Wood is scarce and high in this market.

Colds in the head are now all the talk.

Retiring men are not always sleepy heads.

Quite a heavy frost was noticeable yesterday morning.

Life has no securities to those who live regardless of law.

The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday foot up 230 bales.

Eggs are 30 cents per dozen and Christmas is nearly six weeks off.

There was a killing frost here on the night of the 14th inst., the first of the season.

Mr. J. M. Hewlett, at Masonboro, yesterday, landed 1,678 bunches of mullets at one haul.

The steamship Regulator, Captain Doane, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city yesterday.

It is not necessary to be poor to be honest, but, if honest, these days, one is nearly likely to become poor.

The cool frosty nights are here and we may soon be able to eat the persimmon without whistling every time we breathe.

There were four unimportant cases before the Mayor yesterday morning which were settled by the payment of small fines.

Grown chickens are retailing at 40 cents each, and they are not remarkably well-grown at that. The price and the poultry are equally tough.

The crowds of fashionable people who attend the performances at the Opera House, wear popular neckwear purchased from DYER & SON.

The reflection of a large fire on the Western side of the river was plainly visible here yesterday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock. It was probably from a forest fire in Brunswick county.

There was a little breeze of excitement on Market street, yesterday morning, caused by a mule running away with a cart. He was stopped, however, before any serious damage was done.

A portion of the goods stolen from the residence of Mr. Rosenthal some days ago by Fred Kitchen, a colored boy, were recovered yesterday by officers Strode and Whitney, and identified by the owner.

The cotton compresses are kept busy night and day. Their exhaust are heard in the wee small hours, and we should think that such continuous labor would be exhausting to their compressed natures.

Some of the stores are beginning to assume a Santa Claus and Chris-mas look. Mr. S. Jewett has received a very large lot of toys, dolls and wags which will soon be ready for Santa Claus' inspection.

The honest tradesman knows how to make a customer happy. All that is necessary is to charge him twenty per cent more than the market price, and whisper in his ear, "but I'll let you have it for ten per cent off."

C. H. Smith's "Furnished Rooms" Co., with Toysey Vener (late of Rice's Surprise Co.) has just closed an engagement of three weeks in Boston and is coming. The management of the Opera House is trying to arrange to have the celebrated lady appear here.

To get rid of the smell of paint in a chamber or a living-room, slice a few onions and put them in a pail of water in the centre of the room; close the door, leave the window open a little, and in a few hours the disagreeable odor will have almost gone. Another method is to plunge a handful of hay into a pailful of water, and let it stand in the newly painted room over night; this plan is also effective.

Anything in the hardware line can be found at reasonable prices at JACO-BI'S.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1882. NO. 273.

London Assurance.

One of the best comedies on the stage, will be presented at the Opera House this evening by the well-known actors, Mr. and Mrs. Chanfrau, supported by Mr. C. W. Taylor's five dramatic company. The prices of admission is 25, 50 and 75 cents, without extra charge for reserved seats, at Dyer's.

Short on Butter.

Butter has been very scarce in this market for the past two or three days and yesterday morning there was not enough in the city to supply a sixth part of its inhabitants. The arrival of the steamship Regulator yesterday morning dispelled all fears of epicures of a butter famine for the present, but while the article was scarce "butter took a riz."

Thermometrical.

From the Signal Office in this city we obtain the following record of the thermometer, at the points named, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon:

Atlanta 55; Augusta 61; Charleston 60; Charlotte 54; Cedar Keys 63; Galveston 65; Havana 78; Indianapolis 63; Jacksonville 67; Key West 72; Montgomery 59; New Orleans 64; Palestine (Texas) 68; Pensacola 63; Port Eads 66; Punta Rassa 70; Savannah 61; Wilmington 59.

No man knows what a ministering angel his wife is until he comes home one day, suffering with a dreadful cold and she happens to have a bottle of Dr.
Hull's Cough Syrup in the house.

All Safe.

Yesterday afternoon quite a throng of lookers on were interested in seeing workmen raise a safe, weighing about 4,200 pounds, from the side-walk to the third story window of the Giles & Murchison building, on Front street. It was accomplished by means of a derrick with a four fall luff tackle without any accident, and after being raised to a sufficient height was slid into the room of the Carolina Central Railroad Treasurer, where it is to be used for the purposes of the company.

Mathews vs. Murchison and Others.

The consideration of this important case was resumed yesterday morning, Judge Dillon, of counsel for the plaintiff, made an able, exhaustive and forcible argument, commencing immediately after the Court was covenanted and continuing uninterruptedly for four hours and a half. At the conclusion of his argument the Court adjourning to meet again at 10 o'clock, this morning, when arguments will be made by Col. D. K. McRae, of this city, and M. Edward Robinson, of New York.

