HEINSBERGER—School Books
HERRA HOUSE—Passion's Slave
HENRY SAVAGE, Treas'r—Taxes

The election takes place two weeks from to-day.

Coots are plentiful and fat but they are still very high.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 967 bales.

The barque Condor sailed from Marcellis on the 20th inst., for this port.

There is a very large mast in the woods this season and pork should be fat.

The Br. barque George Davis sailed from Antwerp on the 19th inst., for this port.

Col. Wharton J. Green, our next Representative in Congress, is expected here to-day.

The boys are gathering beech-nuts from two trees near Hilton. They are very toothsome.

Capt. V. V. Richardson, Chairman of the Congressional Committee of this district, was in the city yesterday.

The Sampson County Agricultural Fair will be held at Clinton on the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th days of November.

You have but a short time left in which to register provided you have changed your residence since the last general election.

After several days of cold, dreary, rainy, disagreeable weather, it cleared off yesterday and we may now hope for bright skies and cheering suns.

The annual Fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Association will be held at the Fair grounds at Fayetteville on the 21st, 22nd, 23d and 24th days of November next.

In Distress.

Schooner John A. Griffin, hence for Philadelphia, put into Norfolk on Saturday last leaking, and with the loss of her sails. The news was received here yesterday by Messrs. Geo. Harriss & Co., the agents at this port for the vessel. The Griffin is the oldest regular trader to this port.

Successful in Business.

The Messrs. A. & I. Shrier, clothiers, 34 Market St., are now busy, from early morning to dusky evening selling and packing goods, and we really congratulate them upon their success in business. Their aim has always been, in selling good goods at the lowest prices. Give them a call.

Exports Foreign.

The Nor. barque St. Joseph, Capt. Christensen, cleared yesterday for Rotterdam with 3,404 barrels rosin, valued at $6,143, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Marchison & Co. The Nor. barque Abel, Capt. Danielsen, cleared yesterday for Antwerp with 4,330 barrels rosin, valued at $8,054, also shipped by Messrs. D. R. Marchison & Co. The Nor. barque Nordenskjold, Capt. Abrahamson, cleared yesterday for Hamburg with 1,100 casks spirits turpentine and 921 barrels rosin, valued at $29,203.83, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

Unknown.

There was a very good audience assembled at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of "Unknown" by Mr. John A. Stevens and his excellent troupe. "Unknown" is a melodrama, in five acts, written by Mr. Stevens who enacts the title role. The play is one of intense interest, the action is quick and there is no lagging or dragging in the conduct of the piece. Mr. Stevens is undoubtedly an actor of marked power and manages his scenes very effectively. His support is very good.

To-night, the second and last appearance here this season, Mr. Stevens' new and original comedy-drama will be presented. Reserved seats may be secured during the day at Dyer's.

How Women Would Vote.

Were women allowed to vote, every one in the land who has used Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" would vote to be an unfailing remedy for the diseases peculiar to her sex. By druggists.

The Injured Horse.

It was not exactly correct to say that one of the horses belonging to the Adrian steamer was worked after he was found to be lame. Mr. Martens tells us that he found out on Friday afternoon that the horse had gone lame and immediately took him to Mr. Quinlivan who found the nail in his foot. He is a very valuable animal and is now on the mend but will not be harnessed again until the foot is entirely well.

The Awakening.

The revival services which have been in progress at the Fifth Street M. E. Church for the past two weeks still continue, and large audiences are attracted thither at every service. At the meeting there last night, four were admitted to membership, which with those previously admitted since the commencement of the meetings, aggregate 73. The interest seems to be unflagging, and meetings are held every afternoon and night. We regret to learn that Rev. Mr. Mendenhall, who has been ably assisting the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ricard, is sick, but it is hoped and expected that he will be at his post again in a day or two.

Unmailables.

The following unmailable matter remains in the postoffice in this city: Mr. John Mosely, No. 21 Saraall street, Purl or Pine street; Mr. Henderson Foreme, Swinson, Columbus county, N. C.; Postal card, writing on both sides, no address; Mr. Yotu Moore, Gortown; Postal card, Mrs. Mary Spatter; Mr. R. H. Daniel, Halifax Co., N. C.; Rome P. O., N. C., in care Rev. W. P. Thomas; M. E. Caster & Co., No. 74 West Center St., Goldsboro, N. C.; Mr. Jack Hayer, 420 East Cherrthern St.; Mr. Jeffie Pridgen, Head & Bluff; Mr. Jacob Williams, Columbus county, N. C.; Mr. John Eicium, Bladen county, N. C., in care Mr. Love's office; Miss Rachel Paty, colored, Bladen county, N. C., Cape Fear river; call at delivery Lee Stowe; Light boat Ne Wiyest; Phillip E. Ace, colored.

