Burned to Death.

A child of Winnie Weary; colored, at Smithville, was-so severely burned on Tuesday night that she died from the effects yesterday morning. The child, who was about 13 years of age, in attempting to ignite a piece of paper by running it down a lamp chimney, turned the lamp over, setting her clothing on fire. The child ran out of the dwelling and in her alarm crawled under it-When assistance reached her she was found to be severely burned and beyond all hopes of recovery.

Mr. J. C. Chase, Superintendent of the Clarendon Water Works, returned to this city Tuesday night. He has been North inspecting filters in use in large cities by water-works companies. He seems to be favorably impressed with one he has had his eye on for some time past, and the company which manufactures them is now building him one for a practical test in this city. He has investigated the various devices for filtering water supplies, and is more favor ably impressed with the one which he will try than any others he has seen. If the test is satisfactory, the company for our inspection two stalks of corn will order a filter large enough to supgrown by him on his plantation about ply all the subscribers with water three miles East of the city, known as in this city.
