Tom Thumb was 46 years old on the 4th inst.

Patti wears $250,000 in the ball-room scene in "Traviata."

Reports of the prevalence of the small pox come from numerous localities in the South.

New York values her real estate for 1883 at $1,080,879,403, an increase of $45,580,587 as compared with the previous year.

The Waltham Watch Company made its 2,000,000th watch the other day, and the thirty foremen in the works had a big dinner.

The stockholders of the People's Passenger Railway, of Philadelphia, are out of pocket $160,000 by last year's business.

Texas is fairly scooping in the emigrants. The Northwestern and the Southern States are the principal feeders for this flame.

The grain bulls in Chicago assert that they will put the price of grain up to 60 cents per bushel. It is all a speculative, gambling movement.

Hon. Randall L. Gibson, Senator-elect from Louisiana, will, it is said, resign his seat in the Senate to accept the presidency of a college to be erected in New Orleans.

Gen. Ransom will be reelected to the U. S. Senate to-morrow, at 12 o'clock.
We had been under the impression that the election would take place four days earlier but in this we were mistaken.

Mayor Edson, of New York, seems to have surrendered to John Kelley.
All of the principal papers of that city, with one exception, have attacked him.
Edson and Kelley are perhaps determined to butcher the young Democratic giant in that city.

Women have found vindication in an unexpected quarter. The report of the Census Bureau shows that men in the United States spend more money in dress than women. The figures are $498,000,000 for men and $317,000,000 for women. The average is $15 a year for men and $27 for women.

The Albatross, a swift schooner, has been placed at the command of Prof.
Baird, by the government, for the purpose of looking after the propagation of fish along the Atlantic coast;—in other words it is a scientific expedition for the benefit of dolphins and blue fish, who have every reason to be grateful to Prof Baird and the U. S. Government.
It would be interesting to know the cost of every fish taken from the water which is put there by Prof. Baird.

We find in the News and Courier some very interesting statistics as regards South Carolina's growth and progress during the decade ending with 1880. The figures are from the handbook prepared by the State Agricultural Department and they show that there were 3,010,539 acres of improved land in 1870 against 3,704,560 in 1880; 221,500 bales of cotton made in 1870, against 516,490 bales in 1880 and 4,725,469 bushels of grain made in 1870, against 17,010,593 bushels in 1880.
There were 19 mills and $4,683 spindles in operation in 1870, with a capital invested of $2,337,000 and products valued at $1,529,937, against 48 mills, 92-789 spindles, $2,708,500 capital, $3,750-770 value of products, in 1880.

Wood is retailing for from 80 cents to $1 per load.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 453 bales.

Schooner Kate G. Robbins, Sooy, hence, arrived at Baltimore Jan. 13th.

Schooner Lula J. Lewis, cleared at Charleston Jan. 13th for this port.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Barque Siam, Williams, from Hamburg, for this port, passed Falmouth, Eng., Dec. 28th.

Sheriff Wallace, of Duplin, settled with the State Treasurer last Saturday, paying over $5,315.27.

The storm signal which was raised on Saturday was taken down yesterday forenoon. False alarm.

Yesterday was pleasant enough but to-day has been cold and cloudy with the wind from the North.

Dr. Thos. F. Wood returned to the city, on Saturday night from a trip of a few days to Washington city.

Steamship Gulf Stream, Ingram, cleared from New York for this port January 13th, and sailed the same day.

There was only one case—that of a woman—before the Mayor this morning, charged with disorderly conduct.
She was discharged.

Capt Thornton reports the river falling slowly when he left Fayetteville, on Saturday morning. There was then 20 feet on the Shoals.

Both of the new cars designed as first class and sleeping coaches on the Carolina Central R. R. are now regularly in the trains on that road.

Pop-corn balls soaked in whiskey and rolled in sugar are said to be in great demand by such people as want to get drunk slowly and go on a bender at home.

Mr. Isaac L. Greenwald will turn his face to the North this evening. He goes to Philadelphia, New York and Boston, to lay in his Spring stock of boots and shoes.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. H. Mallard, as it appears in this issue. He is in receipt of new stock nearly every day and will sell everything at the lowest prices for cash.

We are glad to know that Hon. A.
H. VanBokkelen, who has been confined to his house for a month past, and who has been very sick during that time, has so far recovered as to venture out this morning, for the first time since he was first attacked.

Mr. William M. Hays, Jr. has a hen which laid an egg on Sunday that was a monster of its kind. Its circumfer-ence, taken lengthwise, was 8 inches, and 5 inches as taken the other way.
It is said that the hen was so jubilant over the event that she cackled all the remainder of the day.

A lady at Gravelly Hill, Bladen county, has sent us a solution of the nine letter puzzle which appeared in this Review, as selected matter, about a week ago. She makes the nine letters spell eight words, according to the requirement and in the manner prescribed by the rules.

Military Address.
Gen. Johnstone Jones, Adjutant-General of the State, will arrive in this city on Thursday next and will deliver an address on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock sharp. The address, which will consume about an hour's time in its delivery, will be connected with topics showing the usefulness of a complete military organization for the State and the need of wise legislation to promote its thoroughness and efficiency. After the address, to which the public are cordially invited, there will be a bal-given under the auspices of the Wilmington Light Infantry, at Germania Hall, which will undoubtedly be an interesting and pleasant occasion to the participants.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Resignation of Capt. Johnson.

