The campaign opens next week in Pender county. Our friends there are "sassy" and aggressive and they are going to carry the county this year. They are organizing thoroughly and it is expected that every white man will vote.

The river still continues very low, although it is hoped that the recent rains extended into the interior and will cause a smart young freshet. The Bladen was the only Fayetteville steamer here to-day, and she is generally on hand promptly on account of her very light draught.
Fashionable wedding card ceremonies have gone to the length of enclosing the cards of the bride, the groom, the bride's father, the bride's mother, the young married couple at home and the clergyman performing the ceremony. These are all enclosed in one large envelope.

A gentleman fainted and fell to the floor while trying on a suit of clothes in A. I. Shrier's Clothing Store. After enquiring into the matter, we learned it was the first time anything of the kind had ever happened to him. The only way we can account for it, is that he was completely astonished at the extremely low prices at which they were selling clothing.

Exports Foreign.
The Norfolk, Capt. Hanes, on, departed yesterday for Antwerp with 4,250 barrels resin, valued at $6,786.88, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Company.

New Engines.
Several large and handsome locomotive engines have been received recently for the W. C. & A. R. R. The largest and handsomest of all of them arrived yesterday. It is supplied with three powerful driving wheels on each side, and has an enlarged cylinder. The engine, No. 11, was very much admired yesterday, both for its beauty and power.

Captured Again.
Chief of Police Brock received a telegram from Flemington, on yesterday, notifying him that Charles King, the escaped convict from the House of Correction, was in that place. Capt. Brock immediately ordered his arrest and the oily Charles is now in the custody of the law. He has escaped from the House of Correction twice, and he will in all probability be taken care of this time. The place will seem more home-like to him as his father has been sent there since his last absence, on the charge of harboring his wayward boy during his first flight.

A Celebrated Case.
Next Monday night, Mr. James O'Neill, the celebrated actor from the Union Square Theatre, New York, will appear at the Opera in one of his most perfect characterizations, that of Jean Renaud, the Soldier Convict, in "A Celebrated Case." This drama is by the author of the "Two Orphans" and was the most successful ever produced at the famous Union Square Theatre, where Mr. O'Neill assumed the leading role and played it for 223 consecutive times, after which he played it nearly five hundred times in the principal cities of the country with unvarying success.
The New York Herald says: "The play is the strongest and most vigorous ever presented at this theatre of universal successes, and under the skillful handling of Mr. O'Neill and the excellent supporting company is destined to much success and will in all probability run out the season. Laughter at the funny sayings and applause at the more striking situations knew no bounds; so that it may be said the new piece has been received with an ovation. The part of Renaud enables Mr. O'Neill to display his great ability to much advantage. The scene at the close of the third act secured a triple encore."

The Carolina Rice Mills.
Yesterday a reporter of the REVIEW paid a visit to the above establishment, and through the courtesy of the proprietors, is enabled to give some account of what he saw and heard, which will be of interest to many of our readers.
The enterprise is due to the energy, capital, industry, and business go-ahead-iveness of Messrs. Norwood Giles and Pembroke Jones, the proprietors. They are both Wilmingtonians, having been born and raised in this city, and it is of such that Wilmington has a just right to be proud. This by way of preface.

The rice mills are of brick, 106 feet long, 42 feet wide and 4 stories in height, with 14 feet pitch, to which is connected an engine room 28 feet long, 18 feet wide and one story high. The engine is of 45 horse power, and there are 18 pestles, with a capacity for cleaning from 1,500 to 1,800 bushels of rough rice every 24 hours. Twelve men are constantly employed and about 150,000 bushels of rough rice are handled annually. There is storage capacity for about 60,000 bushels of rough rice, a large portion of which is brought from the eastern section of the State. The shipments are made, principally, to New York.

Aside from the above, the same firm are proprietors of the Washington Rice Mills, at Washington, Beaufort county, which employs the same number of hands, and has a capacity for cleaning from 1,900 to 1,500 bushels of rough rice every 24 hours. The mills at Washington are of wood and have from 25,000 to 30,000 bushels storage capacity.
This is a brief sketch of an industry inaugurated in 1880, and which has already assumed, without noise, confusion or bluster, important proportions. Important to the agricultural, commercial and financial interests of our city, and important to our community as showing what well-directed energy of purpose may accomplish.

Sudden Death.
A colored woman, by the name of Milly Bradley, was found dead in her bed yesterday morning at her house on Chestnut, between Eighth and Ninth streets. Coroner Hewlett viewed the remains and decided that an inquest was not necessary. It is said that her death was the result of natural causes. Deceased was about 35 or 40 years of age and was the mother of three children.

Rather Too Precious.
We stated yesterday that Capt. S. P. Collier had accepted the appointment of Assistant Postmaster at the Postoffice in this city but have since been informed that this statement was incorrect, or, at all events, premature. Capt. Collier has, we understand, been tendered the appointment but has not yet accepted it. Our information was obtained from what we deemed a reliable source, but it seems that our informant was a little "too precious."

