

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 5, 1883.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

The semi-annual dividends payable in Boston in January aggregate $12,203,018, an increase of $2,514,619 over January, 1882.

The difficulty in Connecticut regarding the "black ballots," has been finally settled by the act of the legislature, that body having passed an act validating the election.

The Richmond, Va., State makes the gratifying announcement that the year 1882 has been the most prosperous, in a commercial sense, in the history of that city.

It is rumored in New York that a sister of Mr. Fred Gebhardt, who is known as one of the leaders in exclusive society circles, has addressed a letter to Mrs. Langtry imploring the latter to put an end to the gossip and scandal which have been created by the peculiar friendship existing between Mrs. Langtry and Mr. Gebhardt.

Mr. Hoar is now a candidate for reelection to the Senate, where he is not a favorite on either side. In fact, he is the most unpopular man in the body, and the least capable of serving Massachusetts beneficially.

THE NEXT SENATOR FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

When Mr. Hoar was a candidate in 1876 for a seat in the Senate, says the New York Sun, he and his friends protested vigorously against a caucus of the Republican members of the Legislature, and succeeded in defeating it.

Mr. Hoar is now a candidate for reelection to the Senate, where he is not a favorite on either side. In fact, he is the most unpopular man in the body, and the least capable of serving Massachusetts beneficially.

In other words, these sham reformers, who are constantly canting about moral ideas and groaning over bad politics, propose to resort to the worst machine methods to return their candidate to the Senate.

The grand old State which was represented by Webster, and Choate, and Everett, and John Davis, and by other illustrious sons, has now fallen into the hands of two political Chadbands, one of whom figured in the Credit Mobilier jobbery.

Gov. Long has many attractive qualities, but lacks the decision which often lifts men of mediocre ability into first places. He has just been elected to the House of Representatives, and he aspires to the Senate.

In the existing state of parties in Massachusetts the Democrats may decide the election of Senator, as between the rival Republicans who are striving for that vacancy. If a contingency should arise by which their votes may turn the scale, we hope they will take the best candidate. There is no danger of their taking the worst, in the person of George F. Hoar, who was virtually repudiated by his own neighbors in Worcester.

In the Democratic caucus at Raleigh a day or two since, a liberal Democrat was present, and for a short time took part in the proceedings, unnoticed by those in attendance. After awhile, however, attention was called to him, and he was asked how he came to be present, when he replied that he was there as a Democrat, and claimed to be as good and true a Democrat as any in the meeting, but that he would retire, or "words to that effect."

Richmond's industrial enterprises were particularly successful, and engines and machinery made there were sold in every South Atlantic State. The State very properly calls the attention of business men to the fact that they cannot rest on what they have done, but they must use still greater endeavors to push forward, if they would surpass the achievements of the year just ending.

Mr. Hoar is now a candidate for reelection to the Senate, where he is not a favorite on either side. In fact, he is the most unpopular man in the body, and the least capable of serving Massachusetts beneficially.

No Whiskey!

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a non-intoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. Rice, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron Bitters: "It is a foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indulgence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation."

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

THE SUN.

More people have read THE SUN during the year just now passing than ever before. It was first printed. No other newspaper published on this side of the earth has been so widely read in any year by so many men and women.

We are cordially informed that people read, and like THE SUN for the following reasons, among others: Because its news columns present in attractive form and with the greatest possible accuracy whatever has interest for humanity; the editorials are full of wisdom, the wit, the philosophy, the notable, the well id sense, the improving nonsense—all the best of the best world at present revolving in space.

Because people have learned that in the marks concerning persons and affairs THE SUN makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the plain and fearless as when supported by fifty-five days in the year, before election, and as well as after, about the wholeness as well as about the small fish, in the face of dissent and plain and fearless as when supported by general approval. THE SUN has absolutely no purpose to serve, save the information of readers and the furtherance of the common good.

Because it is everybody's newspaper, it is so humble that THE SUN is indifferent to its welfare and its rights. No man is so rich that it can afford to be done by. No man's association of men is so powerful enough to be exempt from the strict application of its principles of right and wrong.

Because in politics THE SUN has fought for a dozen years, without intermission and sometimes with the most strenuous efforts, the fight that has resulted in the recent overthrowing popular verdict against Robesonism, and for the restoration of the Union, THE SUN has stood like a rock for the interests of the people against the ambition of bosses, the enervating means of monopolies, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers.

All this is what we are told almost daily by our friends. One man holds that THE SUN is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianity is undiluted with cant. Another holds that it is the best Republican newspaper printed, because it has already achieved a record in the history of the world and is proceeding against the other half with undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be the best magazine of general literature in the world. A fourth holds that it is the most worthy of notice that is current in the world of thought. So every friend of THE SUN covers one of its many sides that appeals with power to the intellect, the heart, and the conscience.

If you already know THE SUN, you will observe that in 1883 it is a little better than ever before. It is not only a mirror of all human activity, a storehouse of the choicest products of common sense and imagination, a mainstay for the cause of honest government, a sentinel for the genuine Jeffersonian Democracy, a scourge for wickedness of every species, and as a commonly good investment for the coming year.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. The several editions of THE SUN are sent by mail, postage as follows: DAILY—36 cents a month, $6.50 a year; with Sunday edition, $7.50. SUNDAY—Eight pages, $1.20 a year. WEEKLY—$1 a year. Eight pages of the best matter of the Daily issues, an Agricultural Department of unequalled merit, market reports, and literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence make THE WEEKLY SUN the newspaper for the farmer's household, for the clubs of ten with $10, an extra copy free.
