There are hopeful indications that a two-cent postal law will soon be in operation throughout the country.

There seems to be a general depression in business throughout the country, though there is nothing as yet to indicate a panic.

San Domingo had another revolution a day or two ago, the second, or third, we forget which, of the current year. It was all over with in twenty-four hours.

Governor General Lorne and his Imperial consort, the Princess Louise, are again in San Francisco. They have twice visited the Golden Gate without once having set foot in New York, and the Gothamites don't like it a bit.

The appointment of Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., to a seat on the Supreme Bench of Massachusetts receives general commendation. The old man must rejoice in this practical illustration of one of his pet notions—hereditary ability.

Dr. Columbus Mills, a well-known resident of the Charlotte section, died last Sunday evening. He was principally known throughout the State in connection with the Patrons of Husbandry, of which he was at one time Grand Master.

The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says that Herbert Spencer looks well, but protests that his bronzed look is only a temporary consequence of the sea voyage, and that he feels in reality the reverse of benefited by his try.

A beverage that is said to have taken the place of absinthe to a considerable extent in France has been introduced in New Orleans. It is called amei picon, and is believed to assist digestion to be an aperient and febrifuge, to stimulate agreeably, and to kill with certainty if afforded a full opportunity.

The wife of Richard K. Fox, the famous sporting man and the publisher of the immortal Police Gazette, has brought suit against him for divorce. Mrs. Fox would seem to be a confirmed drunkard as she has been confined at an inebriate asylum, but she alleges that she was placed there by her husband to prevent her from prosecuting her suit for divorce.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of John Pope as Major General in the army. It is shameful that while the members of the Senate have found time to boost Pope into a position he is entirely unworthy to fill, they have not yet found time to do justice to Fitz John Porter. It is known that nearly all the Senators are now convinced of the great injustice which has been done to Porter, yet they have given an undeserved reward to the one through whose malice and falsehood the wrong was inflicted, while he still remains under the odium and ignomy of an unjust and cruel sentence.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1882. NO. 302

The New York Mail claims that there are more school teachers in New York city and more money is expended for education than in the whole State of New Jersey.

Since Wolsley, 1533, the following British and Irish Cardinals have been created: Fisher, 1535; Baton, 1546; Pole, 1558; Allen, 1594; Howard, 1694; Norris, 1704; York, 1807; Erskine, 1811; Weld, 1837; Acton, 1847; Wiseman, 1865; Cullen, 1878; Manning, Howard, Newman, Maccabe.

There is too much pork for a shilling in this pension business. It should stop just where it is. The Democrats in Congress should stand square upon their heels and toes and refuse to vote for the appropriation of another dollar looking toward the increase or extension of the pension lists. The first thing that should be done is to purge the list as it is now. There are too many bummers and suttlers and camp-followers now drawing pensions from the U. S. Government who are no more entitled to them than is the man in the moon. We have had an instance narrated to us in this locality, that of a colored individual who so far from being wounded had hardly seen any duty whatever in the field. He enlisted with the troops here after the Fall of Wilmington and was as healthy and sound the day he left the service as the day he entered it and yet, through some political hocus-pocus, he draws a pension of $8 per month. Another individual, an officer who held a somewhat high position, having been a Lieutenant-Colonel in the field, draws $28 a month, not, it is said, because of wounds received, but because he has the heart disease. There are doubtless thousands upon thousands of just such instances as those we have here narrated, and until these very dirty Augean stables can be cleansed it will be improper in any honest man to vote one dollar for an extension of the claims. The present system is not only a wrong to the country at large but a grievous wrong to the wounded veterans as well. There is plenty of room for investigation into these pension frauds.

There are hopeful indications that a two-cent postal law will soon be in operation throughout the country.

City Court.
W. H. Campbell, colored, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with the larceny of a box of grapes, and the testimony was so convincing that the defendant was ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. This he failed to do, and he was committed to jail.

