The State Fair commences Monday.
 The storm signal was flying again yesterday.
 Nor barque Saga, Bie, sailed from Deepwater on the 4th inst for this port.
 Ger barque Carl Max, Meyer, sailed from Amsterdam for this port on the 2d inst.

Nor brig Fred, Thorsen, from this port for London, arrived off Falmouth on the 28th ult.
 A trunk or travelling bag can be bought of DYER & SON for a little money.
 The Criminal Court will wind up its duties for the term to-morrow and adjourn.

Nor barque Eera, Jorgensen, from Arendel, from this port, put into Dover on the 5th inst., damaged by collision.
 The registration books of the Second Ward have been moved to Mr. J. C. Lumsden's establishment, on Front street.

The steamship Regulator, Capt. Doane, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.
 The Republicans are preparing to go to work. They have had a speakers' stand erected at the head of the site of the Old Market.

The heavy rains of Wednesday washed the streets very badly but the street hands have been hard at work repairing the damage.
 There was one case of disorderly conduct and one of drunk before His Honor, the Mayor, on yesterday. They were discharged.

Quite an interesting protracted meeting is going on at the Fifth Street M. E. Church. Much interest is manifested by those who attend the meetings.
 We understand from Mr. Williams, the Clerk of the Market, that Messrs. Geo. H. Johnson, Sikes & Bowden, Geo. F. Tilley, Herman Hintze and T. A. Watson will all occupy stalls in the New Market on Saturday morning.

It is reported that a boy was drowned in the Princess street dock on Wednesday night. The rumor is that he was asleep in a boat, which was capsized during the storm. We could not trace the rumor and only give it for what it is worth.

Three Cents.
 The election law only allows three cents a name for registering the names of voters. So far there has been only one name registered in the Fourth Ward and it is feared that the registrar's sudden acquisition of such boundless wealth will bankrupt the county.

New Appointment.
 We learn that Mr. Samuel P. Collier has been appointed Chief Clerk in the Postoffice in this city. He will fill the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. J. A. Springer. Mr. Collier is thoroughly competent and we have no doubt but that he will discharge the duties of his office in a highly satisfactory manner.

Mrs. Solomon's Body Recovered.
 The body of Mrs. Bertha Solomon was discovered in the river yesterday morning just about the place at which she was supposed to have sunk beneath the waters. Her body rose just under the wharf. She was carried to the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Gus Rosenthal, on Fifth street, and from thence to Oakdale cemetery when she was interred.

Mr. Armstrong Endorsed.
 At a meeting of the New Hanover County Executive Committee, held last evening, Mr. T. J. Armstrong, of Pender county, was endorsed as the nominee of the party in this district (New Hanover and Pender) for the Senate, as follows:

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the nomination of Thomas J. Armstrong, of Pender county, to represent the counties of Pender and New Hanover in the Senate of North Carolina, and pledge him our most earnest support.

Sunk at Battery Island.
 The Italian brig Geronimo C., from Kingston, Ja., for Trieste, with log-wood, which put into this port a few days since, leaking, sunk at Battery Island, opposite Smithville, during the blow on Wednesday night. She had been run ashore on the island with the view of endeavoring to discover and repair the leaks. The crew all escaped.

The Threatened Storm.
 We understand that the Signal Office that on Wednesday night the wind blew at Smithville at the rate of 35 miles an hour. The maximum speed here was 26 miles and at Fort Macon it was 40 miles. It is probable that the cyclone has passed out at sea to the South of us, as the storm signal which was displayed here yesterday on the night previous has been taken down and the wind has abated.

Returned.
 Mrs. E. A. Lumsden returned from the Northern markets, on Wednesday night, where she has been for the past ten days attending the openings of millinery. She selected from the stocks thus displayed a very large quantity of the latest and handsomest millinery, etc. She will be ready to serve her lady friends in a few days and will take pleasure in exhibiting her large stock which excels in variety and elegance anything she has ever offered for sale in this city.

