THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C. TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1883. NO. 26

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Congressman Howitt is very ill in New York.

There is a great scarcity of labor in many sections of South Carolina.

Kentucky spends $917,000 for her public schools, and $7,046,000 for other purposes.

Rhode Island's fund for the statue of General Burnside now amounts to more than $30,000.

There are 300,000 school teachers in the United States, and there is room for 200,000 more.

According to the Monroe Express that flourishing town has 597 school children, 467 white and 190 colored.

Edwin Booth played King Lear in Berlin Tuesday night, and was called before the curtain eighteen times.

The Marquis of Lorne is in Washington; has visited the Capitol and attended a reception at the White House.

The elms are already in bud, and the grass is springing up in some places, something really unusual for January.

Senator Vance wants to know when the Senate is to begin to reduce the tariff, as it has thus far been increased.

The government is coining 100,000 ounces of silver into dimes. That will yield one million of the decimal coins.

Denmark sent Great Britain 68,491 sheep in 1881, the United States 49,223 Germany 401,999, Netherlands 254,477, and Canada 66,478.

Tobacco is grown in sixty-four of the sixty-seven counties of Pennsylvania. The total production in 1882 was 28,750,000 pounds, valued at $3,450,000.

Mr. W. J. Best and his Boston "syndicate" are trying hard to get on their feet again in North Carolina but it won't do; they have seen their Best days.

Florida wants to be a temperance State. A prohibition bill has passed the Senate unanimously and it is thought that it will surely pass the House and the Governor.

Factory operatives in New England are unidly asking for weekly payments of their wages, while their employers are as unanimously in favor of the monthly system.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette prophesies that "the breeding of great men will yet become a science, and that brains will be inherited with the rest of the patrimony."

The suggestion to limit the number of barrooms and sell licenses to the highest bidders, finds favor in Missouri where there is now a bar to every three hundred of the population.

Beast Butler, of Massachusetts, proposes to settle the woman suffrage question in that State by submitting it to a vote of the women themselves, in which case it will probably be defeated by an overwhelming majority.

The Baltimore Sun notes that "it is seldom a man so outspoken and combative as Mr. Hill endeavored himself so closely personally to his most pronounced political opponents. Wednesday's eulogies were creditable to those delivering them."

The assertion is going the rounds of the press that, according to a dispatch from Raleigh, Senator David Davis and Miss A. E. Burr are to be married at the lady's residence, near Fayetteville, immediately after the adjournment of Congress.

The English Postmaster-General is totally blind, and Mr. George Richardson, who has just been appointed Receiver and Accountant-General to the Post Office, is totally deaf. But in the Admiralty there is an official who is both deaf and dumb.

The most aged English baronet is the venerable Sir Moses Montefiore, who on the 25th of October next will enter upon his hundredth year. According to the list compiled by the editor of "Webster's Red Book," Sir Henry Preston, a Scotch baronet born in the year 1723, still survives. There are at least twenty baronets living who were born before the commencement of the present century. The eldest of these, after the names already mentioned, appears to be Sir T. Tryingham Bernard, born in 1701.

We are pained to learn of the death of Mr. John W. Harper, one of the editors of the Newbern Journal, which occurred at the Tucker House in Raleigh on the night of the 28th inst. Mr. Harper was a native of Lenoir county, was educated at Chapel Hill, studied law with the late Chief-Justice Pearson and after graduating settled at Kinston where he became editor of the Kinston Journal. Afterwards he went to Newbern and established the Newbern Journal, with which he was connected at the time of his death. The deceased was about 35 years of age, and his disease was malignant bilious fever. He had the very best of medical attention, but without avail, as he died after only a week's illness.

The Dizzies are said to be heading this way.

The spider has taken the place of the owl as a fashionable lace pin.

The English say postcard. Do you want to be English and say postcard?

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

They were asking 10 cents for pork this morning, whereas it sold yesterday for 7 cents.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand' Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Luck is the result of good judgement. One need not expect to find the four-leaved clover when there is snow on the ground.

It is a fact, as noted by a gentleman in this city, that up to-day there have been but five fair days in the new year, now a month old.

There will be a grand Ball to-night at Germania Hall, complimentary to the young ladies visiting here. It promises to be very successful and very pleasant.

Square tables are now fashionable for dining-rooms; usually they are supported upon one central column extending into curved lions' heads, breast and feet. Mahogany is coming into favor again.

Geometrical designs are now the most fashionable for all small articles; doilies, for instance, are left quite plain in the center, and in each corner a double triangle or interlacing circles or squares are worked.

We learn that the freshest in the Black river, which has been one of the largest known in many years, is rapidly subsiding, though there yet remains a large volume of water in the stream, and the banks are yet overflowed in many places.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the Hibernian Society will give a "Sociable" at Rankin Hall on Monday, February 5th, the proceeds to be devoted to a charitable purpose. It will, we trust, be well attended and patronized, as the object is worthy and the committee of arrangements understand just how to make the affair pleasant and agreeable.

Fair at Smithville.
We learn that the ladies connected with the Episcopal Church at Smithville contemplate holding a Fair and Festival, to take place during the coming Spring, for the benefit of the church. We wish them an abundant success in their laudable undertaking. Those who feel an interest in the matter and would assist the enterprise in any way can do so by communicating with "A," box 607, this city.

