THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1883. NO. 29

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

General Fitzhugh Lee expects to review the Brooklyn militia on February 7th.

New York tradesmen say there is by no means so much money in circulation as a year ago.

Harper & Brothers announce an edition of Edgar Allen Poe's "Raven," with M. Dore's illustrations.

The minuet has been revived in Europe. It will, of course, soon be called into fashion in this country.

The Norfolk Virginian comes to the front in support of the argument in favor of the free transportation of newspapers in the mails.

The Prince of Wales has at Sandringham 105 shorthorn cows and twenty-nine shorthorn bulls, which are kept in two distinct herds.

The Legislature is now getting down to work—Durham Plant.

Is it? Glad to hear it. Now, pray, please tell us what it is doing.

General Beauregard resembles a courtier of the Louise XIV, days and is in reality a handsome old man with white moustache, ruddy countenance and gray hair.

The Augusta Chronicle says that the Atlanta papers will probably appeal to the Railroad Commissioners to compel the Richmond & Danville Railroad to carry the fast mail.

Mahone is now called "the silent man of the Senate." It is thought that he is just beginning to get a just appreciation of himself. Gen. Lee, it is said, always liked Mahone best with his mouth shut.

Leonard Sweet, who is of high standing at the Illinois bar, suggests the appointment of commissioners to select the names of jurors, taking the poll list as a basis, but using their discretion as to the names to be included in the jury panel.

King William of Germany, the oldest of the Kings and rulers of the world, is eighty-six, and Alfonso of Spain, the youngest, twenty-five. The Pope is seventy-three, Alexander of Russia thirty-one, and Victoria sixty-three.

The 253,852 manufacturing establishments of the United States have a working capital of $2,700,272,606, pay $947,953,795 annually to 2,738,895 employees, use materials to the amount of $3,266,823,549, and turn out products to the value of $5,369,579,191.

It is said that the Republicans will move Heaven and earth and the other place—and especially the latter, as being a country they are most friendly with—to carry one or more Southern States next year and it is thought that the biggest effort will be made in North Carolina.

Judge Jere Black fell a short time ago and fractured his right arm in several places. Being an old man, the physicians say that he will probably never recover the use of it. A surprising fact is that he has learned to write with great facility and rapidity with his left hand and still conducts his own correspondence.

Jay Gould was a cow-boy, James R. Keene came from England with twenty dollars in his pocket, Rufus Hatch began by dealing in "garden sass," D. Appleton kept a grocery store, James Watson Webb was a country clerk, Henry Villard was a reporter, Leonard Jerome was an itinerant printer, H. B. Clafin was a Vermont school teacher, Charles O'Connor was born in a shanty of the poorest of Irish parents and Peter Cooper was a hatter's apprentice. It's money that makes the mare go, in this country.

Here is the way the rent rolls foot up in this country: Fifteen Americans are said to own $20,000,000, as for instance: W. H. Vanderbilt, $260,000,000; Jay Gould, $100,000,000; Leland Sanford, $100,000,000; C. P. Huntington, $100,000,000; Charles Crocker, $60,000,000; Mrs. Hopkins, $50,000,000; Russell Sage, $40,000,000; James Flood, $40,000,000; J. G. Fair, $40,000,000; J. G. Mackey, $30,000,000; Cyrus W. Field, $25,000,000; James Keene, $20,000,000; estate of Thomas Scott, $20,000,000; John W. Garrett, $20,000,000; Samuel J. Tilden, $15,000,000. It is probable that some of these amounts are at least fifty per cent overstated.

And now it appears that Vincent, State Treasurer of Alabama, is a defaulter for $237,000, all of which is thought to have gone in cotton futures. Vincent's last deal was when he left and told his friends that he would see them future.

The Greensboro Patriot thinks we "hadn't order" called it a "scheme" to sacrifice the State's interest in the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. and declares that it is an "open proposition to buy." As we said, we have not seen the bill but we go by what was published of it in the News and Observer, which was copied by us in connection with "our own feeble remarks." With the article from the News and Observer before us we have only to say that we still stick to the text.

