of the Secretary of the Produce Exchange, we learn that the exports of cotton from this port for the crop year which ended August 31st, foot up 137,785 bales, of which 73,875 were domestic, and 63,910 were foreign exports. This is against 50,032 domestic and 69,810 foreign, a total of 119,842 in 1881, showing an increase for the year just closed of 17,943 bales.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass, &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Yesterday's Excursion.

The excursion on the Passport yesterday was not as largely attended as some others of the season, but everyone had a pleasant time. The party was not large enough to crowd the boat, and there was plenty of elbow-room.—We are pleased to know that the gentlemen in charge realized a sufficient amount to cover expenses.

Two Crops this Season.

Mr. J. H. Savage, Superintendent of the poor house, has made two crops of Irish potatoes this season. He dug his first crop some time ago and planted the small tubers, which were about the size of pistol balls. Yesterday he dug his second crop and they were as fine as any we have seen this season. Mr. Savage tried it only as an experiment and is well pleased.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the month of August, just closed, foot up 1,204 bales, as against 653 bales for the corresponding month of last year, an increase this year of 551 bales. The receipts for the crop year which closed August 31 foot up 137,341 bales, as against 119,713 bales in 1881, an increase this year of 17,628 bales.

Quarterly Meetings.

Waccamaw. Oct. 3-4
ROBT. O. BURTON,
Presiding Elder.

Arrivals of Vessels.

During the month of August the numbers of vessels arriving at this port were as follows:

AMERICAN.
Steamers	7 6,291 tons
Schooners	12 3,294 "
19	9,515 tons

FOREIGN.
Barques	6 2,537 tons

Handsomely Said.

The Norfolk Virginian, of a recent date, makes the following handsome allusion to the removal of Mr. Jno. C. James from this city to Richmond, to take charge of the freight office of the R. & P. R. R. in that city:
A better appointment could scarcely have been made. Personal knowledge of his efficiency at Wilmington justifies this opinion, and this well-bred, genial North Carolinian—the very soul of honor and chivalry—will soon win in Virginia the deserved popularity he enjoyed in the State of his nativity. Bennett, of the State, and Drinkard, of the Dispatch, must look after the ex-journalist.

Rather Too Previous.

Yesterday morning a colored man called on a magistrate and asked the official to go with him to a residence in this city and marry him. The Squire consented to do so and told the expectant groom that he would be there in about an hour. The Justice put on a clean vest and wiped off his chin and proceeded to the house, where he met the expected groom. The supposed bride-elect was sick in bed and the Justice was ushered before her. He asked for the license, which was handed him, when the "lady" sat up in bed and vetoed the bill. She asked the man what he meant by bringing a magistrate there to marry her when she had repeatedly told him that she would rather have her throat cut and be thrown in the river than marry him. The expectant groom tried to talk her out of her determination and said he thought she would marry him if he had everything fixed. He wooed and she wouldn't.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish hooks and lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Personal.

Col. Wharton J. Green, our standard-bearer in this Congressional campaign and the next Representative from this district, arrived here Thursday night and stopped at the Purcell House. He speaks at Long Creek to-day.

Col. B. R. Moore, who has been confined to the house for a week past with a severe attack of fever, has been able to appear among us again. Col. Moore was to have spoken with Col. Green at Long Creek to-day but his physicians advised so strenuously against the venture that he has been forced to abandon the idea. He will be heard from later on in the campaign.

Mr. C. H. King, who has been absent at the North on a visit to relatives in the Green Mountain State, returned to the city on Thursday night.

Mr. A. G. Ricard has also returned home from a visit to New York City and State, having visited Saratoga during his absence.

Capt. Washington Catlett and Mr. E. B. Dickson also returned on Thursday night. Capt. Catlett has been spending his vacation with relatives near Fredericksburg and Mr. Dickson has been North for a month past.

Mr. W. Harriss Northrop and wife returned to this city Thursday night after making a tour of the noted watering places at the North.

Mr. Geo. Welsh, one of the Arion party, returned to the city last night after a visit to his friends and relatives in Virginia. He is looking much improved and evidently enjoyed his trip.

Bound Over.

Pendleton, the Rocky Mount Republican postmaster, who was arrested for robbing the mail and who is charged with stealing $16, was bound over to the U. S. District Court, at Goldsboro on Thursday. The evidence is said to be strong against him. He was one of those persons who have been paying voluntary contributions to "My dear Hubbell."

Still Ahead.

The Charleston News and Courier, of yesterday's date, contains a statement of the transactions in naval stores in that city during the year ending August 31st, 1882. The exhibit is very gratifying, but Wilmington still takes the lead, as is shown by the transactions in naval stores in this city, a statement of which has been kindly furnished us. The following are the transactions in the two cities during the time named:
Spirits. Rosin.
Wilmington.....91,414.....486,379
Charleston.....65,461.....284,845
Bal. for Wilmington.....25,953.....221,734

The Wilmington Steam Saw Mills.

Messrs. Northrop & Cumming have been busily engaged for the past two months in putting up a new mill and making many additions and improvements to their establishment, thereby increasing their capacity at least 50 per cent. They have put up a new Lane's Improved Heavy Mill, which is supplied with all modern improvements. The buildings have all been repaired and some rebuilt. They have found it necessary to pull down the old chimney which is said to have been built by Mr. Lazarus over forty years ago, and have erected in its stead a handsome one which contains 80,000 brick. New flues, boilers, furnaces, blunting saws, edgers, etc., have been put in, and the machinery throughout is almost entirely new. The capacity of the mill will be over 40,000 feet of lumber per day. Double circular saws, one above the other, will be used instead of the old fashioned upright ones. The building has been enlarged and the mill has been supplied with new slides. Messrs. Northrop & Cumming expect to resume operations in about one week. Their mill as it now stands, with its new machinery and modern improvements, is one of the handsomest in the South.