"What is heaven's best gift to man?" she asked sweetly smiling on him, "Dr Bull's Cough Syrup" he replied, with prudence. He had just been cured by it of a bad cold.

U. S. District Court.

The following is the regular venire of jurors drawn for the regular term of the U. S. District Court for the District of the Cape Fear, which convenes in this city on Monday next, viz:

New Hanover—J W St George, W F Daggett, Joshua Meares, Jas Alderman, W L Jacobs, W H Shaw, J J Hedrick, Jno A Hargrave, Jas Corbett, F A Newberry, T H McKoy, Thos H Johnson, David Piggott, A D Lind, Allison Alderman, Thos M Bonham, Jno L Dudley, C F M Bissenger, R J Jones, (col), H D Gilbert, Jas P Green, Thos Littleton, Harvell Cobb, Samuel Blumenthal, C H Thomas, J A Sharpless, Jacob Elsbach, Duplin County.—Jas F Shine, I B Kelly, I B Faison, A H Morris, Amos Parker, Wm Farrier, Amos McCulloch, R M Hargrove, Gabriel Boney, Jas Beatty, R. D. Bennett.

A Shocking Accident.

As the Northern bound train, which left this city at 5:35 p. m., on Sunday last, was passing the section house at the four-mile-post it ran against a white woman by the name of Mrs. Wright and killed her instantly. It seems that Mrs. Wright, who was about 55 years of age, was engaged as a cook for the hands at the section house, and had crossed the track for some wood with which to cook supper, just before the train reached that point. She had obtained an armful of wood and was returning and stepped on the track just in front of the engine which struck and threw her against the head piece of the cowcatcher with such force as to crush her skull and throw her some 30 feet into the ditch. The engineer blew the whistle when he saw what she was about to do, but the momentum was so great and the distance so short that it availed nothing.

The Pender County Canvass

The nominees of the Democratic party of Pender county will address their fellow-citizens as follows: Saturday, October 21st, Long Creek. Monday, October 23d, Rocky Point. Tuesday, October 24th, Westbrook's Store. Wednesday, October 25th, Sandy Run (Grant). Thursday, October 26th, Shaking (Holly). Speaking to commence at 11 o'clock. Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO BIR.

Well Again.

Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, Pender county, who has been confined to his bed for the past five or six weeks with a severe attack of malarial fever, has recovered, and we had the pleasure of a call from him yesterday. He has not yet recovered his full strength, but is now free from disease, and in a few days will be as hearty and well as ever. He speaks, we are happy to say, very encouragingly of the prospects of success to the Democracy of good and staunch Pender, and seems to have no doubt that the county ticket will be elected, and that the same strength will help to roll up the congressional and judicial ticket to a rousing majority.

The Speaking Last Night.

A very fair audience assembled last night at the stand on Third Street to hear Gen. E. W. Moise, of South Carolina, who appeared here by invitation of the New Hanover Democratic Executive Committee. The speaker was escorted to the stand by the Young Men's Democratic Club, with torches and transparencies, and was handsomely introduced from the stand by Mr. James Iredell Meares.

Gen. Moise spoke at considerable length and made an earnest, effective and able argument in behalf of the success of the Democratic party at the approaching election. He brought good news to us from over the border and he hoped and believed that the Sister States would stand shoulder to shoulder in the ranks of the victorious Democratic States on the 7th day of next month.

Gen. Moise was repeatedly cheered and we trust that his remarks may be productive of good in our ranks. One noticeable feature of the evening was the presence of quite a number, probably as many as one hundred of colored men, who listened intently and respectfully to the remarks of the speaker.

It is generally conceded that Gen. Moise's speech was one of the best of the campaign. He carried the full and entire attention of his audience with him throughout his entire remarks. We hope that he may be able to be with us again before the day of victory in November.

The German barque Maria Sophia, from Hamburg for Wilmington, N. C., has taken refuge at Plymouth, Eng., leaky.