Why it Was.
 There has been complaint on the part of some of our subscribers at the delay in the delivery of the REVIEW yesterday morning but we know that all will be satisfied with the explanation. It rained very hard during the night and before day in the morning and the wind was very high consequently the routes were withheld for an hour or so to await the abatement of the storm. It would have been almost cruel to force the boys out into such a tempest while there was a chance of a lull in the storm by a little delay. When the Editor of this paper left for home, long after midnight, it was raining and blowing at a fearful rate.

The Market Stalls.
 The privilege of the choice of stalls in the Market Houses was sold yesterday at auction by Messrs. Cronly & Morris. The bonus paid for the choice ranged from one to four dollars. Five stalls were selected by butchers who expect to have beef in the market to-morrow morning. The fish market sections rented for five dollars each, and the cook-shops at $6, $7 and $10. There is no rent charged for the use of the stalls from now until the first of January next and the plan adopted in selling the privileges of choice was adopted to keep from showing favoritism. It was deemed the most equitable way in which to distribute the stalls.

Criminal Court.
 This tribunal was in session yesterday, His Honor Judge Meares on the bench, and Mr. Solicitor Moore representing the State.
 The following cases were disposed of:
 State vs. Henry King, harboring an escaped convict. Defendant submitted and was sentenced to three months in the County House of Correction.
 State vs. Jim Anderson, larceny. Defendant submitted.
 State vs. Jim Roberson, alias Jim Anderson, larceny. Defendant submitted.
 State vs. Emma Bradley, slander of women. Not guilty.
 State vs. Aaron Nathan, A and B. Not guilty.

State vs. J. W. Wilburn, false pretence. Guilty. Sentenced to six years in Penitentiary. Appeal in forma pauperis prayed and granted.
 State vs. J. W. Wilburn, false pretence. Continued.
 State vs. David Walker, false pretence. Defendant submitted, and was given until the next term of the court to pay the cost.
 State vs. Thos. Nixon, larceny; continued.
 State vs. Edward Whitney, larceny; nol pros with leave.
 State vs. David Statue, larceny, nol pros with leave.
 State vs. John R. Melton, assault and battery; not guilty.

Quite a number of sci fa cases were disposed of. The court then took a recess until this morning at 10 o'clock.
 Our new front is now in and our store is light and airy. We get a good light on our goods, which we will always be pleased to show, and which will be sold at the lowest prices.

A. & I. SHRIER.

Broken Leg.
 Last evening, while a car load of horses were being unloaded, one of them reared up and pawed Master Charles Clowe, who happened to be at the car. The lad was knocked down by the animal and it was subsequently ascertained that his leg had been broken.

Personal.
 Rev. F. A. DeRosset and Miss Mary Green, a grand-daughter of Bishop Green, of Mississippi, were married on Tuesday last, at the University of the South, at Sewanee, Tenn. The happy couple arrived in this city yesterday and are on a visit to Mr. DeRosset's father, Dr. A. J. DeRosset. They will be here only a few days.

A Man Drowned.
 Sampson Bordeaux and Manuel Pearsall, two colored flatmen, came to this city last night to notify the authorities of the drowning, on Wednesday night, of a colored man named William, who was working with them. They say that the drowned man only gave his name as William, and that he hailed from Fayetteville, and was at the time of the accident making his first trip with them up the river for a flat load of wood. They further stated that on Wednesday night, when near Rose Hill, about seven miles above the city and some distance from their objective point, their companion fell overboard and was drowned before assistance could be rendered him. Yesterday morning they started back for the city without their load, to notify the authorities of the sad fate of the man.

East Lynne.
 Miss Ada Gray, supported by a very strong company under the management of Mr. Chas. Watkins, will appear at the Opera House to-night in East Lynne.

The Savannah News, one of the safest critics of the Georgia press, thus speaks of Miss Gray's appearance there:
 "The play of 'East Lynne' is one of the most pathetic and emotional to be found in the modern drama, and always attracts a good house. The theatre, therefore, was well filled last night with an audience to witness the play, and to see Miss Ada Gray in the leading parts of Lady Isabel and Madame Vine. From the first the interest of the audience was awakened, and kept enchained until the close. Miss Gray portrayed with great effect the beautiful, jealous, and loving wife, and the repentant, heart-broken woman. At the close of the second and third acts, she received a call before the curtain in appreciation of her talent, and in the fourth act, in which is portrayed the death-bed scene of her little son, and in the fifth and last, in which she dies, filled with remorse for the errors of her life, when she has 'tried to bear the cross, but its weight has proven too heavy' for her, she received still more practical recognition of her genius by a copious flow of tears throughout the auditorium."