LOCAL NEWS. INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. YATES—No Obnoxious Comics. MCNEIS BROS—Garden Feed. HEINSBERGER—Five Cent Music.

Capt. Paul H. Langdon, of Augusta, Ga., is in the city to-day.

February, the last of the winter months, is with us to-day.

This makes two consecutive days of pleasant, sunny weather.

A force of hands was kept busy during the greater part of the day in removing the mud from the streets, where it had accumulated during the late "moist" spell.

The last measurements made in the several channels at the mouth of the river, by the pilots, were as follows:—Bald Head bar, 13 feet 6 inches; Western bar, 11 feet 6 inches; Rip, 5 feet 6 inches.

Thanks to the committee for tickets to the musical and literary entertainment to be given to the District Grand Lodge, No. 5, I. O. B. B., by North State Lodge, No. 222, of this city, at the Opera House, next Tuesday evening.

We have no hesitancy in urging upon those who wish to see a really fine work of art to visit the Opera House to-morrow on the occasion of the exhibition of Mr. Butt's panorama. It will well repay all who may attend.

At a meeting of subscribers to the stock of the Southern Ore Company, the following gentlemen were elected a Board of Directors: E. S. Latimer, Geo. R. French, Jr., J. Beno, Alex. M. Goldstone, John F. Baker, Nicholas Gayer, Louis Bosh.

We were pleased to receive a call this morning from our clever young friend, H. Dudley Burkholder, of this city, who is traveling in North Carolina as the representative of the hardware house of David B. Taylor & Bro., of Baltimore. He goes from here to Fayetteville.

A fine assortment of Guns and Pistols at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Painful Accident.

We were very sorry to hear of a painful accident which befel Mr. P. Heinsberger, of this city, yesterday afternoon while riding in his buggy with two of his children, the horse stumbled over some obstacle and fell and Mr. Heinsberger was thrown out sustaining some severe bruises. Fortunately assistance was at hand and the children were caught and assisted from the vehicle uninjured. Mr. H's injuries are very painful, but not serious and he hopes to be all right in a day or two.

Mis Fannie Smith, Newberne, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it the best tonic in existence."

Harbor Master's Report.

During the month of January just passed there were of American vessels which arrived at this port, 9 steamers, aggregating 7,754 tons; 1 barque of 271 tons; 1 brig of 230 tons and 19 schooners, aggregating 4,892 tons, making an aggregate of 30 American vessels of 12,947 tons. Of foreign vessels there were 12 barques aggregating 4,592 tons; 9 brigs aggregating 2,687 tons, and 1 schooner of 111 tons, making 22 foreign vessels aggregating 7,390 tons, and a grand total of 53 vessels aggregating 20,337 tons.

Thoughts suggested to a Drummer on reading the notice of Detective Mayer's sickness:

Now, Doctor dear, give me your ear. Add answer very quick. Pray tell me if 'tis really true That old Fice Mayer is sick?

Not ill enough to die just now, Or even suffer much pain, But keep him in his home confined, For he's the drummers' lane.

Then, Doctor, dear, we beg and plead That you will keep him ill, And on my word, the drummer boys Will gladly pay your bill.

So drop in on him every day, And tell him he is worse, And we'll raise a goodly sum With which to fill your purse.

It is certain the longer a speech, the weaker it is, but not so with a cold, the longer it runs, the worse it becomes. A cold, be it ever so slight, is no trifle; it should be checked in its early stages. Dr Bull's Cough Syrup is the "Balm of Gilead" that millions say is divine in its origin.

