TEN CENT COLUMN.

Advertisements inserted in this column at 10 cents per line, each insertion, but no charge of less than 30 cents will be made on any advertisement.

Bishop Kavanaugh is wintering in Florida, for the benefit of his health.

The Princess Louise has been styled the beauty of the British royal family.

Excellent mutton from New Zealand has been selling in the London market at 4s and a penny.

The late Prince Charles of Prussia was an inveterate smoker having consumed during the past sixty years from eighteen to twenty four strong cigars per day.

The pews in Dr. Talmage's church will yield this year $17,285 and the Doctor will get his $12,000 salary. The income of the church is estimated at $25,000.

Mrs. John T. Church, of Detroit, presented her husband last Saturday night with one boy and two girls at a birth. In all there are nineteen pounds of new baby. Happy man!

Jan 4 being the fifty-fourth anniversary of the birthday of the Tichborne claimant, his two sons, Roger and James, were permitted to visit him at Portsea Prison, England. The convict looked remarkably well.

We don't know what cold weather is down here. Think of the thermometer being down to 60 degrees below zero, as it was at Winnipeg, on Monday night. We call it cold here when the mercury is a hundred degrees higher than that.

A nostrum largely peddled and warranted to cure acute rheumatism is made up chiefly of the oil of winter green. The substance is really effective, but is better taken in the form of salicylic acid, which its active principle.

The Union Club, of New York, which is composed of rouses, stock gamblers and wealthy nonentities, commands Gebhard, who is a member, for his refusal to fight with Cunningham at St. Louis. This is not singular as we doubt if there is a man in the Club plucky enough to have accepted the challenge.

The religious character of a city is not always to be calculated by the number of its church spires. Chicago ranks fourth in this country in the number of its churches and yet there are theatres open publicly every Sunday night, in that pious city and places much worse held forth their allurements under the very shade of the church spires. Chicago has a great many churches, it is true, but yet in the sweet by-and-by it may be found in the same tangled with Sodom and Gomorrah.

A new invention for building purposes is called "terra cotta lumber." It is a kind of brick so soft that it can be sawed and worked with edged tools as readily as wood, and nails can be driven into it and will hold as well as in wood. Its makers claim that it has tenacity and resistance to strains greater than oak lumbars. It is made from a kind of clay found in abundance in New Jersey and elsewhere, is as cheap as brick, and has many other advantages as a fire-proof building material.

The Western Union Telegraph Company has reduced its rates to twenty five cents throughout New England, where its competitors have been developing for some time past. Failing to secure control of them, Mr. Gould is evidently of opinion that the next best plan is to compel them to work at the lowest possible figure.

Norfolk Virginian: "A writer of reminiscences of the war, in a Portsmouth paper, relates that General Mahone once, when the Yankee cavalry came upon him suddenly in a private house somewhere in Southampton, escaped into the garden half-dressed, and there finished his toilet under a cabbage leaf." Isn't that a mistake? Wasn't it a mushroom, instead of a cabbage leaf?

It must have been a terrible state of affairs, that caused the psalmist to ask: "Who can stand before his cold?" In his day the remedies were few and doubtful; how much happier should this generation be, that has a household remedy, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; so wonderful has been its cures that millions rise up and call it "blessed."

Gen. Merritt, the new commandant at West Point, it said to be acting on the theory that soldiers should be soldiers and nothing else. He has issued orders to the effect that they shall live on the government rations, cease doing work outside of their government duties and sleep in government barracks. Some of the married soldiers have been living in the adjoining village of Highland Falls, but Gen. Merritt has ordered the construction of log huts for their accommodation within the government lines and their wives will be inducted into the experiences of a real soldier's life. He has also enforced the rule in relation to the presentation of passes to the sentinels, both in leaving and entering the grounds. Here requires the searching of all carriages or sleighs for deserters and prohibited goods, such as beer, whiskey and cigars. If Gen. Merritt sticks to his new reform orders the condition of the forces under his command will undoubtedly be improved, but the fun of the boys will be very sadly curtailed.

Comic (?) valentines are now displayed in the store windows, and as works of high art they have never been exceeded.

Envelopes were first used in 1839, but the letter writers of those good old days were too sensible to use ragged-edge note paper.

Marrying and giving in marriage seems to be the order of the day. Old bachelors are apprehensive that the end of time is near at hand.

S. VanAmringe, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court, has gone to Raleigh to attend the meeting of the Clerks to have been held in that city to-day.

Eytinge is pronounced Iting, the Richmond State to the contrary, notwithstanding. At least, that is the way the lady's agent told us it is pronounced and perhaps he ought to know.

Those farmers who did not take advantage of the last freeze to fill their ice houses will, according to the predictions of Vennor, have an opportunity of doing so about the 27th, next Saturday.

The box-sheet for the Rose Eytinge performance, which was opened this morning, is being rapidly taken up. To-day, at noon, there were a very few seats which had not been taken on the lower floor.

Rev. James B. Taylor, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, is now in Greensboro, where he is assisting Rev. Dr. W. A. Nelson in a protracted meeting which is now in progress there.

