October leaves us to-day.
Only six days left in which to register.
Register this week; next week you will have to vote.
The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 651 bales.
The steamship Gulf Stream Capt. Ingram, hence, arrived at New York on Sunday last.
Mr. A. V. Wood of Brunswick, Ga., is in the city on a visit to his father Mr. R. B. Wood.
To-morrow is known as All-Saints Day and will be observed as such by the Episcopal and Catholic Churches.

Hon. O. H. Dockery will speak here on Friday night. Next week he will go home to stay, tired out and disgusted with this deceitful world.

Our barometer and the circle around the moon last night both prophesied a change of weather. There was considerable of a fog during the night.

Hon. Jno. W. Shackelford will speak at New Bridge Church, in Duplin county on Thursday next, November 2nd.; at Wilmington on Friday evening, Nov. 3rd., and at Clinton on Saturday, Nov. 4th.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO M'S.

The Revival.
The wonderful revival of religion is still in progress at the Fifth Street M. E. Church in this city. There was a large attendance on Sunday night. Ten conversions were announced and there were four mourners at the bench on that occasion.

Exports Foreign.
Br. brig, Elaine, Capt. Griffith, cleared yesterday for Liverpool with 2,123 barrels rosin, valued at $3,500, shipped by Messrs. J. R. Blossom & Evans. The Nor. barque Nord Amerika, Capt. Tejersen, cleared yesterday for London with 1,319 casks spirits turpentine and 1,775 barrels rosin, valued at $35,600 shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co.

To Builders and others—Go to JACO M'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass &c. You can get all sizes and at the lowest prices.

An Exciting Runaway.
There was an exciting runaway on Front street yesterday afternoon. A horse dashed down that street at a fearful speed, dragging with him a buggy in which was seated a merchant on North Water street, alone. The gentleman retained his presence of mind and stuck manfully to the reins. He succeeded in keeping the horse in the middle of the street and in avoiding all other vehicles, and finally brought him up near the corner of Front and Castle streets.

Mr. Boney's Card.
We publish elsewhere a card from Mr. G. J. Boney, Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, in which the facts relative to the proposed division of time on the occasion of Gov. Vance's speech in this city, on last Thursday evening, are fully set forth. It is evident that it was a put-up job from the beginning and that Judge Russell had no idea of being caught and skinned by Senator Vance; hence the programme and hence the blow which the originators of this sharp movement are making about it. If Judge Russell was so anxious to meet Governor Vance why did not his Committee make for him the necessary arrangements during the week allotted them; instead of waiting until two hours before the procession was appointed to form, when they well knew that the division could not be allowed. It was certainly a cool request, that the Democrats should undo all that they had done, unmake all of their preparations, abandon their own privileges and their own grounds to accommodate their enemies. Mr. Boney could have done no other than he did. Such a request under such circumstances did not merit a reply.

District Court.
The U. S. District Court, for the District of the Cape Fear, convened in this city yesterday. The Court was formally opened by Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson, the District Attorney, but as the Judge was not present it was adjourned over until to-day. Judge Seymour is expected to arrive this morning and the jurors were all summoned for to-day.

The Outlook.
We had the pleasure of meeting a few days since a gentleman who has traveled very extensively through the Eastern, Western and Central portions of the State. His travels were entirely in the line of business, he being a representative of one of the first business houses of the South, but he had time to make many observations of the political horizon, and he gives a bright and glowing account of the Democratic prospects wherever he has been. He informs us that along the route of his travels he has found the people awake and enthusiastic as regards the duty of the hour, and that there will be one of the largest votes at the approaching election ever polled in North Carolina.

Armstrong's Minstrel's.
We were not particularly carried away with the performance of the Armstrong Minstrels at the Opera House last night. They came to us well recommended by the press and we must confess to a feeling of disappointment in their entertainment. Taking the troupe in its entirety it is below mediocrity. The instrumental music was good and the quartette sang sweetly, but we think we have heard better singing by an amateur club in this city. There was little or no dancing and the jokes were all stale. Frank Boll's lecture on the leading topic of the good day was as were also Matt Green's contortions. The Powers brothers skatolara dance was pretty good. The troupe left last night for Charleston.

