The fish market was poorly supplied yesterday.

New moon this morning at 47 minutes past 12 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton yesterday at this port were 705 bales.

The barque Ystava sailed from New-York on the 6th inst. for this port.

A trunk or travelling bag can be bought of DYER & SON for a little money.

The steamship Regulator, Capt. Doane, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.

The church cases have occupied the attention of the Criminal Court for the past two days.

It is proposed to fire to-day, at Market Dock, at 12 o'clock, one hundred guns in honor of the Democratic victory in Ohio.

After all, it wasn't a cyclone from the South which struck those Radicals up about Ohio. It was a blizzard from the Northwest.

To Builders and others—Go to JACOB'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

Dave Mallett was the only one before the Mayor yesterday. He was up for disorderly conduct and was sentenced to one day's imprisonment.

Our new front is now in and our store is light and airy. We get a good light on our goods, which we will always be pleased to show, and which will be sold at the lowest prices.

No tidings as yet have been received from Mrs. Solomon, who has been missing for the past three days. Boats were sent out yesterday afternoon to watch the river, and if she has risen it is supposed that they will find her tonight.

Exports Foreign.
Nor. brig Gazellen, Capt. Weibze, cleared yesterday for Antwerp with 1,357 casks spirits turpentine and 100 barrels rosin, valued at $30,914, shipped by the Chess-Carley Co.

The Effects of the Storm.
The rainstorm yesterday flooded the L. of Messrs. Brown & Roddick's store. The gutters leading from the L. became blocked up and the water was backed on the roof, which leaked at such a rate as to convince one that the roof was but a sieve. The floor was covered fully three inches with water, but we are glad to know that the damages were very light.

It Rained.
One of the most steady and continuous rain-storms we have ever known in this section burst upon us yesterday morning. It began, in fact, on Tuesday night, but it was fitful and did not become a steady down-pour until yesterday morning. The streets were flooded early in the day, and some serious damages were at one time feared, but they did not result. The rain-storm was accompanied by thunder and lightning, and at this hour, 10 o'clock, the rain is steadily falling.

New Cotton Rules.
The Board of Managers of the Produce Exchange yesterday adopted several new rules for the government of the Exchange, as follows:
Factors are required to keep cotton in warehouses and in the hands of a watchman.
Four days are allowed in which to examine cotton and pay bills, if the bill is rendered on the day of purchase—otherwise three days only are allowed.
Brokers are required to guarantee the observance of these rules in all transactions negotiated by them whether between members of the Exchange or non-members.
The Secretary will, in a few days, furnish copies of the rules to members of the Exchange.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12 1882. NO. 243

The Storm.
Storm signals were ordered up yesterday by the War Department and vessels were cautioned not to go South on account of the reported cyclone off the coast of Florida. Early in the day telegrams were received at the Signal Office, from General Hazen, ordering up signals for Smithville and Fort Macon. Later in the day other telegrams were received stating that the cyclone, which had centered off the Northern coast of Florida, was moving with renewed vigor in a Northeasterly direction, which would bring the storm upon us. We telephoned the Sound last night and the only information we could receive was that the wind was very strong, and that the seas were running very high. Notwithstanding the fact that it has been raining all day, and a portion of the time in torrents, we hear of but slight damages in this city, nor have we heard reports of damages in Smithville. The amount of rainfall here up to 3 o'clock yesterday was three inches, and at 11 o'clock, last night, when the report was taken at the Signal Office, the rainfall registered 4.30 inches.

East Lynne.
Miss Ada Gray will appear at the Opera House to-morrow evening in her version of East Lynne. Of her the New York News says:

The performance of the dual role of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine, in the well-known play, "East Lynne," by Miss Ada Gray, at this theatre, has never been equalled by any of the great actresses whose names are inseparably linked with the part. The piece, as played by Miss Laura Keane, Miss Lucille Western and others, is quite familiar to theatre-goers. Miss Gray has reconstructed the play, changing it in many respects from the version acted by the ladies above cited, yet adhering closely to the story of the novel upon which the drama is founded. In its present form the story is more clearly presented and much more effective. From the first entrance of Miss Gray upon the stage she is in entire rapport with the audience. In the earlier scenes she gives some very appropriate and delicate dashes of comedy with a naivete that is delightful, and is always very highly appreciated, as evidenced by bursts of laughter and loud applause. In her moments of jealousy, in the scenes with her husband, the transitions from doubt and suspicion to trusting confidence are charmingly and most naturally depicted. The discovery of her husband's perfidy, as she supposes, is given with a force, though not boisterous either in tone or manner, that is startling. In the scene of her parting with Sir Francis Levison, and her interview with Lord Mount Seavern, she is admirable, her portrayal of remorse and resignation being most touching and tearful. Her outburst of feeling at meeting with her little son and her agony at his death are given with a power and pathos that never fail to touch the heart, the audience being affected to tears by the realism of the sorrowful scene. He death is a picture full of sadness, the curtain falling amid the convulsive sobs of those whose pent-up feelings at last give way. Such is the power of Miss Gray's acting. Whether judged by the smiles, tears and applause of the audience, or by the cold rules of criticism, Miss Gray stands pre-eminently as "East Lynne" on the stage. Her costumes are of marvelous good taste and beauty, and are shown to excellent advantage on her grandly magnificent figure. The play is well acted in all its parts, and is well mounted, there being several new scenes.

