What Capt. F. M. Wooten of New Hanover County N. C. says of the Wilcox, Gibbs & Co's. Manipulated Guano after using one ton. Tell Mr. Petteway send me another ton of same Guano. I like it better than any I have ever used. I can tell in three days to the row were I used it; better than the Peruvian; want it quick as possible. For sale by JAMES T. PETTEWAY, Agent, Jan 9-10-11.

It is estimated that 300,000 people followed Gambetta's body to the grave.

Baltimore has had the small-pox bad although the disease seems to be subsiding somewhat. Forty-three new cases were reported last Friday.

The House committee on the tariff have agreed to replace the tax on quinine for the benefit of the two or three monopolists who control the trade.

The Carolina, Cumberland Gap and Chicago Railroad Company have made a mortgage of their road-bed and property for $10,000,000, and also a mortgage of their income for $7,000,000, to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York, and propose to push their road to completion.

The question "How long is it necessary to keep children away from school after an infectious disease?" was answered sometime since by the Academy of Medicine, Paris. With scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles and small-pox, isolation should be maintained for forty days. Chick-pox and mumps lose their contagious power after twenty-five days.

Among other bills to restrict the State is one introduced by Mr. Womack, of Chatham county, which throws New Hanover into the Fourth district and with Pender, Brunswick, Columbus, Robeson, Richmond, Stanly, Anson, Union and Cabarrus. This fulfills the requirement that the various counties shall directly connect. The population of these counties is 161,000 and in them Jarvis' majority was 1,050 and Bennett's 678. We would dislike to part company with our old friends but we might go farther and fare worse.

Logan, in his three days' speech in the Fitz John Porter case, took an entirely uncalculated occasion to stab the South. In speaking of the solid Democratic vote in favor of Porter, he said: "This vote means that that side of the chamber is ready to restore those who played us false or acted a false part on our side during the war."

A Louisville Courier-Journal dispatch, in speaking of the language, says: "At this remark, Vance, of North Carolina, walked over to the Republican side and, meeting Logan, who was on his way to the cloak-room, said: 'That was a d-d mean speech you made, Logan.'"

The latter replied that he did not intend for it to be mean; that he was perfectly sincere in what he said. "I did not wish to be understood meaning to say anything personally disrespectful to any Senator."

"Nevertheless, what you did say was contemptible," said Vance. "You must have fully understood the import of your language. You know very well that the Southern Senators have taken but very little, if any, part in the Porter discussion to influence anybody's vote in his behalf. The Porter case was brought here by two Northern Senators, one a Democrat and the other a Republican, and we have simply contented ourselves by voting as it suited us. You go out of your way, sir, to attack us because we do not care to listen to your long speeches. It has come to a pretty pass when a Senator cannot do as he pleases on this floor in the way of voting without having his motives impugned. Your speech, sir, was a bitter and wholly unjustifiable one, and your mean charge totally unfounded."

The conversation was heard by several Senators, and created quite a sensation. Both Logan and Vance were getting hot under the collars, and had not a friend of Vance come along and locked his arm and led him off, the quarrel might have terminated in blows."

We were pleased to receive a call to-day from Mr. B. F. Miller, agent for the Charlotte Journal.

This is the usual "long wet spell in January," only it is longer and wetter and muddier than usual.

The street force has been kept busy trying to keep the crossings clear of mud but it is a difficult thing to do.

Sorry are we to learn that the Oxford Free Lance has suspended. We are sorry for the publishers and sorry, too, for the Democrats of Granville county. They never should have allowed it.

The present disagreeable weather seems to be general all over this section of country. It is hoped that there may be freshets in the small streams and that thereby much produce will find its way to market.

Capt McIntire has made heavy reductions on many articles he is offering, such as ladies' cloaks, dolmans and jackets and children's cloaks, which he is offering at cost and less than cost. Those in need will find a chance for some rare bargains there.

The Richmond Rocket is the name of a new paper which comes to us from Rockingham. It takes the place of the Bee De Bee, the proprietor of that paper, Rev. Frank Sanford, having sold to Mr. Robert W. Knight, recently of the Stanly Gleaner. The latter is a young gentleman of ability, pluck and perseverance. We know him of old and he is sure to succeed. He has our blessing.

Exports Foreign.

Ger barque Fidelia, Capt. Meyer, cleared to-day for Antwerp, with 200 casks spirits turpentine and 3,103 barrels rosin, valued at $9,857.98, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

The Postoffice.

The renovation of the Postoffice building, by means of the scrubbing brush and paint and varnish has been completed, in the interior as well as in the lobby. It is the first time, we believe, that paint has been found necessary since the building was first erected, some ten years ago, we think. As there seems but little prospect of our getting the government to erect a postoffice building in this city it is as well to keep that now in use as such, which is leased by the postal authorities and which is admirably designed for the purpose, as neat and comfortable as possible. Hence these tears.

For Senator.