Death of Mr. R. C. Myers.
We were very much pained to learn yesterday morning of the death, in New York, of Mr. R. C. Myers, of this city. He had been North for several months under the treatment of an oculist, but of late his trouble had taken the form of paralysis and his sufferings were brought to an end yesterday by the dread messenger, death.
Mr. Myers was in the 35th year of his age and leaves a wife and child to mourn his untimely death. His remains will be interred to-day in the family burying ground in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y. He was a gentleman of many admirable traits of character, and by his uniform courtesy of manner had made many warm friends, who will miss him sorely.
At the time of his death he held the position in the Custom House in this city of Special Deputy Collector, and was at one time an Alderman of the city. He was a gentleman of excellent business qualifications and filled both positions with much credit to himself. He was a member of St. John's Lodge of Masons of this city. He was also a beneficiary member of the Order of Knights of Honor and Legion of Honor. In the former he leaves his widow an insurance of $2,000 and in the latter $5,000, and we understand that there were other policies on his life.

Boy's Clothing.
Our patrons are informed that the supply of clothing for which they have been waiting has arrived, it is the largest and handsomest lot ever received by us. Call and we shall be pleased to show them. A. & I. SHIER, Reliable Clothiers, 34 Market street.

A Card.
In justice to Senator Vance and the Democratic party I desire to state the facts regarding the joint discussion between Senator Z. B. Vance and Hon. D. L. Russell, proposed for last Thursday night, 26th October. On the 19th October Capt. E. J. Pennypacker asked me if an arrangement could be made for a joint discussion between Vance and Russell, stating at the same time that he was not authorized to make the request but would see the proper parties and have it made. I told him that if S. H. Manning, Chairman Republican Executive Committee, would send in a request over his own signature in due season to permit me to make arrangements, and not wait until the night of the proposed discussion, as had been done in the Fifth Ward case, I would accept the proposition and arrange accordingly. I saw Capt. Pennypacker two days later (on the 21st October) and he again promised to have the request sent to me.

I waited until Wednesday night, (25th), when, hearing nothing from Manning, or anyone else, in regard to the point under discussion, I made up the programme for our procession for Vance on Thursday night. At 5 o'clock on Thursday evening Donal Howard handed me a communication which I publish below. Knowing that the Republican Executive Committee had had the matter under consideration a week, and having made an especial request of Capt. Pennypacker that the arrangement should not be deferred until the last minute, I considered their course in withholding their request so discourteous as to make a written reply unnecessary, and merely told Howard that "I had no reply to make."

G. J. BONEY, Chairman Dem. Ex. Com.
G. J. Boney Esq. Ch'm County Democratic Executive Committee, Wilmington, N. C.
SIR:—Having seen an announcement in this morning's Star that Hon. Zebulon B. Vance would address the citizens on the political issues of the day, on behalf of the Liberal and Republican County Executive Committee, we have the honor to submit the following proposition for a joint discussion to-night between the gentleman named and the Hon. Dan. L. Russell upon the following terms: 1st. One party to open in a speech of one hour and a half, the opening party to rejoin for half an hour, you to have the choice as to who shall open and conclude, the discussion to take place from the steps of the National Bank building or some other neutral ground, and not at the stand of either political party.
We are, sir, very respectfully,
E. H. KING, Ch'm Liberal Co. Ex. Com.
S. VANAMRINGE, Acting Ch'm Republican Ex. Com.
Oct. 29th, 1882.

STATE NEWS.
Charlotte Observer: It has been many days since the Air-Line depot presented such a lively scene as it did yesterday at the time of the arrival of the north train. All the side tracks were filled with freight cars, and two freight trains were standing on the main track waiting for a chance to move on. When the passenger train arrived, it had to stop about fifteen minutes before room could be found for it to move up to the depot, and right behind it came one more freight train. There was a regular block of trains for an hour or more, and it required skillful engineering in moving them about and starting them off.

Charlotte Journal: Susan Ingram, colored, died near the Rudisill Hill mine, on the outskirts of the city, last Tuesday night, at an extremely old age. Her relations insist that she was 144, but even a newspaper reporter had too much conscience to take that in. She is however without doubt considerably over a hundred.—The Eastern bound train on the Western North Carolina Railroad met with an accident this morning, three miles West of Alexander's. The engine ran off near the end of Sandy Mush Creek trestle and turned down a bank about ten feet high. Engineer Charley Gordon was seriously injured and died this evening about six o'clock. Gordon was one of the oldest engineers on the road, and was a member of the Knights of Honor and insured in the Accident Insurance Company for $2,000. Transfer was made and the passengers, mail and express came through all.

