THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1883. NO. 20

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

TEN CENT COLUMN. Advertisements inserted in this column at 10 cents per line, each insertion, but no charge of less than 30 cents will be made on any advertisement.

Baltimore, city and suburbs, claims 400,000 inhabitants.

Illinois has 3,000 insane persons and $3,000,000 surplus in her treasury.

Even the chicory with which coffee is adulterated is itself first adulterated, says the Herald.

It is estimated that as many as three hundred lives were lost by the sinking of the Cimbia.

The 177th birthday of Benjamin Franklin was celebrated in many Pennsylvania public schools on the 17th of this month.

An attempt at resurrecting the not very virile Greenback party will be made at a convention called for February 22nd, at Washington City.

Prince Frederick Charles Alexander, brother of the Emperor William, of Germany, died at Berlin on Sunday last. He was 82 years of age.

The Legislature of North Carolina hasn't got pluck enough to handle the sheep question. One mangy dog in their eyes is evidently worth a dozen sheep.

A Texas paper said "thousands of good men are spoiled by marrying the wrong woman," whereupon a Utah paper says that isn't the sort of men they have there.

Mayor Edson has again outraged public opinion in New York by appointing his own nephew to an important position under him, being the second appointment of a relative already made.

The number of conflagrations throughout the country during the past month is estimated at 183, destroying property amounting to $10,500,000. The total for the year is set down at the enormous total of $90,250,000. In these returns Canada is included.

During 1881 no fewer than 18,670 human beings were killed by snakes, and 2,759 by "wild animals," in India; while 43,600 head of cattle were in like manner destroyed. As a set-off to this terrible loss we learn that 251,968 snakes and 15,374 "wild animals" were destroyed, and upward of £10,000 paid by the Indian government for their destruction.

Our clever neighbor, the Petersburg Index-Appel, thinks that the North Carolina Legislature "will prove the most industrious, patriotic and intelligent body that has occupied the capitol for many years." If our friend of the I-A could see the said members squirming over the sheep question, afraid to take a firm hold of it and equally afraid to let go, he might be induced to modify his opinion somewhat.

Atlanta Constitution: Georgia in 1841 owed $1,309,750; in 1852 she owed $2,801,972; this sum was reduced to $2,670,750 in 1860; in 1870 the debt stood at $6,544,500, but it was rapidly increased until it stood on paper at $20,197,500. When the true amount of the debt was ascertained, and when the process of payment had been begun, the debt was reduced to $10,335,000; and the bonds of the State are now in demand at premiums ranging from seven to twenty per cent.

The "Giant Powder Works" near West Berkeley, Cal., exploded on Sunday morning last killing one white man, the Assistant Superintendent, and twenty two Chinamen. Beside these fatal results there are several Chinamen severely wounded. At last reports the magazines, in which there were eight tons of powder, were uninjured, but as the place was in flames there was much fear that those also would be destroyed. The scene is described as one of desolation and death.

The tight style of pantaloons is going out of fashion, and the young men of the country can now draw a long breath of relief.

For frost bitten feet—keep away from the fire. Put your feet in cold water. Then bathe them in water with saltpetre and you will be all right.

Nor. barque J. H. Schwensen, Capt. Clausen, cleared today for Liverpool with 1,442 bales of cotton, valued at $66,630, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co.

This is the sort of weather that enables a man to wear a paper collar on a long journey, and allows him to turn it and wear it back again. There is no perspiring, by the way.

There is scarcely a young man who has not some article of clothing hanging unused in his wardrobe, which, if properly bestowed, would save many a bitter shiver to some poor image of humanity.

Miss Rose Eyttinge has just closed a successful engagement at the Brooklyn Theatre and will come South this week reaching here Saturday, when she gives "Princess of Paris," at Matinee, and her great play, "Felicia," at night. Seats on sale at Dyer's tomorrow.

Some Pumpkin. Mr. Wm. H. Groten has at his store, corner Front and Castle streets, a pumpkin that is a real curiosity. It is only 11 inches in circumference (about 4 inches in diameter) and is 44 inches in length. It was raised on the Sound, near the city.

Very Ill. We are very sorry to hear of the extreme illness of Mr. Benj. Mock, at one time of this city, but now of Knoxville, Tenn. Mr. Mock is well remembered here. He is a brother-in-law to Col. Pope and was in the railroad office here for a year or more where he made many warm friends. He is a member of the Knights of Honor, having been initiated as a member of Carolina Lodge in this city. We hope to have better news soon as to his condition.

Knights of Pythias. The Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias of North Carolina will hold their 13th annual session in this city, commencing on Tuesday, February 13th, and will probably continue four or five days, according to the amount of business that will come before it for consideration.

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 14th, Germania Lodge, No. 4, K. of P., of this city, will give a banquet at the Purcell House to the members of the Grand Lodge and to other invited guests, and it is intended to be a grand affair, as the committee of arrangements are making every exertion for success.

On Thursday evening, February 15th, the Castle Hall of Germania Lodge will be dedicated by the officers of the Grand Lodge, after which a complimentary ball will be given by Germania Lodge, at Germania Hall. A trip to the seashore is also in contemplation, to take place some time during the same week, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached in regard to that part of the fun. The committee of arrangements meet to night, when it is probable the programme will be completed.