The latest advices from Raleigh received here are of yesterday's date and they seem to throw discredit upon the report published by us yesterday to the effect that the election for Senator lies between Gov. Jarvis and Col. Waddell, a report that, it will be remembered, we took the liberty of disbelieving. It is now said, and from excellent authority, that Gen. Ransom will be nominated in caucus on the first ballot, thus confirming the opinion so frequently expressed by us. The caucus is to be held to-morrow night and the election takes place on Friday.

Wilmington Light Infantry.

At the annual meeting of this Company, held last night at their armory, the following officers were elected: Captain—John L. Cantwell. First Lieutenant—R. H. Beery. Second Lieutenant—W. C. Jones. Junior Second Lieutenant—F. L. Meares. Ensign—F. M. Fremont. Civil officers—N. F. Parker, Chairman; Thos. C. James, Assistant Chairman; F. L. Meares, Secretary and Treasurer.

It was announced (as has already been stated in the REVIEW) that Adjutant General Jones, of the State Guard, would visit the city on the 19th instant, and deliver a public address on State military matters. The same evening a ball will be given by the Company at Germania Hall, complimentary to the Adjutant General.

The military convention to be held at Raleigh on the 22d inst., was discussed and delegates were appointed to represent the Company.

Legislative Locals.

Mr. Lyon, of Bladen, introduced into the Senate yesterday a bill incorporating the Grand Council of the American Legion of Honor and subordinate councils working under jurisdiction of said Grand Council.

In the House Mr. Proctor introduced a bill to protect fish in Columbus and Robeson counties; also, a bill to prevent the sale of liquors within one mile of Long Branch Church, in Robeson county.

Mr. Newell, a bill concerning "Big Swamp," in Bladen county.

A citizen of the quaker City, Mr. F. Freed, living at 123 Vine St., recently spoke as follows: "Being afflicted with a cough, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup was recommended to me for relief. I am happy to say that a few doses not only gave instant relief, but effected a complete cure."

Heart of Steel.

We have received Christian Reid's new book, Heart of Steel. It is from the press of D. Appleton & Co., New York, and was received through Mr. Heinsberger, who has it on sale.

With one exception we have read carefully, and we may add with much delight, all of Miss Fisher's works. Morton House is probably the best of her many productions and Heart of Steel is not far behind it, the difference lying in the construction of the romance, in which Morton House is the superior of the other. The plot in Heart of Steel is weak and we do not think that the authoress is happy in the make-up of the heroine of the work. There is too much of the idealistic, and too little of the real, in the portrayal of her character and the devotion which is accorded to her on all sides, a fault, by the way, which is a very prominent one as regards other characters than those of Irene. But these weaknesses are in a great measure redeemed by the beauty of language, originality of ideas and charmingly descriptive powers so freely displayed throughout the works.

A Mad Dog at Whiteville.

Dr. J. F. Harrell, of Whiteville, writes us of a case of hydrophobia developed in that neighborhood. We, in common with many others, had thought that mad dogs were to be feared only during the warm Summer months, but in this it seems that we were mistaken. Dr. Harrell says that the rabid beast of which he speaks has bitten twenty cats and dogs and several persons in Whiteville. The remedies in the case of human beings are uncertain, as the results are not uniform, but to be forewarned is to be forearmed, and he hopes to be able to prevent any evil consequences. He thinks, moreover, that only one of the five or six persons bitten will take the malady, and the symptoms will not manifest themselves until twenty or thirty days after the abrasure has healed.

Gorman's Company.

We spoke yesterday of the presence in the city of Mr. Cline, the Agent of Gorman's Opera Company. We understand now that the troupe will appear here two nights, Monday and Tuesday; on the former occasion in the Mascotte and on Tuesday in the Pirates of Penzance. An exchange, in speaking of the Mascotte as rendered by this company, says:

A large audience listened to the rendering of "The Mascotte" last night at English's by the Gorman Comic Opera Company. The company is an excellent one, and gives entire satisfaction, as was manifested by frequent and generous applause. Signor Tagliapietra carried the audience by storm with his full and magnificent voice—in fact, the part of "Pippo" does not afford him sufficient scope for his powerful voice. He is too heavy for it. However, it is not a very bad fault, and did not interfere with the enjoyment of the opera. He is a splendid looking gentleman, and his voice is full of power and occasionally of liquid sweetness. Miss Carson's "Mascotte," or "Bottina," was a very beautiful and cultivated rendition. She soon won the audience and kept it thoroughly interested throughout. She is pretty, graceful and winning, with a rich and sweet voice. Brown's "Lorenzo" was capital, and so was the "Rococo" of Mr. Frear. Miss Hattie Anderson's "Fiametta" was very good, lacking, perhaps, somewhat in spirit, yet it was good enough. The "Frederick" of Mr. Glover also deserves special note. In fact the entire performance was satisfactory. It must be seen by all who like good music and the comic in opera.

No matter what your ailment is, Brown's Iron Bitters will surely benefit you.
