SPECIAL TAX BONDS.

The one act of the Radical administration that stands alone and has no parallel in official fraud and personal infamy, had its birth in the Legislature of 1968-'69, and the convention immediately preceding it, when they enacted laws authorizing the issue of certain bonds known as the special tax bonds, whereby they involved the State in a at of $23,680,000.

be acts authorizing the issue of e of these bonds were manifestly unconstitutional and were so declared by the Supreme Court of the State. Under that decision, some millions of dol- cent.; rubber boots for bad weather, lars in those bonds that had not been issued were retained by the Treasurer sickness his morphia is taxed $1 per and some millions more, which had been issued, were surrendered by the holders thereof. But the sum so authorized, there are eleven millions three hundred and sixty-six thousand dollars of those bonds still outstanding against the State, which, with the accrued interest, now amounts to over twenty millions of dollars.

The Democratic Legislature of 1879, and the people in 1880, adopted an tective tariff-certain as death, hungry amendment to the constitution prohibiting the General Assembly to assume or tax to pay the principal or interest of said special tax bonds. This, it was thought, ended the matter, as individual holders of the bonds cannot sue the

But a new and unexpected view of the question has given rise to the gravest apprehensions on this subject. The State of New York has passed through her legislature a law enabling her citizens to institute and prosecute suits at law in the Supreme Court of the United States, in the name of the State of New York, against any other State in the United States. By authority of this statute, the owners of the bonds of the State of Louisiana have instituted suits against the State of Louisiana, in the Supreme Court of the United States, using the name of the State of New York as the plaintiff in said actions. If these bondholders shall recover judgments against the State of Louisiana, actions will be instituted in the name of the State of New York vs. the State of North Carolina. The chief defense rould be made by the State is that the bonds were issued in fraud of her rights and in law are not binding on her. If the State fails to prove corrupt conspiracy to defraud her, the bonds will be considered as sufficient proof that the State owes the debts demanded, and the court will give judgments against our State for sums of money aggregating an amount exceeding twenty millions of dollars.

How will these Judgments be paid? The whole amount of real estate in North Carolina is about $100,000,000. These judgments, then would take from every citizen in North Carolina onefifth of all his real estate to pay a lot of bonds created to enrich the corrupt members of the Legislature of 1868-'69. The political party that is elected by the people in the present campaign to dent-for us to change that rule? WHAT THE TARIFF COSTS

THE FARMER In the first place, the farmer pays all the taxes, State and National, that all other citizens are required to pay, When he starts out in the spring to pitch his erop, on his plow he pays 50 per cent. ad valorem; on his wagon, harrow, and other irons, 50 per cent.; on his jack-knife, 50 per cent.; on the square by which he measures his work. 6 cents per pound and 30 per cent. ad valorem; on his files and rasps, 10 cents per pound and 30 per cent.; on his saw, 40 per cent.; for the iron hoops which inclose his bale of cotton when made, 24 cents per pound; his wrought nails, killed two of them at one shot. 24 cents per pound; his cut nails, 14 iron hinges for his door, 24 cents per pound; on his wife's sad-iron, 11 cents the bagging for his cotton bales, he pays spiked like an elephant's. 2 cents per yard; on his wife's spool thread, 4 cent each and 30 per cent.; on the common stoneware of his table, 25 per cent.; on his school-boy's slate pencil, 40 per cent.; on his glass tumblers, 40 per cent.; on his sugar and molasses per cent.; on his coarse blankets, about 95 per cent.; on his wool hat and flaunel shirt about the same; on his wife's shawl, 50 cents per pound and 35 per cent., (over 100 per cent,) on his borax, 10 cents per pound; his clock, 35 per cent.; his wife's camphor, 5 cents per pound; her gloves, 50 per cent.; hair-pins, 50 per cent.; on his glue 20 per cent., his grind-stone 1 cent and 20 per cent.; suspenders, 35 per fruit trees and his garden and agricultural seeds he is taxed 20 per cent. ad valorem. Nearly all of this goes into the pockets of the manufacturers, who claim that the farmer's prosperity is increased by this searching taxation, Nothing is free to him. Nothing escapes this all-pervading, inevitable proas the grave, unsatisfiable as the sea. From the time he sees the light until darkness, the Southern farmer knows no untaxed hour or untaxed thing. THINK OF IT WELL.

When a country is thriving and prosperous, when all its natural resources are being rapidly ascertained and developed, when its transportation facilpanding and new ones springing into life, when its government is economically carried on, when justice is impartially administered, when peace and good order and respect for law everywhere prevail, when its people are happy and contented, especially when all He reports everything in the way of Western winter, red, spot, $1.11@ these things come about after a period crops looking uncommonly well, and the $1.111. The material results of Democratic rule in North Carolina are simply wonderful. We seem to be on a career of prosperity and development that, if checked in no way, promises a most magnificent condition of things at no distant day.

MALARIA

Malaria is an almost indescribable malady which not even the most talented physicians are able to fathom. Its cause is most frequently ascribed to local surroundings, and there is very little question, but this opinion is substantiated by facts. Malaria does not necessarily mean chills and fever while these troubles usually accompany it. It often affects the sufferer with general lassitude, accompanied by loss of appetite. sleeplessness, a tired feeling and a high fever, the person afflicted growing weaker and weaker, loses flesh day after day, until he becomes a mere skeleton, a shadow of his former self.

Malaria once having laid its hold upon the human frame, the door of the system is thrown open to nervous diseases. The body weak and enfeebled absorbs no nourishment, but subsisting upon itself, the digestive organs no longer perform their functions; the liver becomes torpid, and other organs failing to do their routine work, speedily become disordered, and dissolution and death are apt to ensue.

In addition to being a certain cure for malaria and chills and fever, BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is highly recommended for all diseases requiring a certain and efficient tonic; especially indigestion, dyspepsia, intermittent fevers, want of appetite, loss of strength, lack of energy, etc. Enriches the blood, strengthens the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs. It is for sale by all respectable dealers in medicines, price, $1 per bottle