Rentz-Santley Co. Mr. Abe Leavitt, agent for the Rentz-Santley Novelty Company, was in town to-day, making arrangements for his company, which will play here on the 9th of February. The following is from the Brooklyn Eagle:

A spirited performance by the Rentz-Santley Burlesque Company was given last night at Messrs. Hyde & Behman's theatre, to the unspeakable delight of a very large audience. Miss Mabel Santley, Miss Lottie Elliott and all the old favorites of the company were accorded a hearty welcome, the newcomers meeting with a generous reception. Since last season the company has been reorganized, preliminary to its proposed Continental tour, and is now very complete in its various departments, which comprise nearly every possible phase of variety and specialty performance. A decidedly amusing burlesque extravaganza, entitled, "The Daughter's Banker," a palpable hit on a well-known popular play, elicited roars of laughter.

The celebrated 'Fish Brand' Gills Twine is sold only at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

On His Travels.

Last evening Chief of Police Brock received a telegraphic dispatch from Washington, D. C., requesting him to take in custody a young lad who would arrive on the 10:45 p. m. train with a through ticket to Jacksonville, Fla.—A description of the youngster and the number of his ticket were given, so that the police had no difficulty in securing the lad when the train arrived here. The youngster, who is only thirteen years of age, took his detention very philosophically, and made no remonstrance at the act of the police. He was taken to the City Hall where he is under surveillance, although he is not locked up in a cell. The young fellow is a page in the House of Representatives and has his badge of office, inscribed with the legend, "Page, H. R. 19."

He states that he started for Florida on a gunning expedition un-known to his parents, and has a small and very neat rifle with him. In conversation we found him remarkably bright, quick and intelligent, knowing the names of all the members of the House, with the State and district they respectively represent. There is no charge against him, further than that he has run away from his duties and his parents, and the present course was adopted to secure his return. He takes a very cool and jocos view of the situation, stating that he thought he would stop over here a day or two on his journey South, and that he has concluded to postpone his visit to Florida for a more auspicious occasion. One of his relatives will arrive here to-night, and he will probably leave on his return to Washington to-morrow. He has something over thirty dollars in money, but is rather confused as to how he could manage to live in Florida for any length of time on that amount. But one thing is certain; he is smart and keen enough to get along where many older heads would meet with utter defeat and failure.

The truck farmers are improving every hour of pleasant weather in preparing the season's crop of early vegetables, and the yards and gardens in the city are being cleared of the Winter's accumulated trash to welcome the approaching Spring.

The Lenten Season. Ash-Wednesday comes uncommonly early this year, viz: on the 7th inst, next Wednesday. On Ash-Wednesday commences the season of Lent, which lasts forty days. In Catholic countries the twelve days immediately preceding Lent are kept as a season of festivities and called the Carnival. The word Carnival is derived from two Latin words and means "farewell to flesh," as flesh is forbidden to all good Catholics during the Lenten season.

Death of a Veteran. Mr. Benj. L. Clark, a veteran of the late civil war died in this city yesterday, aged 47 years. Mr. Clark was a member of Co. I, 18th N. C. Regiment, (Wilmington Rifle Guards) and was desperately wounded in the engagement at Cedar Run, the ball entering his left side, under the arm and passing through the body. From the effects of this he was partially paralyzed, in speech as well as in body, and has ever since led a painful existence. He was an excellent soldier—one of the best in the regiment—and was beloved by all. Gentle, quiet and unassuming in his deportment, he was at the same time one of the bravest spirits of our sad and unfortunate war. Peaceful be his rest. He is one more among the noble army of martyrs who have crossed over the river and are now resting under the shade of the trees.

The Southern Ore Company. Mr. J. Beno, one of the projectors of the Southern Ore Company, and one of the Directors elected by the stockholders yesterday, leaves here this evening for Charlotte, from whence he will go to Salisbury and thence on to New York to be absent a week or ten days. His trip is in the interest of the company. There are three mines in this State, one in Moore county, one in Mecklenburg, and the third in Lincoln, which are expected to supply the works here with eighty tons of ore per day, all of which, and more, the company will be prepared to handle. This ore will probably, for the most part, be brought here on the Carolina Central Railroad. Mr. Beno's visit to New York will be for the purpose of being present at the organization of the Board of Directors and it is very probable that he will be elected President of the Company.