Fayetteville Examiner: Col. Albert Worth has recently suffered a good deal from the wound received by him twenty years ago, during the then prevailing "unpleasantness." We were glad however to see him out riding last Tuesday, and looking well in his upper story. His trouble is in his right leg, below the knee.—Mr. Zach Plummer, living in Cedar Creek township, died recently under peculiar circumstances. He had been complaining, but was able to walk about. He went into his field a short distance from his home to pull some fodder. After a few hours, a young man who lives on the place found him lying in the field dead, with a bundle of fodder in his hand. There were no indications of violence, and his death was supposed to have resulted from apoplexy. He was above seventy years of age.

Charlotte Observer: A gentleman just returned from Bakersville, in Mitchell county, informs us that the Roan Mountain was covered with snow last Tuesday.—Last Thursday night the market house of Mr. A. W. Vogel, on Tryon street nearly opposite the Charlotte Hotel, was entered by a robber who broke open the cash drawer and robbed it of all its contents, amounting to $150 in specie.—Through the efforts of Capt. F. A. Mc Ninch, a large club of colored Democrats has been organized in the city, with Gray Toole, president; Jas. Harris, vice president, and Ed Sarkling, secretary. The organization of the club was effected with thirty-one enrolled members and many others will come in at the next meeting of the club.—To transport the vast amount of cotton now received, the Richmond & Danville railroad has been running special cotton trains. Hundreds of bales are piled on flats, and tubs filled with water are placed all through the cotton.—At the Pineville celebration, while John Henderson was speaking, a white man named Manlius Means rushed up and struck John in the breast. John did not resent the blow but continued speaking, while a crowd attended to Means. After order had been restored, Means was found to be wearing a very bad looking eye.

News and Observer: Cotton receipts yesterday 698 bales.—It looks as if Raleigh were really going to have water works.—R. E. Galloway, of Mt. Airy, had his pocket picked of $600 at the State fair, and a tan yard burned up the same day.—The Secretary of State, W. L. Saunders, has returned, somewhat improved but not yet well. He is confined to his room.—The forty sixth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal church, South, will convene in Raleigh, December 6th, Bishop J. C. Keener presiding.—Some malicious person placed a torpedo, containing several pounds of gunpowder, under the doorstep of Mr. R. W. Harris, in Oxford, last week. It was evidently intended to kill him, but failed to explode. His window has been fired into several times recently.—Mr. Harris is a prominent and successful citizen of Granville, and is supposed to have no enemies.—Business is about fifty per cent better than last year at this season.—The famous wooden plate factory of S. H. Gray, at Newbern, now turns out 75,000 of plates per day. Many are used in this city, and they are shipped to all parts of the country.—Last week's cotton receipts were 3,143 bales, against 3,516 for the corresponding week last year. The total receipts this season are 13,957 bales, against 17,519 up to the same date last season, a decrease of 3,562 bales. The stock on hand is 1,275 bales, shipments last week having been 2,748 bales. The market yesterday was quiet and unchanged, the receipts being 663 bales.—Judge Ashe, of the Supreme Court, yesterday received a telegram conveying the sad news of the death of one of his sisters in Alabama.—Yesterday afternoon twelve bales of cotton on the receiving platform, at the R. & G. depot, were found to be on fire, and it gave the railroad people considerable trouble to put it out.—E. H. Foy, a young man hailing from Jones county, applied to Mr. Chas. E. Johnson, a few weeks since, for employment, and was given a position as clerk in his cotton office. A day or two ago the young man succeeded in obtaining $174 on a cotton weigher's check, dated October 4, by changing the date to the 24th, then drawing a check on the bank, which Mr. Johnson signed. Foy took this to the bank and obtained the money. He then "went through" the garments of his room mates, and took all the cash he found. Thus fitted out for a trip, he left the city on the Raleigh and Gaston train, for Northern points, it is thought.

"Female Complaints."
Dr. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir:—I write to tell you that your "Favorite Prescription" has done for me. I had been a great sufferer from female complaints, especially "dragging-down," for over six years, during much of the time unable to work. I paid out hundreds of dollars without any benefit till I took three bottles of the "Favorite Prescription," and I never had any thing do me so much good in my life. I advise every sick lady to take it. MRS. EMILY RHODES, McBrides, Mich. Tues-fri.

DIED.
MYERS—In New York City, on the morning of the 30th October, R. C. MYERS, aged 35 years.
ROBINSON—In Sampson county, on the 16th inst. GEORGE W. ROBINSON, in the 63rd year of his age.
Mr. Robinson was an honest, charitable and true man; the leading trait in his character was to condemn the wrong and uphold the right wherever he found it. He belonged to no Church, but did right from principle, and was entirely opposed to the idea of a "cast-iron" decree, which would deprive any portion of the human race, but firmly believed in the final holiness and happiness of all mankind.
