There was an exhibition at Burgaw yesterday a collar plant which was 7 feet high and 3 feet across the top. It was grown by Mr. R. L. Bordeaux.

The "Electric" shirt is provided with a neck band of ordinary construction to which a collar is attached. A tourist can wear it as a dress shirt. For sale by Dyer.

At Burgaw, yesterday, Mr. A. G. Eiland, of this city, the commissioner in the case, sold at public auction, under foreclosure, 5,600 acres of land, belonging to the Pigford estate, at $2,875. The First National Bank of this city was the purchaser.

Behind Time.

Up to 12 o'clock last night the steamer Monarch had not arrived in this city. Telegraphic inquiry with Smithville revealed the fact that the steamer left there at 3:30 o'clock. We understand that a colored excursion party went down on her yesterday. The proposition is that she has broken down on the river and is waiting for a tow.

Kenansville, Duplin county, Tuesday, Sept. 5th.

Speaking will commence about 11 o'clock a. m.

Spirits and Rosin.

The following is a comparative statement of the receipts of spirits and rosin for the years ending August 31st, 1881, and August 31st, 1882:

Wilmington 82,194 casks spirits and 13,290 barrels rosin in 1881, and 81,414 cask spirits and 486,379 barrels rosin in 1882.

Savannah - 54,704 casks spirits and 28,286 barrels rosin in 1881, and 77,059 casks spirits and 309,834 barrels rosin in 1882.

This is a "majority" for Wilmington of 27,881 casks spirits and 152,904 barrels rosin, in 1881, and 14,355 casks spirits and 176,545 barrels rosin in 1882.

If these Savannahvillians are going to fulfill the threat made by them some years ago that they would lead the naval store market it is time that they were seeing about it.

THE NEWEST SHOW AND THE BIGGEST.

S. H. Barrett & Co.'s New United Monster Railroad Shows.

This newest as well as most colossal of all amusement enterprises will positively exhibit at Wilmington on Monday, September 11th.

It is the best advertised show that has ever been announced here. Not only are its bright and costly pictorials displayed on every side, for miles around, and its illustrated newspaper and programmes scattered like snow-flakes, but there is solid emphatic style in its manner of presenting its claims which commands attention and begets confidence. It is conspicuous for not indulging in the stale, dishonest "aggregation," "alliance," "combination" and "twelve shows-in-one" clap-trap, which has always proved a delusion and a snare and involves such preposterous claims as to utterly discredit itself with all except the greenest fools. On the contrary, it assumes only to be one new and great show, which is the best of reasons for believing it to be so. Neither does it resort to manufactured names and purposely mixed and vague generalities and figures, in order to convey the swindling impression that it has rare attractions, which, in fact, have no honest existence.

Its attractions are multifarious as well as novel, and it is a matter of surprise how many strictly new features can be crowded in a single exhibition. Zebras broken to perform incredible feats, hurdle-leaping reindeers, giraffes, harnessed to Roman racing chariots, Haariman's steam air-ship in operation, a man-sized riding cynocephalus, elks tandem, ten funny clowns in simultaneous rivalry, high and long-distance double somersault leapers, peerless, exploits in the gymnasium, extraordinarily-trained thoroughbred horses, comical school of monkey comedians, monster living White Nile hippopotamus, extraordinary seas of Herculean strength, deeds of masculine and feminine intrepidity, and, in fact, so great an array of novelties and surprises that it would transcend the limits of a newspaper notice to give them even the briefest mention. The street parade is commensurate in magnitude and grandeur with the exhibition, and introduces, among other attractions, thirty Arabian camels, decorated in the richest and most costly trappings and mounted by native Mahomedans.

Pender County Taxables.

The total amount of taxable property in Pender county, for the year 1882, as taken from the tax list in the office of the Register of Deeds, amounts to $1,230,371, divided as follows: - 353,794 acres of land, valued at $856,844; 117 town lots, valued $24,935; 723 horses, valued $438.75; 389 mules, valued at $285.70; 2 jacks, valued at $110; 1 jennet, valued at $25; 359 goats, valued at $358; 6,576 head of cattle, valued at $411.64; 18,490 hogs, valued at $20,387; 5,714 sheep, valued at $5,747; value without specifying $679.21; money on hand $14,952; solvent credits $339.43; shares in any incorporated company $61,880; railroad franchise $29,086.