We are sorry to learn that Capt. V.
Q. Johnson, for so many years past General Superintendent of the Carolina Central R. R., has resigned that position. His resignation takes effect at once and Capt. Johnson leaves here tonight for his home in Lincoln, where he hopes to pass the remainder of his days in quiet and surrounded by his family.

Capt. Johnson's determination to resign was made known last Saturday.
In response to enquiries made by us this morning he informed us that he was impelled to this step by the fact that his health required it, that he needed rest from the cares and worries of business life and he thought the best way to accomplish this would be to resign the position he held. "He has led a very active life and although apparently not more than 40 years of age, he is, in reality, approaching the three score years and ten."

Capt. Johnson has many warm friends in this city who will regret his decision. We also beg to be included in the number. Our intercourse with him has always been of the most pleasant nature and we have received nothing but uniform kindness and courtesy at his hands. We tender our most sincere wishes for his future health and prosperity.

A Michigan boy ate a bar of soap, drank a lot of soda water and went to bed to cure his cold. The doctor had a hard time to pull him through, but the boy says the next time he catches a cold he will use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

A Sad Event.

We are pained to chronicle the death of Captain Jackson M. Hartsell, which occurred at his residence in Magnolia, Duplin county, on Saturday, the 13th inst. He was stricken with paralysis something more than a month ago, according to which appeared at the time in the REVIEW, and was almost speechless for several days. Subsequently, however, he regained to a considerable extent the power of speech, but softening of the brain intervened, so that his recovery was deemed hopeless. On Saturday morning he received another severe attack of paralysis, which terminated fatally the same day. On Thursday, the 11th inst., Mrs. James Southernland, mother of the wife of Capt. Hartsell, died after a short but severe illness, and it is presumed that this sad event precipitated the attack upon him and hastened his death.
Capt. Hartsell was, we believe, about 40 years of age. He was a captain in the Confederate service during the war and was captured near Kingston in 1865 and carried to Fort Delaware where he was kept a prisoner until the cessation of the hostilities.
He then came to Magnolia where he married and where he has resided ever since. He has been prominently identified with every good work in that town; has been an earnest, zealous and successful Sunday School superintendent, and a warm advocate of the cause of education. Though quiet, modest and unostentatious in his manners, he will be sadly missed from the sphere of usefulness in which he was a central point. He leaves a wife, who is seriously if not critically ill, and three children; a daughter just merging into womanhood, and two sons. We tender to them our sincere sympathy and condolence in this their hour of sad af-liction and bereavement.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOB'S.

John Thompson.

The celebrated Canadian plays here next Thursday night, we clip the following from the Rochester (N.Y.) Union and Advertiser:
"If any person in Rochester doubts that there is a cure for the blues, he should have witnessed the 'Star Comedian' John Thompson, last night in 'Around the World.' There are a great many patent medicines that are supposed to cure all kinds of pains and aches. Thompson should come under this head, and guaranteed as an infallible cure. To see Thompson will make you forget your mother-in-law. The play is as simple as A. B. C.; the audience are told of the ending before the play begins—however, surprises follow each other in rapid succession: Irish, German, Italian, Yankee, French, Chinese, English and Hebrew tread closely upon each other's heels. The audience are never allowed to think. Songs, dances, and musical instruments are substituted for monotonous dialogue.
Mr. Thompson is almost continually before the people, and by this the audience is spared the dullness which a large company of inferior people bring with it. John Thompson has hereforbeen chiefly known for his 'On Hand' and other sensationalisms. When he wrote 'On Hand,' some dozen years ago a host of imitators soon sprang up.

so at last he decided to bid adieu to the agonizing incidents which were made to do service as thread upon which to display his versatility. In 'Around the World' he has discovered a new way of accomplishing the same object, and the result is an entertainment so pure in character, full of interest and fun, that all who see it cannot help but be pleased. The performance will be repeated to-night and to-morrow night, with a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

A Sudden Attack.

Capt. T. C. McIlhenny, Jr., conductor of a local freight on the Carolina Central R. R., was taken quite sick at Laurinburg, on last Friday night. He was attacked while walking along the street and fell unconscious. He was very sick on Saturday but to-day we are glad to learn, he is reported better and hopes to arrive here to-morrow.
His attack was not paralysis, however, as reported by the Charlotte Journal, but the attack was in the head and was a result, it is believed, of an injury sustained by him when very young.

Suit for Damages.

Mr. J. C. Holmes, of Charleston, has understand, brought suit against the Carolina Central R. R. Company for damages for being ejected from a car on that road. The circumstances are as follows, as related by the Charlotte Journal. Mr. Holmes bought a first-class ticket on the Carolina Central and claimed that the coach in which he was directed to go was not a first-class car and that the smoke and discomfort of the coach made him ill. So he went back to the sleeping car, and, claiming a right to be there on the ticket bought, for a first-class car, was ejected from the sleeping car upon his refusal to pay extra fare. This is the case as we can gather from Mr. Holmes' friends.
