

THE GREAT REFORM.

It is astonishing, in view of former times, to notice with what complete assiduity both Houses of Congress are now engaged in those duties for which they were elected.

But the times have wonderfully changed. Instead of having, as formerly, a Congress of idlers during the first few weeks of the session, we wonder in grateful amazement at the untiring industry and unflagging zeal of our legislators.

Removing the duties on sugar will injure a large amount of capital invested in the glucose business West.

Pensacola, Fla., is taking steps to form a sanitary commission, in order to place that city in a proper sanitary condition.

Canton is soon to be supplied with pure water by a native company. The capital, subscribed wholly by Chinese, is $300,000.

Fully 4,500 people attended a lecture on temperance, delivered by the veteran John B. Gough, in Music Hall, Cincinnati, on Monday evening last.

Everybody goes to Saratoga to drink the water, but that doesn't explain why bartenders there are paid $200 a month, and it is hard to get them at that.

Late in life George Washington rode in his own carriage, but in the earlier years he took a hack at the cherry tree.

When a man gets into a fit of temper, do not allow his example to become contagious, for there is a law against counter fits.—Boston Transcript.

It is said that trained dresses for evening wear are coming back into favor. It is very evident that if they were not trained it would be very hard for the wearers to manage them.—Lowell Citizen.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Liberia and Hayti as practical applications of his theory of solving the nineteenth century problem in this country. On a hill overlooking the Bosphorus, in a white, stately palace, Murad, the insane brother of the Sultan of Turkey, is kept in luxurious confinement.

SHORTS.

Of all the States, Illinois had the most farms in 1880, 255,741. Even the Chinese astronomers took observations of the late transit of Venus.

Each package contains one and one-half pounds and will, if given strictly according to directions, cure 10 hogs of the Cholera and put 20 hogs in a condition to fatten in one half the usual time, thereby saving one half of the feed.

MOONSHINE.

It may be set down as an axiom that when a person grows fat he grows wasteful. Late in life George Washington rode in his own carriage, but in the earlier years he took a hack at the cherry tree.

When a man gets into a fit of temper, do not allow his example to become contagious, for there is a law against counter fits.—Boston Transcript.