The taxes for county purposes are 264 cents on every $100 valuation and 784 cents on each poll, $4,671.91. Special county taxes are 16-20 cents on every $100 of taxable property and 50 cents on each poll, amounting to $3,101.39. Total county tax, $7,589.32. Speaking at Burgaw.

At 1 o'clock, p. m., yesterday, Dr. W. T. Ennett, Chairman of the Pender County Green-Bennett Club, introduced Col. Green in a neat little speech. Dr. Ennett spoke of the great pleasure it afforded him to say that the good people of Pender were fully roused in the interest of the campaign, and that Pender was ready to do her duty in the November election.

Col. Green came forward and commenced one of the most forcible arguments it has been our pleasure to listen to.

He said that the question might be asked why his competitor was not present. He stated that he had invited him to meet him and only about ten days ago received a reply saying his time would not permit him to enter the joint canvass; but that when he reached Lillington, to his great surprise, he found Mr. Canaday there and they had a joint discussion and the fiat has already gone forth that Canaday got a severe rasping. Col. Green did not say this, but that is the verdict of the audience present at Lillington.

He spoke of the great question of popular education, and said that North Carolina to-day had a system of education not surpassed by any State in the Union, which was due to Democratic administration. During Radical rule the appropriation was about $38,000 to education in four years. Democratic administration in four years appropriated about $300,000. He next took up the question of internal revenue, and his argument was forcible and conclusive, showing that it should be abolished. He said when the revenue system is abolished, just so soon will the death-knell of the Radical party be sounded. We have never listened to a more scathing speech, and Radicalism was handled by the speaker in a way which we have rarely heard, and if any of them were present they must have quailed in their shoes. Col. Green then touched with great force upon the tariff question, showing that the tariff was burdensome upon the people and should be abolished. He showed conclusively, by figures, that were unanswerable, that the tariff made the rich man richer, and the poor man poorer.

He spoke with great force of argument of the special tax bonds, and showed that if the Radical party were again in power a debt of over twenty million dollars would be saddled up the State. The speaker took up the question of County Government, and showed that during the six years that the Radical party were in power under the election of the county officers by the people, poverty was the result in counties where negro rule prevailed. Under Democratic rule since in these same counties - the debt of the counties has been reduced in many instances at least one hundred per cent.

Col. Green addressed himself to the colored people, showing them that the Democratic party was their true friend, and was the only party which had done anything to protect their race, to educate, and look after their blind and deaf.

He dealt heavy blows upon the Radical alias Liberal party, showing that they had bought over to their ranks a few men who called themselves Democrats, but who have been on the fence for years. He concluded his fine effort by appealing to the good people of Pender to stand by the Democratic party, as he believed they would do, and roll up a big majority for constitutional liberty, which could only be done by voting the Democratic ticket in November next. The speaker was frequently interrupted by applause from his attentive audience.

Colonel Edward D. Hall, of this city, followed our standard-bearer. He paid a glowing tribute to Col. Green, and showed that no man in North Carolina was more entitled to the votes of her people than Colonel Wharton J. Green, true to North Carolina in every action of his life, and counseled his old friends to give their support to this distinguished son of North Carolina. Col. Hall spoke for about three-quarters of an hour, touching the various issues of the campaign, and was listened to by his old friends with the greatest attention.

After the speaking, our next congressman was waited upon by a committee of gentlemen and escorted to the residence of Dr. W. T. Ennett, where he was met by an assemblage of ladies, Dr. Satchwell, with a handsome bouquet in hand, presented the floral tribute to Col. Green, in behalf of the ladies of Pender. He replied in a most happy and pleasing speech of about three minutes length, which completely won the admiration of the fair donors.

The report of the Chief of the Fire Department was received and ordered on file.

Alderman Huggins offered the following:

WHEREAS, Much dissatisfaction has been created among the people of this city concerning the action of the Board at their meeting held in August regarding the purchase of the Wilmington Market House Company's property; therefore

Resolved, That before final action has been had in the purchase of this property the question be submitted to the voters of the city for approval or rejection.

Alderman Worth moved to lay the resolution on the table, which motion was adopted.