Indications.
Venor gives the following forecast of the weather for October: First week, some sharp frost in northern sections, about the 6th. Altogether a favorable week, but there will probably be local wind and rain storms on the 3rd and 6th. Very stormy month in Ontario and Western United States. Second week will probably enter with severe wind storms and heavy rains east and west; marked storm period about the 9th and 10th; end of week fine and calmer weather; frosts may occur about the 12th. Third week stormy, with snow falls in western and northwestern sections, southwestern Minnesota and Dakota. Storms on lakes and at Chicago and Milwaukee. Storms will extend to Cincinnati. General snow falls 17th and 18th. Cold weather in Iowa, severe weather towards Des Moines. A terrible week of storms in all sections. Snow in England. Fourth week, about October 25, generally stormy weather, with snowfalls in Ontario and in maritime provinces. Cold miserable wet and sleety weather or snow in New York. An unusually severe, October, storm in England.

Death of Mrs. Fishblate.
We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Laura Fishblate, the beloved consort of ex-Mayor Fishblate, of this city, who departed this life yesterday afternoon. She was a lady of many excellent and amiable traits of character and her loss will be deeply felt by the large number of those who knew and admired and loved her. Our sincerest sympathies are tendered to our bereaved friend in his terrible affliction.

We are reliably informed that there is not a Liberal in Robeson county.

If asked what is Butterworth in Ohio? we should answer; not much.

Young, middle aged, or old men, suffering from nervous debility and kindred weaknesses, should send two stamps for large treatise, giving successful treatment. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. sun-thurs.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Patriot: A box car containing 24 bags of cotton was burned at the depot this morning. The cotton was discovered on fire as the train pulled in from Charlotte, and is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The cotton was shipped by J. E. Sanford, Greenville, S. C., to Hall & Co., Boston, Mass.. Nearly all of it was destroyed.

Charlotte Journal: Freighters are so heavy now on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta road that all the regular trains are double sectioned, besides many extras. Last Sunday a week ago Mr Watt Henderson, who lives near the old fair grounds, missed a small dog he owned, and heard nothing more of it until Monday, when a neighbor, named Mr Bloom, brought it home in a most emaciated condition. He had found the dog in a dry mining pit near the Rudisell mine, having been attracted thither by the barking of the dog. It had been in the hole about eight days without a bite to eat or a drop of water to drink.

News and Observer: Cotton receipts yesterday 310 bales. Father Oberly, of the Church of the Sacred Heart, is very sick with fever. After payment of all expenses, the ladies of the Edenton Street Methodist church made $124.20 from the lecture of Dr. Chas. F. Deems. Yesterday morning Major John Gatling arrived in the city from the North, and in an hour or two started for Uley's. On the way his horses, which were spirited animals, were frightened at the breaking of the buggy and ran away at the corner of Person and Jones streets, throwing him out and inflicting slight wounds on the face and head. Major Gatling kept right on and filled his engagement at Uley's. The go-head town of Winston has had another fire, as we learn from a gentleman just from that place. Foy's livery and stable was totally destroyed by the devouring element on Sunday evening about 8:30 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown. All of the stock and vehicles were saved with the exception of his best phaeton and carriage. Insurance very small. An attempt was also made to burn the building in which the Winston Leader is located. A negro boy set fire to a box of waste paper in the passage and then made his escape. Whether this diabolical deed was an effort to destroy the Leader or plunder the stores is not known. The authorities are on the track of the perpetrator.

Charlotte Observer: McAden's factory, at Lowell, will be illuminated with the electric light before the end of the week, the contractor having commenced putting in the lighting apparatus last Friday. The factory hands have organized a fire company and Mr. McAden has ordered a fine steam fire engine for their use. Through a gentleman from Lincolnton we learn of the suicide, in that place last Saturday, of Caleb Hobbs, from an extraordinary cause—grief over the death of his mule. The mule died Friday and Caleb concluded that his life was henceforth a burden to him, and that he could not live without his mule, got some whiskey and laudanum, mixed them and drank the fatal dose. Col. W. R. Myers, president of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, on Saturday paid out $12,500, on the debt of the company. At the time the road was leased to the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad Company, about a year ago, a floating debt of some $12,000 was outstanding, which has all been paid off, and the payment on Saturday was on the mortgage debt. Under the lease the company receives $25,000 per annum for ninety nine years, and is at no expense whatever beyond a small salary of the president, which officer must be continued to keep up an official existence.
