The eventful day has arrived and the fate of North Carolina will be decided by sunset this evening. Both parties have worked hard, and the result will be known to morrow. We are confident as to that result, and we firmly believe that our entire State ticket will be elected and that at least seven of the nine Congressmen will be returned.

Nearly Foundered.

The steamer Minnehold nearly foundered at her wharf on Sunday. On the return from Smithville, the seacock had been accidentally left open and the water rushed in and gradually filled the boat until she was near sinking. It was discovered in time, however, and on application one of the city fire steamers was detailed to pump ber out. The damage sustained was slight.

Yesterday a gentleman waited on Mr. Canaday and told him that he had the money in his pocket and CHOVELS AND TONOS, PIBEIRON was ready to close with the offer. He STANDS, ANDIRONS, &c. proposed that the money be deposited in the First National Bank, and that two men, one from each party, be appointed as referees to decide the matter in case there should be any doubt as to the result. Mr. Canaday declined to make the bet. Afterwards Sheriff Manning was approached and offered a bet of $600 that Col, Green would be elected. Gen, Manning also declined; he was willing to bet, but he wanted to beton a majority. He refused to bet
