WILMINGTON, N. C.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

EVENING.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21 1882.

Writing to the Brewers' Association of New York during the late canvass for Congressman-at-large, Howard Carroll dropped into German, as follows: "Wer nicht liebt Wein, Weib und Gesang, bleibt ein Narr sein Leben lang." Howard wanted to conduct his canvass in his own way. He did so, and was snowed under by white ballots 120,000 deep.

And still they come. George L. Yaple, the Democrat who defeated Congressman Julius C. Burrows, Republican candidate for re-election in the 4th Michigan district, is, according to the Detroit Free Press, a Free-Trader, and one who whipped the fight for revenue reform in a district carved out for 3,000 Republican majority. This is the kind of news which accounts for fifteen Democratic Congressmen in Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin.

There are no less than 334 deer parks south of the Tweed in England, thirty-one of which contain red deer. Eridge Park, Sussex, is the oldest; the largest is at the Cheshire seat of Lord Egerton of Tatton. The extent of this park is is 2,500 acres. Blenheim is sometimes said to be the largest, but this is an error. It is true that Blenheim Park measures 2,800 acres, but only 1,156 acres are occupied by deer. Near London the largest and most famous deer parks are those of Richmond and Eastwell; in the Midlands is Thoresby; in the north Knowsley, and in East Anglia, Grinsthorne.

The negotiations which have been pending for several months between the Western Associated Press, and the New York Associated Press, culminated in a unanimous agreement for a joint management. The proposition came from the New York Associated Press and was accepted by the board of directors of the Western Press. The management is placed in the hands of a joint committee, Richard Smith and Walter N. Haldeman representing the Western Associated Press, and Whitelaw Reid of the Tribune, and Thomas D. Connery of the Herald, representing the New York Associated Press. Charles A. Dana, of the Sun, was elected chairman. The Western Associated Press has, since the termination of the contract between the associations, perfected a cable service which claims to be superior in many respects to that of the New York association, and has also organized news service in the East. The work of readjustment will continue until all differences are disposed of, and there will be but one general service. A new contract will be made with the Western Union Telegraph Company.

A correspondent at Charleston writes to ask us just how the election stands in this State. The best information we can give him is to the effect that Bennett's majority is 347; that Latham, Democrat, is defeated in the first district by Pool, Republican; that O'Hara, an unnaturalized West Indian, is elected in the Second district; that Green gets in in this (the Third) district by even 500 majority; that Cox is elected in the Fourth by a small majority; that Scales carries the Fifth by an increased majority; that Dowd holds his own in the Sixth; that York, a renegade Democrat, beats Robbins by a very small majority in the Seventh, and that Vance falls off in the Eighth, or mountain district, but carries his election by a handsome majority. The judicial ticket is elected in its entirety. It is said that Latham will contest, that Dockery will contest, that Devereux will contest and that Robbins will contest. The Charlotte Observer tells us that York's majority over Robbins is 196, but that frauds are charged in various localities and enough of these, it is thought, can be proved to oust York and seat Robbins.

DEMOCRATIC GOVERNORS.

Elections for Governor were held on the 7th instant in fifteen States, and in thirteen out of the fifteen the Democratic candidates were elected, as follows: California, George Stoneman; Colorado, J B Grant; Connecticut Thos M Walkler; Delaware, Chas C Stockley; Kansas, G W Glick; Massachusetts, B F Butler; Michigan, J W Begole; Nevada, J W Adams; New York, Grover Cleveland; Pennsylvania, Robert E Pattison; South Carolina, Hugh S Thompson; Texas, John Ireland. The Republican Governors elect are: New Hampshire, Samuel W Hale; Nebraska, James W Dawes. Of the twenty-three remaining States twelve already have Democratic Governors, as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, North Carolina and West Virgina; and thirteen Republican Governors: Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia and Wisconsin. When the Governors elect are inaugurated, therefore, the list will stand twenty-five Democrats to thirteen Republicans.

SHORTS.

Thirty-two States are represented at the session of the National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry at Indianapolis.

A woman in Portland, Oregon, is suing her divorced husband for $5,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage.

Man sticks up fantastic mile-posts as the course of empire westward takes its way. A new town in Kansas is call Prairie Dog Jim.

Of the nineteen States that Garfield carried, the Republicans now hold but ten, and most of these are held by greatly reduced majorities.

The New York World predicts as a result of the Democratic triumph "a shrinkage of $50,000,000, or even more, in appropriations by Congress."

It is proposed to designate a communication by telephone by the word "telepheme" in the same manner that a message by telegraph is styled telegram.

The proposed amendments to the constitution of Virginia abolishing the capitation tax were adopted by the people at the late election by a large majority.

Books on Egypt have been thrown on the English market with great rapidity since the close of the war. At least thirty works, dealing in one way and another with Egyptain affairs, have been issued in the last three months.

If you are sick and troubled with dyspepsia, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure you.

President Grevy, of France, is probably fatally ill with attacks of an apoplectic character.

Representative George A Post, just elected from the Susquehanna district Pennsylvania, is only twenty-eight years old. He is a lawyer.

For district Congressman, Abraham Hewitt, Democrat, of the tenth New York district, has probably the largest majority, in the United States, viz: 19,714.

The only Greenbacker elected in South Carolina was J E Fultx, of Berkley county, who was considerately made coroner to hold an inquest over his crowd.

Mr Charles Francis Adams, Jr., advises the election of General Francis A Walker as "the ideal thing" for United States Senator from Massachusetts as successor of Mr. Hoar.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21—Noon—General G. W. Behan, the newly-elected Mayor, was inaugurated yesterday, and the City Council, recently elected, was organized. W. D. Logan was elected President pro tem. Acting Mayor Walsh, on behalf of the outgoing administration, made a short address. Referring to the settlement of the debt question, he said: We have effected a settlement which secures the bondholder in all his rights and relieves the tax-payers of all danger of excessive taxation. The taxes for all purposes will not be over two per cent. in the future, and after next year, need not be over 1½ per cent. We have, by a strict observance of the right of the bondholders, restored public confidence, and to-day the securities of our city sell for more than double what they were worth when we entered upon our duties. These are facts, and ought not to be forgotten.

A Lady Cured of Rheumatism.

Baltimore, Md., May 7, 1880.
My health was much shattered by Rheumatism when I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters, and I scarcely had strength enough to attend to my daily household duties. I am now using the third bottle and I am regaining strength daily, and I cheerfully recommend it to all.
I cannot say too much in praise of it. Mrs. MARY E. BRASHEAR, 173 Prestman st.

Kidney Disease Cured.

Christiansburg, Va., 1881.
Suffering from kidney disease, from which I could get no relief, I tried Brown's Iron Bitters, which cured me completely. A child of mine, recovering from scarlet fever, had no appetite and did not seem to be able to eat at all. I gave him Iron Bitters with the happiest results.