For Pocket Knives or Table Cutlery, go to JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Journalistic.
We have received the initial number of the Blue Ridge Enterprise, published at Highlands, Macon county, N. C., of which Mr. E. E. Ewing is the editor and proprietor. It is well gotten up and gives much interesting matter regarding the "Switzerland of America," as that portion of the Blue Ridge is appropriately called. The subscription price is only $1.50 per annum and we hope it may receive that hearty support it so eminently deserves. The number before us contains an interesting account of the settlement of Highlands, which was in 1875, and its varied fortunes since that time until the present when it is on the broad road to success.

Another Water Motor.

Mr. W. L. DeRosset, Jr., Proprietor of the Mercantile Job Printing house, has just had a water motor put in for the purpose of running his presses. This was rendered necessary because of the increased demand upon his resources, and by it he has obtained facilities for nearly twice the amount of press work formerly had, a necessity rendered imperative by his rapidly increasing business.

A baby was born in a cemetery at Marshalltown, Iowa, a short time ago, but every-where can be seen babies borne to the cemetery because mothers cruelly neglect to procure Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, a sure cure for croup, colds and coughs.

Postal Ruling.

All postmasters have been notified by the Postmaster-General that section 371 of the Postal Laws and Regulations has been amended to read that prepaid letters shall be forwarded from one office to another at the request of the party addressed without additional charge of postage. This does not apply to second, third, and fourth class matter, such as newspapers, magazines, circulars, and merchandise of all kinds, and persons desiring all such forwarded must furnish stamps sufficient to prepay full postage.

Humpty Dumpty.

The "New Southern Humpty Dumpty Troupe," an organization composed of some of our young citizens, will give an entertainment at the Opera House in this city on the night of Thursday, February 8th., and from a perusal of the programme, which is already announced, we should judge it would be well worthy of public patronage. The troupe have been several weeks engaged in making preparation for the entertainment and have devoted much time to attain excellence in the several parts. We hope it may prove successful, and that our home talent, of which we have an abundance, may be encouraged.

Friends in Richmond.

We notice in the Richmond State a lengthy and interesting account of an entertainment given in that city last Thursday evening, at Sanger Hall, by a number of amateurs. The entertainment was strictly private and select, the audience having been present as invited guests. The piece presented was "Emerald," and the State says that the characters throughout were admirably sustained. Our interest has been attracted to the report from the appearance on the programme of the name of Mr. Paul W. Pope, son of Col. A. Pope, who assumed the role of Dave Hardy, a young North Carolinian, in which, says the State, he sustained himself so admirably as to be frequently interrupted by the applause of the audience. After the performance there was a german, and the festivities of the occasion wound up with a delightful supper, given by four married ladies who were interested in the Club, and our young friends in Wilmington can readily understand who one of these ladies was, and who it was that was probably the ruling spirit in the programme of pleasure.

A Friend in a Foreign Land.

We have just learned of some very unpleasant experiences which befell Mr. Ed. S. Nash, a young gentleman well-known in this city, where he formerly resided and where he was a great favorite. Mr. Nash is travelling in Europe for Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co., of New York, and just before Christmas he was in Berlin. Passing through the crowded streets there one day, he was knocked down and run over and was picked up insensible by the police. For several days he was insensible, during which time he was cared for by the authorities. It was ascertained that he was an American and our consul at Berlin went to see him and ascertained who he was. The interest of a number of the American residents in Berlin was aroused in his behalf, and he received every care and attention which could be bestowed upon him. He was removed to the residence of a lady, a kind, noble woman from Illinois, who cared for him as for a dear relative. It had been ascertained who he was by means of dispatches from this city over the cable, and the lady who nursed him so kindly wrote a long letter to his mother, at Hillsboro, telling her all about the accident. Mr. Nash has since then fully recovered and is now, we understand, in Russia on business for his firm.

Magistrates Court.

Charles Anderson, colored, was brought before justice Millis this morning, charged with an assault and battery upon his wife Laura Anderson. He was ordered to give a bond of $25 for his appearance to-morrow morning, failing in which he was sent to jail for safe keeping.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barque Norden, Capt. Woxholt, cleared to-day for London, with 2,351 barrels rosin, valued at $3,545 shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co. Nor. barque Titania, Capt. Albrethsen, cleared for Hamburg with 2,810 barrels rosin, valued at $5,500, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Chris and Lena.

This fun-loving and fun-making couple, impersonated by Messrs Baker & Farron, were in the best of spirits at the Opera House last night and kept the audience in a roar of laughter from the rising of the curtain to the going down thereof. Their drolleries were inimitable, their singing excellent and their Dutch and Irish comicallities irresistibly funny. There was nothing broad or coarse in the performance, but it was brim full and overflowing with good-jolly, healthy fun which was heartily appreciated. The fine musical effect of the closing chorus was shockingly marred by the rudeness of quite a number of the audience who made a rush for the doors before the piece was concluded, much to the annoyance of those who would have gladly listened undisturbed until its completion.

Butts' Panorama.

On Friday evening next (Feb. 2nd.) those who have a fondness for the beautiful in art, (and we know there are many in Wilmington,) will have an opportunity of being gratified by an exhibition of Butts' beautiful panorama of scenes taken from the Bible, which takes place at the Opera House commencing at 7 1/2 o'clock. There will also be a matinee in the afternoon commencing at 3 o'clock. Many scenes of the Old Testament will be presented and also an illustration of the Apocalyptic Vision of the New Testament. As a work of art illustrating Bible history, Butts' Panorama has been spoken of in the highest praise wherever it has been exhibited.