The News and Observer tells us that "Mr. W. B. Phillips, of the Department of Agriculture, who has been acting as State Geologist, has resigned to accept a position as chemist of the Navassa Guano Company, of Wilmington."

Eytinge.

The New York Dramatic News says that "last week's engagement of Miss Rose Eytinge at Williamsburg, New York, was a gratifying success, and she was greeted by large audiences at every performance."

Ladies and children's matinee Saturday afternoon at the Opera House; prices 25 cents and 50 cents. The "Princess of Paris" is a beautiful play and presented with grand success by Miss Eytinge. "Felicia," Saturday night. Seats on sale for Baker & Farron to-morrow morning.

Dr. Battle's Injuries.

Our readers will remember that Dr. S. Westray Battle, of Edgecombe county, Assistant Surgeon in the U. S. Navy, some weeks ago shipped and fell on the deck of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, while lying at Smithville, and struck his hand on a pane of glass. The injury has since proved, we are sorry to hear, quite serious. The leading sinews of the wrist were severed, as we learn from the Tarboro Southerner, and he will probably lose the use of his fingers.

Ho! For Burgaw!

A jolly good time is expected at Burgaw to-morrow night. The Grand Ball is to come off then, and the beauty and gallantry of Pender and the surrounding counties are expected to be present in force. The committee of arrangements are making every exertion to secure a grand success, and they know just how to make things pleasant and agreeable to all visitors. Wilmington ought to send up a good delegation, and as the ball is to be public, they will be sure of a cordial reception.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Water in the Country.

We who live in the city have but a faint idea of the perplexities of those who live in the country during such spells of wet weather as we have had recently. We were told this morning by a gentleman who arrived from Onslow county last night that, owing to the rains, there has not a mail arrived at Angola postoffice in the last three weeks. The streams are so full that in coming to the railroad to take the train he was obliged to come to Rocky Point, the water being so high that he could not cross at Bannerman's Bridge.

A New Enterprise.

We understand that there is a movement on foot among a number of our citizens who like good beef to open, about the 10th or 15th of February, four or five stalls in the New Market House, on South Front street, which will be supplied with mutton and beef, much of which will be brought out from New York. A good butcher will be employed to superintend the stalls and to direct the movement of the other employes and a sufficiency of capital, it is said, has already been secured for the enterprise. These are the facts as told us and we give them as a matter of news to our readers. Particulars are promised us a few days later.

Royalty vs. A Speech.

Rather a funny story is told at the expense of royalty. It comes from Weldon, and is something like the following: On the day the Vice-regal party was expected at that noted city on the Roanoke, several citizens from the surrounding country happened to be in town and were preparing to leave when a Wilmington & Weldon railroad official asked them if they were not going to stop and see the Queen.

"Countryman—"What Queen?"
"R. R. Official—"Why, Victoria, Queen of England. She is coming on the next train and you had better stop and get a glimpse of her."
"Countryman—"Who cares for Queen Victoria? I don't! Come let's go home."
"R. R. Official—"But she is to stop here two or three days, and is to have a public reception. Tom Emry is going to make a speech of welcome."
"Countryman—"Tom Emry goin' to make a speech? Well, I'll be dog-goned if I don't stop and hear that speech."

How the admirer of "Tom Emry" felt when he was undeceived in the matter is a subject upon which your deponent saith not, but it is very evident that he thought his friend "some" on speech making.

Silver Plated Spoons and Forks, low prices, at JACOB'S.

Music and Skates.

An error, which we regret very much, occurred in the advertisement of Messrs Schloss & Hardwick, in yesterday's issue. The notice should have been for to-night, instead of to-morrow night. And, by the way, we would remind our readers that a very pleasant time at the Rink is marked out for this evening, at which all may enjoy themselves. There will be music, and skating and dancing. The ladies are invited to attend, gentlemen will be charged admission.

City Court.

Obadiah Jenkins, of whom we have read in the long ago, was brought before the Mayor this morning, charged with being drunk and disorderly last night. He has kept sober for four or five months and it was hoped that he would continue in well-doing. During the holidays he was not betrayed by the seductive influence of the flowing bowl, and during the recent spell of wet weather he looked not upon the ruby, but the sunshine of yesterday was too much for his good resolutions, and he lost his grip with the sad result we have recorded. His Honor, the Mayor, thought that $10 would satisfy the injury done to the peace and dignity of the State, but as that amount was not forthcoming Obadiah will languish in the city prison for 20 days.

Maj. C. W. McClammy offers for sale in this issue 100 bushels of the "Ozier Long Staple Silk Cotton Seed" which is said to be three weeks earlier than other cotton and very prolific. It may be ordered through Major McClammy, at Scott's Hill, or of Capt. J. B. Huggins, Wilmington.

A petition to the Legislature for Legislation in favor of the State Guard was circulated here to-day and is being signed by numbers of merchants and property holders.

Capt. Skinner gives notice in this issue to all persons holding claims against the steamer Lisbon to present them for payment.