STATE NEWS.

Morganton Index: Mr. N. L. Chapman, of Shoup's Ford, on his way to Knoxville, Tenn., called on us last Monday. He reports a very interesting revival of religion in his neighborhood. Twenty-four persons were baptized at his place on last Sunday.

Charlotte Democrat: Work on the Baptist church so long discontinued but lately resumed, is being pushed forward rapidly. The first bushel of new corn raised in this county this year, was ground at the Mills of Hovis & Brown on Friday last the 25th August. It was from the plantation of Mr. R. R. Rea, and was well cured.

Tarboro Southern: The trestle at the Commons, near Wilson street, was put up by Mr. Duffee in twenty-four hours. Friday morning he began work on it, Saturday morning the iron rails on it were laid on, and that evening the engine was run over it. When the bridge was crossed by the locomotive it was christened "Battle's Bridge" in honor of our townsman, Mr. W. S. Battle.

Catawba Mercury: There are only eleven candidates in this county for the office of Superior Court Clerk. Our town had a breeze last Sunday evening, when Mr. Bob Allen and Miss Sallie Hinson, both of Lincoln county, drove up to "Squire Troot's" and asked him to unite them in marriage, in a hurry, as they were fleeing from the old folks. The "Squire" did not refuse and they were made happy in about a minute.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. Sutton, of Matthew's Station, while out in the woods cutting staves, came across and captured a curiosity of the animal kingdom that would draw big money at Barnum's circus. It is an Albino opossum. The animal is perfectly white and has pink eyes, and the oldest settler thereabouts never heard of dreamed of the like before.

News and Observer: The cotton season of 1881-82 ends to-day, and we have received over 61,000 bales. Seventy-five convicts are now at work on the carp ponds of the State, at Mr. Jesse Taylor's farm, north of the city. The city is now much healthier than the country, it is said. Very few people are sick here, with cases of any importance. Out in the country fevers are hitting the people right and left.

Goldsboro Messenger: During the heavy rain last Monday night, Mr. Joshua Mitchell, living near the Greene county line had ten hogs killed by lightning. The Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad is succeeding beyond expectation. We learn it has put new life into both Halifax and Scotland Neck, and besides a new town is springing up, half way between the two, called Tillery. The railroad will probably be extended either to Palmyra or Tarboro, at an early day.

Weldon News: On Sunday last two white people, a man and a woman, died at the poor house whose combined ages aggregate 191 years. The woman was 115 years of age and the man 76. There is no doubt about the ages, but we do not believe they were anybody's body servants. One day last week a negro woman with two children arrived here seeking aid to get to her old home in Lenoir county. She stated that she emigrated to Indiana during the exodus fever. She found it very difficult to live out there and had gotten this far on her way back home by the aid of various people. She said there were others who would gladly return if they were able. She was sent on toward her destination.

Wadesboro Times: "Liberals" in Anson—well, there are none. A gentleman in this county has twenty-nine children. We saw a curiosity in the back yard of Mr. J. A. Little in this place a few evenings since. It was a flourishing raspberry vine growing out of a china tree some ten feet from the ground. One day last week Miss Mattie Williams, the 10 year old daughter of Mr. Henry Williams, of Wadesboro, met with a fatal accident in Cabarrus county. She was on a visit to relatives, and went over on Wednesday to Misenheimer's mill, which was near by. While in the mill she was rapidly revolving, and finding it warm, she took her apron and placed the end of it upon the shaft. By some means her apron got caught in the shaft and also her clothing, and she was whirled around at a fearful rate. She was killed almost instantly, for her body was terribly mangled, and most of her bones broken, before aid could be rendered her.

Charlotte Journal: Mr. James A. Johnson, of Davidson College, died early yesterday morning, in the 71st year of his age, of dropsy of the heart. He was a brother of Col. Wm. Johnston of this city, and the eldest of a large family of brothers and sisters. Mr. John M. Morehead goes to Chapel Hill to-day to enter the University. He will occupy the same room in the old South building occupied by his grand father, Gov. John M. Morehead, and his father, Col. J. Morehead. The names of both of these ancestors are chipped out on the window sill, the first with the date 1816, the latter with the date 1853. Master John, Jr., proposes to chip in right under these with 1882. In Hickory Nut Gap, Rutherford county, right under the Chimney Rock, a Mr. Williams, a native of Rutherford, has this year four fruit evaporators which dry between 80 and 100 bushels of green fruit per day. He has orchards containing 4,000 trees which furnish the fruit for the evaporators. The product of these evaporators is vastly superior to the ordinary dried fruit and brings 100 per cent more upon the market; for instance, last year Mr. Williams sold his dried peaches at 30 cents per pound, while the ordinary only brought 15 cents. More than this, the whole product of the single evaporator he then operated, was sold on the Asheville market, right at home.

Col. Green's Appointments.

Col. Wharton J. Green, our candidate for Congress in this district, will address his fellow-citizens at the following times and places:
Long Creek, Pender county, Saturday Sept. 2nd.
Burgaw, Pender county, Monday, Sept. 4th.
Kenansville, Duplin county, Tuesday, Sept. 5th.
Beaufort, Carteret county, Thursday, Sept. 7th.
Speaking will commence about 11 o'clock a. m. if Negligee shirts are worn at the seashore. DYE sells the best.