Superior Court.
In this Court the case of Lewis Martin vs. John Martin, which was on trial yesterday, has been concluded with all of the issues found in favor of plaintiff. To-day the Court has been engaged in the case of Charles Wessell vs. Martin Rathjen, a land case. Messrs. McRae & Strange and Russell & Ricard appear for the plaintiff and Messrs. E. S. Martin and Junius Davis for the defendant. The trial will probably occupy a large part of to-morrow's session as well as that of to-day.

A western paper says: Nothing will cure some sick men more quickly, than an office properly applied.—This 'cure' may be very successful in many cases, but we would say: If a man suffers from a cough or cold, give him Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Prof. Willoughby Reade.
The Library Association have succeeded in securing Prof. Willoughby Reade to give one of his entertainments in this city, and it will be given, as per announcement in our advertising columns, at the Library Rooms this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. Prof. Reade comes to us with an excellent reputation as an elocutionist, the press, wherever he has appeared, giving him their most unqualified approval and endorsement. The entertainment will undoubtedly be a pleasant one and will repay for the brief time occupied in attendance and the money expended.

Personal.
Mr. Allen Carr and wife, of Dundee, Scotland, are registered at the Purcell House. Mr. Carr is a Scotch gentleman of means who is traveling through the country, principally, we understand, for his own gratification and information. He has lectured in several places in the Western part of the State and in South Carolina and it is understood that he will remain here a week or more during which time he will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association. He will be the recipient, doubtless, of numerous courtesies at the hands of our citizens.

Last Night's Debate.
The Literary Club of the Wilmington Library Association held their regular meeting in their rooms last evening. The query selected for the evening's discussion was, "Did the French Revolution aid the cause of Liberty in Europe?" The disputants were Messrs. B. G. Empe and C. H. Gerhardt, in the affirmative, and Messrs. Walter Smallbones and J. I. Meares in the negative, and the manner in which the subject was discussed pro and con by the several disputants, elicited much favorable comment from those who were present.

Previous to opening the discussion of the query, Mr. Thomas Radcliffe, by request, recited "Shamus O'Brien," an effort in which he was eminently successful, and which showed that he was possessed of rare elocutionary powers. A large number of ladies were present to add beauty and grace to the occasion, and these, with the gentleman, completely filled the room, indicating that the efforts of the Club were being appreciated.

Death of Mr. Dodson.
Rev. Elias Dodson, the venerable minister of God who has been lying in this city so ill for some days past, died this forenoon at 11:35 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Alex. Oldham, on North Front street. Mr. Dodson was a Baptist minister of many years' standing, and was Agent in North Carolina for the Home Mission Board, and it was in pursuit of his business in this direction that he arrived here from Charleston on the 2d inst. He was taken sick soon after his arrival here with diabetes, and this morning he was called to his rest. He was born in Virginia, but had canvassed North Carolina for many years past as Agent for the Board of Home Missions. He was about 70 years of age and was unmarried. The funeral services will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist Church.

We are glad to announce the convalescence of Mr. W. L. Rivenbark, of Pender county, who has recently passed through a very severe attack of typhoid fever.

Exports Foreign.
Schr. Fama II. Drummond, Capt. Higgins, cleared to-day for Port of Spain, Trinidad, with 268,858 feet of lumber, valued at $5,604.60, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Eighty-Seven Years Old.
The venerable Mrs. Stewart, of Smithville, was in the city to-day. She seems to be still vigorous and hearty, notwithstanding her great age. She came here to have some of her teeth extracted, as they have been giving her trouble of late. Previous to this she had lost but one tooth in all of her life. We saw her on the streets this forenoon, walking unaided and alone and looking as sprightly as many a woman forty years her junior.

Champion Fox Hunt
Several of the members of the Wilmington Fox Club were out this morning, and succeeded in returning to town accompanied by a fox and a wildcat. Both animals were large, especially the cat, which was one of the largest that has been caught in this part of the country and which was mastered by four young and blooded puppies, owned by Mr. L. P. Thomas.

It is known by many that there is fine sport and exciting scenes on these fox-chases, but it can be better appreciated by a trial. An invitation is extended to any gentleman on application to any member of the Club.