STATE NEWS.
 Whiteville Enterprise: Mr. W. B. Troy left us on last Monday night to make his home in Florida. —Mr. Samuel F. McDaniel, we are sorry to say, is quite sick but we hope to see him out again soon. —We are glad to see that Mr. Martin Schulken, who has been quite sick for some time past, is able to be out again. —We saw on last Saturday a new map of Columbus, drawn by Rev. A. Kirkland. It is much fuller and more accurate than his former map, though that was very fine.

Charlotte Journal: A man named Helms, from near Monroe, yesterday identified a steer which had been sold to Jeff Hagler, the butcher, by a white man who had stolen it from Helms the week before. Jeff gave it up without a struggle. The thief is unknown. —Last Friday evening the gin house of Messrs J. B. Blanton & Co., of Forrest City, Rutherford county, accidentally caught fire and was totally consumed with three bales of cotton. The firm is well-known in Charlotte where Mr. Blanton has a number of friends who will regret to learn of his loss.

Robesonian: As we go to press, Tuesday noon, our city editor, Mr. J. W. Floyd is, it is feared, lying at the point of death. His hosts of friends devoutly hope that his life may be spared. —They say that J. Hubbell and J. J. Mott's bar has put in an appearance in this town, but there are so many conflicting stories in regard to it, that we simply give it as a rumor. —We learn from Rev. W. B. Pope, who has just returned from Wake Forest, that on last night (9th) Rev. Dr. McNair was seriously hurt by stepping from the railroad platform at Hamlet. His arm was broken, besides other injuries.

Laurinburg Enterprise: On Wednesday last, by an accident at his father's gin, two and a half miles from town, Mr. Archie Gibson's left hand was caught in the gin and severely cut by the saws. Half the hand and three fingers were subsequently amputated. —The report circulated throughout this community on Saturday last, to the effect that Mr. John I. McLaurin, the son of Mr. Jim R. McLaurin, had the night previous shot and mortally wounded a negro man on his father's plantation, proved to be untrue. An affray, however, took place between Mr. Willie McLaurin and a negro man, in which the negro man was badly beaten, but not seriously injured.

Charlotte Observer: One of the most valuable contrivances yet invented for cotton growers and gin house owners is the seed cotton cleaner, invented and patented by Mr. R. P. Davis, of Monroe. Soiled cotton run through it comes out free from all dust, dirt, sand, sticks, etc., and as white as the best grade of cotton. The machine is simple and cheap. —About four o'clock yesterday morning as Mr. T. B. Henry was coming into the city with a wagon load of beef, the mules which he was driving took fright at the cars near the residence of Mr. Frank Snider, and ran off. Mr. Henry was thrown from the wagon as it started and had the small bone of his left wrist broken, besides receiving other painful injuries.

News and Observer: Cotton receipts yesterday 706 bales. —The cotton crop is a very fine one, and is expected to be brighter day by day. —Yesterday more cotton came in than on any day this season. —To-day a thousand bales are looked for. —So heavy is the crop in parts of the State that it is actually difficult to save it, and it will not be in the cribs until very late in the season. —Our hospital has now every bed in the public wards occupied, and day after day applicants worthy of every consideration have to be refused because of the scant supply of bedding, &c. Mattresses, pillows, sheets, quilts and even bedsteads are needed, and until they are supplied by the charitable disposed public, many of the worthy poor must be turned away. Blankets, comforts and spreads, strips of carpet for the wards, towels and table linen, China and crockery, and in fact everything necessary for a complete household outfit is needed, that the work may be equal to the demand.

Every one has a will and a mind to think for himself, yet many will go about hacking and coughing until a friend recommends Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for that cough.
 To Builders and others—Go to JACOBI'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.