Aaron Burr.

The character of Aaron Burr, one of the most interesting and complex in American biography, was discussed before the Literary Club Tuesday night. There was present a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen. The question was upon whether or not his character deserved admiration. Mr.
M. S. Willard for the affirmative, and Mr. J. D. Smith, for the negative, made the principle speeches of the evening. Mr. Willard spoke in a dignified manner, and in language well chosen and well put. Mr. Smith, in a conversational manner, amused the audience while arguing the question, with some humorous illustrations to his points, and succeeded in winning the debate. Mr. Willard and Mr.
Smith were respectively assisted by Mr. J. D. Aaron and Chas. H. Gerhardt.

Cold Snap.

As the cold weather is approaching we would remind our readers who are in want of a warm suit of clothes or an Overcoat at low figures, to call on A. & I. SHIRER 34 Market street.

Exports Foreign.

The Gov. barque Michael, Captain Marx, cleared yesterday for London, with 3,838 barrels rosin, valued at $5,846.60, shipped by Messrs. Robinson & King.

Yesterday was one of the dullest of days for local news. There was nothing stirring. We may well boast of the peace, sobriety and general good conduct of our citizens, but such a condition of things don't pan out worth a nickel to the local reporter. We would have been glad to have heard of a dog fight, but they wouldn't so much as growl at each other.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States fair weather, winds mostly northerly, stationary or high temperature and pressure.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Bugle: Revenue collection in the 5th district for last week was $16,992.72. — We regret to learn that W. Penn Henley, of Winston, died suddenly on yesterday with heart disease. He was well advanced in years, known extensively and much respected by all who knew him.

Newbern Journal: The Directors of the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad had a conference on Saturday with Judge Caruth and others representing the Midland road. It was agreed to give the Midland 30 days to wind up their business; and they, on their part, agreeing to surrender at the end of that time unless a reorganization could be effected and a new lease made.

New Bern Nul Shell: About 1,500 bushels rice were sold in this market yesterday at $1 to $1.05 per bushel. — R. W. A. Nelson, who assisted Rev.
Mr. Eason to hold a series of meetings in the Baptist church, in our city a short time ago is now in Goldsboro assisting the minister of the Baptist church in that place to conduct a revival now going on, and which is doing a vast amount of good. A religious feeling is pervading the entire community.

Durham Plant: Fish ponds around Durham are becoming quite numerous.
— The friends and admirers of Col.
Wilkinson, Register of Deeds elect, presented him with a handsome gold-headed cane Saturday evening at his home. — Mrs. Gen. Green, an aunt of Mrs. Dr. J. H. Cook, is spending some time in Durham. She is a very remarkable lady, being now 82 years old, and can make the trip from Fayetteville to Durham in her carriage with as little inconvenience as a lady of 30.

Asheville News: Capt. Jones, in charge of the convict force on the Duck-town branch of the W. N. C. R. R., has been in town. He says the road is progressing finely and the convicts are in good health. — The store of Porter, Shope & Co., at Asheville Junction was burned Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock. The building contained about $4,000 worth of goods, which were insured for $3,000. The safe contained about $1,200 in money. The books and papers were not injured but the money was gone, evidently by the work of an incendiary. The building belonged to Joseph Reed and was not insured.

Charlotte Journal: The dwelling house of Mr. Frank Dixon, near Alexandria, was burglarized Sunday while all the family and servants were absent at church, and a small quantity of cash was stolen, nothing else being missed. — Messrs. Merrick & Apple, the Bradford county, Pennsylvania gentlemen who have been here for the last week, looking after the establishment of a cotton seed oil mill, leave this morning, but will return in a few weeks, as it is understood they have positively determined upon the mill.
Several of our own capitalists will be interested in the enterprise. It is learned that the plant for the mill will cost $40,000 or $50,000, and that the entire enterprise will represent about $100,000.

Charlotte Observer: A protracted revival of religion is in progress at the Tryon Street Methodist church. — Last Sunday morning when Jason Walker and his wife Rosa, colored people, who live near the Lincoln depot, waked up they found their seven week old baby lying dead in the bed.
Coroner Alexander summoned a jury and held an inquest Sunday evening, and the evidence elicited showed that the child had been accidentally smothered by its mother. — John West, A.
Burkett and A. Freilke, the light-fingered two who were arrested in this city last Saturday, on a charge of jumping board bills, and stealing watches and clothing at Wadesboro, and who were released under bond for trial yesterday, did not come to time. They concluded that it would be more desirable to quietly depart, and leave the two gold watches and the $55 in cash, which they had put up for security, in the hands of the officers, than to remain here and answer to the law.

A permanent restoration of exhausted and worn-out functions follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.
