WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19 1882. VOL. VI.

Speaking and Breaking of Ground.

There will be a grand Democratic mass meeting at Point Caswell on Jno. N. Staples, A. M. Waddell and N. A. Stedman, Esq., have been invited to speak. A very large crowd is expected and the ladies are especially invited to attend. In connection with the speaking the grand sight of forty handsome young ladies, breaking ground for the Clinton, Point Caswell & Wilmington Railroad, will be witnessed. They will be under the charge of Chief Engineer Duncan McR. O'Hanlon, and Col. L. L. Polk will deliver the address to them. At night there will be a ball given for the benefit of the Academy.

The Two Plays.

When Harel Kirke was withdrawn from the stage of the Madison Square Theatre, after its wonderful run, many people predicted that its successor never would win the high place in public favor which the great drama held. It did not, however, take the critical New York theatre goers long to discover fine dramatic situations and hidden beauties in "Esmeralda" which made this simple domestic story by universal consent the "successor and rival of Hazel Kirke." Our citizens will soon have the opportunity of judging for themselves of the tral will shortly commence running respective merits of the two plays, since say that our clever old friend—no, no, trains through from Shelby to Wil- the theatre has sent its excellent com- young friend, we mean-Capt. # The Monsters Fought.

The following very interesting description of a sea fight was written by a gentleman of this city, who has ploughed the briny deep, and who has paid homage to old Neptune oftener than he wants to be known:

In the early part of March 1867, being a passenger on the steamer State of South Carolina, Capt. Morton, from San Francisco to Panama, and when in the neighborhood of Cape Saint Lucas, we had the pleasure of witnessing one of the most ably-contested sea fights on record. This battle occurred between a whale, a sword-fish and two thrashers, The whale was pursuing his way to up the coast in search of colder water, no doubt, and on his journey was at-Lippincott's Magazine.

Third Warders.

Do not forget the meeting of the Third Ward Democratic Club at the City Hall to-night. It is hoped Tuesday, the 26th inst. Hon. Z. B. that a large crowd will be in at-Vance, Cols. W. J. Green, L. L. Polk, tendance. It is the intention to reorganize the club for the approaching campaign.

Fine Rice.

We saw at Mr. J. K. McIlhenny's drug store yesterday afternoon a bundle of rice, measuring seven feet and three inches in height with heads from eleven to twelve inches long. It was taken from the plantation of Col, T. C. McIlhenny in Brunswick county. The greater portion of his crop is as pretty as the sample.

Free Marbles.

vesterday morning and in large numbers to get Otterbourg's marbles. The throng around his store was so large that he was compelled to close his doors and call on a policeman to move them off. He is satisfied that the issue of the REVIEW in which was announced the fact that there would be "free marbles" at his place was read. He said there must have been four thousand boys after marbles. Their parents read the notice to them.

What Does it Mean?

We can hardly surmise, but the boys pany to produce the two dramas with Lewis, is building that house in Weldon them for the reason that one end has an extension and is evidently intended for Dolly Browning-Treasurer of Halifax county, by 6,000 majority-and the other has iron bands of contraction on it, which is evidently intended for Capt. Court, for larceny, but who escaped Lewis. We are certain of it, for Capt. L's end is held down with mushroom, anchors. But after all it may be that ordered a new suit of black clothes and has been hanging around house furnishlead to his capture. A short time girls, he has some motive in building, amen, and Weldon, old hoss.