The Monogram Club.
We have received an invitation to the series of hops to be given by the Monogram Club of Raleigh during the season of 1882-83, commencing Thursday evening, October 19. The officers of this excellent club are: John Y. MacRae, president; G. E. Leach, vice-president; Ed. C. Smith, secretary and treasurer; James Moore, W. B. Merrimon, James A. Hensley, Geo. V. Strong Jr., and B. S. White, executive committee. The invitations are the handsomest we ever saw.

Disinterred.
Coroner Hewlett yesterday afternoon empaneled a jury and proceeded to Oakdale Cemetery when the body of Mrs. Bertha Solomon, which was buried on Thursday, was disinterred. This was in accordance with certain unpleasant rumors which had gained circulation. Drs. Bellamy and Schonwald examined the remains and stated as the result that the deceased came to her death by drowning. We have not heard as to the verdict of the jury, but suppose that it will be rendered in accordance with the physicians' report.

The Pender County Canvass.
The nominees of the Democratic party of Pender county will address their fellow-citizens as follows:
Monday, October 16th, South Washington.
Tuesday, October 17th, Leesburg.
Wednesday, October 18, Piney Woods.
Thursday, October 19th, Gum, Caintuck.
Friday, October 20th, Point Caswell.
Saturday, October 21st, Long Creek.
Monday, October 23d, Rocky Point.
Tuesday, October 24th, Westbrook's Store.
Wednesday, October 25th, Sandy Run (Grant).
Thursday, October 26th, Shaking (Holly).
Speaking to commence at 11 o'clock.

The Rads in Pender.
The Republicans in Pender county held their convention at Burgaw yesterday, there having been present about fifty colored persons and only two whites. They wrangled and quarreled all day but finally, towards nightfall, agreed to offer the nomination for Sheriff to Mr. D. J. Corbett, of Caintuck, a good, sensible Democrat, who we feel sure will refuse. Mr. R. E. Frayser was nominated for the House, Ben. Costin for Clerk and A. E. Taylor, present incumbent, for Register of Deeds.

Mr. W. P. Canaday, candidate for Congress, was present and gave the assembled "multitude" a talk, which must have been eminently suited to the occasion and the audience, as our correspondent declares it to have been the poorest attempt at political speaking he had ever heard. The multitude referred to above counted up just 27 persons, of whom two were white and the remainder colored. Our correspondent thinks that Mr. Canaday will run behind his ticket in Pender.

Having been troubled with a very bad cough for about two years and having tried almost every cough mixture that was ever made, I have found relief in Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and I earnestly recommend it to all afflicted. BEN. F. DUGGAN, 14 Park place, N. Y.

The one hundred guns which were to have been fired here in honor of the Democratic victory in Ohio did not go off for the reason that there was a difficulty in finding the proper men for gunners, the terrible disaster of a year ago, by which Mr. Sneed lost both arms, being yet fresh in the minds of all.

The Proposed Coast R. R.
E. F. Martin, the projector of the proposed Wilmington, Wrightsville & Onslow Coast Railroad, was in Raleigh this week in attendance on the colored fair in progress there and also in the interest of the proposed road. It is a fact that a practical move towards the construction of this road has already been made. Hands were put to work last Monday to clear off and repair the grade which was made some ten years ago for a railroad to the Sound. This work was put out at contract.

Gov. Jarvis spoke at the Fair on Wednesday, on which occasion reference was made to this projected work, as follows, as has been reported to us: In the course of his remarks he said that whenever he went abroad and was questioned by others less acquainted with the colored man than himself as to how he was getting along, he felt proud that he could tell them that the people of North Carolina had inaugurated and were managing a State Fair of their own, the first enterprise of this kind established by the race in any State of the Union. Moreover, he learned that there was present E. F. Martin, from Wilmington, having in view the praiseworthy project of building and having managed by the colored people of the State a railroad of their own. In the event of his success how much prouder he would feel could he be able to tell others beyond the borders of this State that the colored people not only have a State Fair of their own but also a railroad. He hoped that Martin would be successful, as his enterprise was surely commendable and deserving of success, and should recommend itself most favorably to every colored man in this State, and should also enlist the aid and sympathy of others who are interested in the material welfare of the colored people.

We understand in this connection that Martin has enlisted the aid and co-operation of the most prominent colored men of the State and that arrangements are on foot to make efforts to secure subscriptions in almost every county.

Opera House.
Quite a large audience greeted Miss Ada Gray at the Opera House last night. Her support was good and Miss Gray showed herself to be an emotional actress of much depth. Her rendition of the dual characters in East Lynne was very fine. She soon won her audience and kept them spell-bound. Her acting was in every respect that of a finished actress. The characters of Miss Cornie, Barbara Hare and Sir Francis Levison were faithfully portrayed. This afternoon the troupe will give a matinee performance and we would advise all of our citizens who care to witness Miss Gray's version of East Lynne to attend. There will be no performance at night.
