EDAILY BEVIEW

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7 1882.

A Few Words.

County Executive Committee and the will put the market ordinances in force. patched. Publication Committee of the Young Men's Democratic Club, relative to a division of time at the Democratic meeting which was held at the Oaks on Wednesday night:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 3, 1882 J. G. Boney, Esq., Ch'm Dem. Ex. Com: SIR:-Seeing a public announcement that there would be addresses delivered Hazel Kirke. in the Fifth Ward by Messrs. A. G. Ricand, John D. Bellamy, Jr., and John C. Davis, in behalf of the Liberal and Republican County Executive Comtime at said meeting.

I am, sir, very respectfully E. H. KING.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 4, 1882. MR. E. H. KING, Dear Sir:-

Your communication requesting a division of time at the Democratic meeting in the Fith Ward has just been handed me. Our speakers, Messrs, Bellamy, Davis and Ricaud are all willing to grant a division of time, but owing to the lateness of the hour when your note was received. 5:20 o'clock this P. M., and the fact Br. barque Mcrsey, Niejahn, arrived that the meeting has been advertised exclusively as a Democratic meeting, I will have to decline. But to show posed of: the willingness of the gentlemen to meet you they authorize me to state that they each or all will meet you at any time and place you may designate. G. J. BONEY.

Ch'm. Dem. Ex. Com. It will be seen by Mr. Boney's reply that the request for a division of time Guilty. was treated in a fair and courteous The New River oysters brought to spirit and that a good reason was market this week are about the finest given for declining the proposed diviswe have ever seen thus early in the sea- sion. This should have been sufficient but it seems that it was not, as an attempt was made to intertere with the meeting and to break it up; an attempt which was evidently the result of a preconcerted plan and which seems to have met with the endorsement of some prominent leaders of the Republican party who were present on the occasion. This is to be condemned in plain terms. It is not a legitimate mode of warfare and will not be tolerated. The Democrats in this city are fully able to take care of themselves and they propose to do so. They do not interfere with the Republicans in their meetings and they do not intend to allow others to interfere with them. In this they are sustained by the strong arm of the law and it will be exerted to the utmost to protect them

This much for the position of the Democrats in this city in regard to interference with their meetings. And now let us say something else. We would earnestly beg of our citizens, of all classes, colors and conditions, to see Pomegranates are a rare fruit in this that this campaign is conducted in a proper, quiet manner, as becomes an tween Ann and Nun streets, in this intelligent people. Nothing can be city, which has a number of very fine gained by violence, and we are satisfied that no one will submit to intimidation. We are one people, whatever our differences of political sentiment may be, and can see no reason in the world why these differences cannot be settled in a quiet and orderly manner. In this country every man is entitled to his North Carolina melodrama of Esmerown opinion, and to the expression of alda. it, without fear, and this is one of his Munson, T. E Bond and J. C. Munds inalienable rights, and he is a coward who is not prepared to maintain it. Let us then get through with this campaign, if not without heat and asperities, at all events with an outward show of respect and regard for the opin-

The Madison Square Theatre Company was greeted last night by a very large audience. The troupe is a very fine one in every respect and justly deserves the praise which has been bestowed upon it. It can be truthfully said that there is not a poor actor in the troupe. Miss Belle Gilbert. as Hazel Kirke, completely won her audience. She is an actress of great ability and renders her character in a most charming and artistic manner. Miss Spence as Dolly Dutton was also very pleasing and charming.

Mrs. Chas. Peters, as Mercy Kirke, played the part of the old lady to perfection. Mr. Burbeck, as Pittacus Green, was simply immense and in his particular role is inimitable. Mr. R. F. McClannin's Dunstan Kirke was in every sense of the word the old English gentleman. Aaron Rodney, by Mr. Meldon, was faithfully performed. All of the minor parts were good, and in a word we are free to admit that the company is the best which has visited this city in a number of years. Tonight they appear in the charming Painful Accident.

An old colored man by the nane of Sam, (surname unknown to us), formerly in the employ of Mr. George Myers, met with a very painful, if not serious, accident at the wharf of the New York Steamship Co., at about 7 o'clock this morning. It seems that he was assisting to load the steamer, and had one of the ordinary wharf trucks, upon which was a box of bacon, when a plank gave way and his foot slipped, the truck coming against the under part of the thigh near the knee. inflicting a deep gash which nearly severed two of the sinews. He had strength enough, however, to walk up to the drug store of Mr. J. K. McIllhenny, where Mr. J. W. Conoley was in attendance, who dressed the wound neatly and then sent for a conveyance and had the man sent to his home .-The wound is a painful one, and will probably confine him to his house for several weeks.