The following comprise the committee of arrangements: Messrs. John Haar, Jr., W. H. Gerken, C. F. VonKampen, F. C. Miller, E. W. Doscher, J. G. L. Gieschen and H. C. Prempert. These names convey the assurance that there is to be a good time with the Knights of Pythias.

No Election.

It is now positively decided that no election will be ordered to fill the vacancy made by the death of Hon. John W. Shackelford. The legal requirements are such that, when they had all been fulfilled, Mr. Shackelford's successor would be unable to present his credentials until about the first day of March, three or four days before the final adjournment of the Forty-seventh Congress. If the Governor had issued his proclamation today, calling for an election within thirty days, that would have made the election fall on Thursday, February 22d. The returns would then have to be received, two days being necessary for that purpose, and then the Board of Canvassers would have to meet and report, and all of this would take at least a week.

This is in concession to an opinion, which seems to be general, that all that is necessary to provide for an election is the issuance of a writ by the Governor. In this there is a grave mistake. According to the election laws (Sec. 9), the judges and inspectors of an election must be appointed "on or before the first Monday of the month next preceding the month in which each election is held," and, according to this, for an election to be held in February, the judges and inspectors must have been appointed not later than the first Monday in January, which, in this instance, was the first day of the month.

Section 50 of the Election Laws provides that "if at any time after any election, there shall be a vacancy in the representation in Congress, the Governor shall issue a writ of election, and by proclamation," &c. But as Sec. 43 provides that "every election held in pursuance of a writ from the Governor shall be conducted in like manner as the regular biennial elections, so far as the particular case can be governed by the general rules," it may be that authority is thus vested in the Governor to call the election irrespective of the regulations prescribed as to appointment of registrars and poll-holders. If so, we cannot see why it is necessary that thirty days should issue between the call and the election, other than the fact of giving the people the necessary notification of the fact that they are to vote for some man who would have barely time to hang up his hat in the capitol before he would have to take it down again.

But the Legislature decided yesterday (and very wisely, too), that there should be no election to fill this vacancy and consequently there will be no election. We have merely followed out this rambling article to its close because we have felt interested in the subject and hope, too, to interest our readers. The election laws for this State are very good reading matter for all who feel an interest in the subject and what man is there among us who does not? and so far as our observation has extended they seem to cover all requirements.

"Mrs. Partington, what do you use for a very bad cold?" asked Mrs. Dull "Handkerchiefs, ma'am," answered the aged dame, looking over her spectacles. Handkerchiefs are a desideratum in the event of a cold, but a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a necessity, because it not only relieves, but cures the worst cold or cough.

Baker and Farron. The celebrated Dutch comedians, appear at the Opera House on next Monday evening. The Cincinnati Enquirer says:

Yesterday afternoon and evening the receipts at the Grand Opera House went over the $2,500 notch; and the trio who share in the same—Messrs Miles, Baker & Farron—felt entirely satisfied with such a Christmas present from their Cincinnati friends. The occasion for this vast assemblage was the first appearance this season of the favorite comedians, Baker & Farron, in their original drama of Chris and Lena, which has always been favorably received whenever presented by them in our city. The play has been changed some for the better since last season, and while not alarmingly strong in plot or literary merit, makes a good frame-work for the introduction of the specialties of the stars. As Chris Mr. Baker, aside from being very amusing, pleases all with his songs and dances, and in the last act his likeness to Joe Emmet is very striking. He kept the large audience in a continual smile whenever he occupied the stage. Mr. Farron's reception was a most generous one, the boys being determined to show him that they had not forgotten their old friend, Tim Flakerly. He is as good as ever, as the jelly, fun-loving Irishman, and as the German girl, Lena. The change in make up and dialect is so great that many of the audience could not believe that the good-looking girl was the Tim of the preceding act. His Irish song of Fitzpatrick was received with unbounded applause. The support is much better than that of last season. Miss Crocker being very acceptable as Lena and Mrs. W. C. Jones, as the lawyer's wife was very good.

Military Convention. The Military Convention of the North Carolina State Guard assembled at Raleigh at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Wilmington Light Infantry will be well and ably represented by the delegation which left here this morning consisting of Capt. J. S. Cantwell, Lieut. W. C. Jones, Ensign F. M. Fremon, Capt. W. B. McKay and privates Iredell Meares, W. L. DeRosset, Jr., and O. P. Meares, Jr.

Adjutant General Jones left here yesterday morning for Raleigh and will be in attendance at the Convention today. It was his opinion, as well as the opinion of Inspector General Cameron, from the information they had received that the Convention would prove a success and that the object for which it was called would be attained. Representatives from nearly every military organization in the State are expected to be present, and as the object of the gathering is fully understood a prolonged session is not anticipated.

To-night there will be a Grand Military Ball which will undoubtedly be attended by a large portion of the military visitors from outside of Raleigh, and a good time may reasonably be expected.

There seems to be an abundance of wood in the market, but the price don't tumble at all. The reason of this we presume is that the cold weather makes the demand equal to the supply.
